DOZING TRUCK DRIVER DOWNS $8,000 FENCE

A tractor-trailer driver fell asleep this morning as he passed the National Cemetery and his vehicle smashed through the fence around the cemetery causing $8,500 damage.

The accident was one of three investigated by borough police Wednesday and today.

According to the officers James Edward Bosley, 22, Pinksburg R. 1, was headed north on the Littlestown Rd. in a tractor-trailer owned by the Devillbiss Trucking Co., Uniontown, Md., at 1 o'clock this morning.

PAYS $10 FINE

As the vehicle came over the top of the grade at the southern edge of the borough, the driver fell asleep, the officers said. The heavy vehicle crossed the road climbed the curb, crossed the sidewalk and smashed into the cemetery fence.

Police estimated damage to the truck at $500. It had a broken windshield, hole in the cab, a headlight broken and the fuel tank was broken open.

The police report listed Park Ranger John Rogers as estimating the damage to the fence at $8,000.

Bosley was taken before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder before whom he paid a $10 fine and costs on a charge of reckless driving brought by the officers.

2 OTHER MISHAPS

The other accidents investigated by the borough police officers occurred Wednesday afternoon.

The first occurred at 3:15 o'clock on E. Middle St. Police said Roy D. Taylor, New Oxford R. 2, had parked his car headed west in the first block of E. Middle St. Taylor sought to leave the parking space to head west and his car struck the side of a passing auto driven by Kenneth A. Shanefelter, Gettysburg R. 4. Damage was estimated at $25 to Taylor's car and $75 to Shanefelter's.

The other accident occurred at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Borough police said Mary L. Hartman, Cashtown, was driving out of the parking lot at Gettysburg High School when her car struck a westbound auto driven by Regina C. Heyser, 43 South St. Damage was estimated at $50 to the door of the Heyser car, none to the Hartman vehicle.

CANCER GROUP PLANS ITS '63 FUND CRUSADE

The Adams County Cancer Society today announced plans for its forthcoming campaign for funds in April and at the same time reported it exceeded its 1962 Crusade quota by $1,400.

W. Russell Schwartz, Windbrail Lane, will head up the 1963 campaign. The board of directors of the society at a meeting on Tuesday appointed a committee of former chairmen comprising Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler, chairman; Dr. James H. Hammett, Attorney John MacPhail and Mrs. C. William Harbaugh to work with the crusade director in next year's campaign.

The report of Mrs. Buehler as chairman and Richard J. Schultz as co-chairman of the 1962 campaign showed a total of $11,900 secured, while the quota was $10,500. The income included $9,603.50 donated through collections in residential areas; $968.30 from

TO DEDICATE COVERED SPAN AS MEMORIAL

The New Oxford High School band will provide the music Sunday afternoon for the dedication of the Peepstown bridge as a permanent memorial to the covered wooden bridge.

Associate Judge Clarence D. Deardorff, president of the Adams County Historical Society, said Assistant Superintendent of Schools George B. Inskip, a member of the dedication committee, has made arrangements for the New Oxford High School band, directed by Donald L. Kemp, to play a selection of marches prior to the dedication service and to play "America, the Beautiful," "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner" during the program.

The covered wooden bridge has been turned over to the state highways system to Adams County and Reading and Hamilton Twp., which it joins, for permanent presentation.

TO CUT RIBBON

A new concrete bridge has been constructed with new approaches to provide for traffic on the highway previously served by the lengthy wooden span over Conewago Creek between Abbotstown and Hampton.

Attorney Donald M. Swope will be master of ceremonies. Rev. Amos D. Meyers will give the invocation and benediction. Judge Clarence D. Deardorff, president of the historical society, will give the welcome and Dr. W. E. Tilberg, chairman of the covered bridge committee of the Adams County Historical Society, will dedicate the bridge. The acceptance address will be made by County Commissioner Clarence J. Waybright.

A ribbon marking the opening of the bridge for public view will be cut by the Adams County commissioners and the supervisors from Reading and Hamilton Twp.

Presentation of a seal from the Theodore Burr Covered Bridge Society of Pennsylvania will be made by the president of that organization, Mrs. Vera H. Wagner.

WINS FFA HONORS

Carl Mummert, 16, son of Sterling J. Mummert, Dillsburg R. 2, won the reserve grand champion and reserve senior champion honors in the Future Farmers of America Brown Swiss class Wednesday at the Pennsylvania Junior Dairy Show at the farm show building in Harrisburg. He is an 11th Grade Student at Dover High School.

PLAN "VILLAGE FAIR"

A "Village Fair" will be held Saturday, October 13, from 1 to 8:30 p.m. at the Fairfield High School for benefit of the school, it was announced today.

Republican Candidates Visit Ike

The entire Republican state ticket called on former President Eisenhower at his offices at 8:15 o'clock this morning for an informal discussion of the progress of the campaign and briefed him on developments since he spoke at a GOP rally and dinner in Scranton several days ago. The visiting group also included a number of veterans for the GOP ticket. Included in the party were James VanZandt, candidate for U.S. senator; William W. Scranton, for governor; Raymond Shafer, for lieutenant governor; Mrs. Audrey Kelly, secretary of Internal Affairs, and Judge Samuel J. Roberts, for the Supreme Court. The veterans had a mobile display of war equipment. Gen. Eisenhower is in the center, flanked on his right by VanZandt and on his left by Mrs. Kelly. (Lane Studio)

AAUW AGREES ON PROJECT TO BE STUDIED

The Gettysburg AAUW Wednesday evening agreed to go ahead with a study of the "Megalopolis" developing on the eastern seaboard as a pilot project for possible future action by the American Association of University Women throughout the nation.

A total of 115 attended Wednesday's session in the Eisenhower Federal cafeteria at which Dr. Frederick H. Gutheim, director of the Washington Center for Metropolitan Studies, outlined the growth of the eastern seaboard, from New Hampshire to Virginia, toward one almost continuous city with Adams County on its western fringe.

"Megalopolis," the name given to the huge city which is developing in the area, was described as both "a geographical entity and a frame of mind." The cities in the eastern seaboard have been growing larger and larger, extending toward each other. If the growth continues as it has in the past the area will eventually be to a large extent one continuous city.

ACUTE PROBLEMS

At present, Dr. Gutheim noted "one-fifth of the nation's population is earning its living on one-thousandth of the nation's area."

The 38,000,000 residing in the area embraced by "Megalopolis" constitutes an "economic hinge" of the nation toward Europe.

Despite the rapidly growing population, the people of the area now produce 5.8 per cent of the nation's crops on 1.8 per cent of the crop land.

With the growth of the "great city," problems of government and transportation are becoming more acute and will take "much study and much cooperation." Already there are cities that have grown so far beyond their boundaries that they include the city government and borough and township governments, yet no one can tell, unless he is a student Radio station WGCT will rebroadcast the ceremonies attending the presentation of 264 acres of Battlefield land to the United States government by the W. Alston Jones Foundation at 5:45 o'clock this evening.

The presentation by Mrs. W. A. Jones, widow of the founder who was a personal friend of former President Eisenhower, made the presentation and Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall accepted the gift on behalf of the government.

The program was a private affair held in the Visitors' Center at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

General and Mrs. Eisenhower and Governor and Mrs. David L. Lawrence were among the 35 guests present.

NAB SUSPECTS IN ROBBERY AT E. BERLIN VFW

Three York area men Wednesday were accused of 11 burglaries in York County and state police here said they are suspected of looting the East Berlin VFW recently.

State police of York, Gettysburg and Harrisburg, and local police of West York, West Manchester Twp., Spring Grove Twp., Spring Grove and York joined in the investigation which led to the filing of the 11 charges including various counts of burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods against Ronald Barber, 23, and Jesse Howard Jr., 22, both of York, and Ralph Wynegar, 19, York R. 6. State police from Gettysburg questioned the trio in the York County jail today in connection with Adams County burglaries, particularly the one at East Berlin.

Much of the loot in the various burglaries has been recovered, police said. The charges against the trio were filed before four justices of the peace.

NEW BIBLE DICTIONARY PUBLISHED

"The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible," a new publication in four volumes, has recently come off the presses and will be available to the public in the early future.

Among the more than 250 experts who contributed articles is Dr. Jacob M. Myers, professor of Hebrew and Old Testament literature and theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary. He is the only theologian in this area to have contributed to the new work. He wrote on the following subjects:

Saul, David, Solomon, Anket, Apron, Array, Holy, Amlet, Bag, Bandage, Bands, Magic, Beaten Oil, Belt, Bleach, Bracelet, Boot, Breeches, Brooch, Collar, Design, Dress and Ornaments, Earring, Embroidery and Needlework, Festival Garment, Finery, Fringe, Frontlets, Garland, Girdle, Haircloth, Headband, Headress, Linen, Linen Garments, Mantle, Napkin, Nose Ring, Pendant, Powders of the Merchant, Purse, Ring, Robe, Sandals and Shoes, Sewing, Scrip, Shuttle, Silk, Sleeves, Skirt, Stuff, Turban, Twined Linen, Veil, Vestments, Waistcloth, Figured Stone, Oak of the Pillar, Tassel, Bell.

MANY FEATURES

The new publication is an illustrated encyclopedia defining and explaining:

Every person named in the Bible or Apocrypha; every town and region, hill and stream; every plant, animal, and mineral; every object used in daily life; every biblical doctrine and theological concept; more than 1,000 black and white illustrations; 32 pages of illustrations in full color, and 24 pages of full-color Westminster maps.

In addition to the definitions of individual words are full-length articles on each book of the Bible; on the Apocrypha and other extra-canonical books, including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Gnostic Manuscripts, and on great theological concepts of the Bible.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk has told Congress that if the Soviets or Cubans attempt to move arms into other Latin American countries the armed forces of the United States will be "used to intercept such traffic."

In testimony made public today, Rusk also said, "We intend to enforce the right to conduct such a surveillance, and this itself could lead to certain incidents which would involve the use of the armed forces of the United States."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders decided after a White House breakfast today to make a fight in the House to recover deep cuts in the annual foreign aid appropriation bill.

The House plans to vote on the bill late today.

The leaders' reluctant decision brought threats from some high Republicans to impose even sharper reductions than those recommended by a House committee.

First Frost May Come Here Tonight

There was a hint in the air early this morning that frost may come soon and forecasters say the first frost of the season may arrive tonight. The low for this morning at The Gettysburg Times weather station was 42 degrees making this the coldest day here since May 10.

Last year the first frost came on the morning of September 30 when the mercury dropped to 37 degrees.

Sunday will be the first day of fall.

NO PHYSICAL CALL

The Adams County Selective Board reported Wednesday afternoon it has been notified that it will not call any men for final physical examinations in October. Earlier this month, the draft board had been notified that no men would be called for induction next month.

COUNTY CD LAUDED FOR RECORD HERE

Adams County's Civil Defense organization has been singled out by the Central Area Headquarters of the State Council of Civil Defense as the leader in the National Fallout Shelter program among the 26 counties of the area.

With 97 returns from the owners of the present 123 tentatively approved buildings heard from, Adams County is far out in front. Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver said.

Officials from the Mifflin County Civil Defense office recently visited the Adams County office to study the methods used here. They were just starting their program. While here, the Mifflin County officials spent some time studying the control center in the Gettysburg fire engine house from which the emergency radio net is operated as well as the quick-call system. They said they were impressed with the entire operation.

C-D Director Weaver also acting as shelter officer for the county, expressed his appreciation for the cooperation being given the local officials by the property owners of the county. Only two outright refusals, without reason, were received. Some others for very adequate reasons, which they expressed on the form, also declined to go into the program. However the great majority signed, accepting the program.

There are still some to be heard from, Mr. Weaver said, and he hopes to have their decision soon.

No other county in the 26-county central area approaches Adams County in the number of shelter licenses issued. As of the date of this report, there were 97 shelter areas on which licenses have been executed. The nearest approach to that figure is in Lycoming County with 64. Dauphin had only 49, Lebanon, 32, and Bedford, 20. In 19 of the counties, including York, no shelters have been licensed.

ASSIGNED TO CHURCH POST

County Schoolmen Examine Five Plans For Reorganizing County's School Districts

WILL LAUNCH CONCERT DRIVE MONDAY NIGHT

The Adams County Board of School Directors at a special meeting Wednesday evening with school administrators and board presidents from throughout the county began a study that will place all schools of the county in a single school district or divide the county into not more than two districts.

Under Act 561, passed by the state legislature last year, the county board must submit its county school reorganization plan to the state Council of Education before January 1, 1963.

Five possible plans for reorganization of the public schools of the county were presented Wednesday evening at the three-hour meeting at the county superintendent's office on Carlisle St.

HEAR DR. BRYAN

One of the plans provided for a single school district for the entire county. The four others offered various plans for dividing the county into two districts with varying prospects of approval by the state council.

Act 561 and its application in Adams County were discussed for the county schoolmen Wednesday evening by Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, director of state reorganization for the state Department of Public Instruction. Dr. Bryan, who said he was giving his 167th talk on the new school act, called Wednesday's meeting "one of the best planned I've attended anywhere in the state."

The same group of administrators and school board presidents will gather again in early November to make recommendations to the county board before that body makes its final decision on the plan it will submit to Harrisburg by the December 31 deadline.

Dr. Bryan told the group that the state Council of Education would approve "without question" a plan placing the entire county in one school district. He said some of the plans for a two-district county might be approved while others almost certainly would be rejected.

Complete statistics on population and finances for each plan were submitted along with district maps by County Superintendent M. Francis Coulson and his assistant, George B. Inskip.

PLAN A "POSSIBLE"

Plan A, which Dr. Bryan said would need "strong arguments to justify it on questions of financial ability and pupil population of the smaller district," would divide the county this way:

District A-1 would include Upper Adams Merged, Bermudian Springs Joint and New Oxford Area Merged which would provide a total population of 18,801 and a school population of 3,853, both of which are below state-fixed minimums.

District A-2 would include Littlestown Joint, Conewago Twp., McSherrystown, Fairfield Joint and Gettysburg Joint with a total population of 33,015 and 5,252 pupils, both safely above state minimum requirements.

"MIGHT BE APPROVED"

Plan B, which Dr. Bryan said might be approved but which would draw state questions on matters of attendance areas, would divide the county this way:

District B-1 would include

Ambulance Corps Session Is Held

The ambulance corps of the Gettysburg Fire Department met Wednesday evening at the engine house. A training session followed the meeting at which Chairman Julius Swope presided. Members were asked to check the oil and water in the ambulance each time they put gas in the vehicles.

Decision was made to purchase a special type of orthopedic stretcher for use in cases where patients have suffered fractures. The possibility of purchasing an additional ambulance chair stretcher was discussed.

JUDGE MILLER IS GIVEN OATH

G. Thomas Miller, son of Mrs. George R. Miller, 133 W. Lincoln Ave., and the late Dr. Miller, vowing to have "neither enemies nor affections but only sight for that which is right," Wednesday was sworn in as judge of Dauphin County Common Pleas Court.

Superior Court Judge Robert E. Woodside administered the oath to the 39-year-old Harrisburg lawyer who fills a vacancy created by the death on August 3 of President Judge William H. Neely.

Judge Miller, a Democrat, is the 37th judge in the history of Dauphin County courts. It is the first time that two Democrats have been on the bench at the same time. President Judge Lee F. Swope of Orphans' Court is the other Democrat. The other four county jurists are Republicans. The six judges sit together as Commonwealth Court, court of original jurisdiction for suits involving the state.

Judge Miller was named last week by Gov. Lawrence to an interim appointment. He will serve until January, 1964. But the post will be up for election in November, 1963.

Father Locks 2 Daughters In House For Seven Months

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tract house in suburban Mission Hills is were "seeing boys" and padlocked the house several months ago Karen was permitted to attend junior high school in Granada Hills, but Bonnie had to remain in the locked house studying correspondence courses. They had no radio, television or telephone.

The father, Eugene Austin, 33, consulting engineer, was charged Wednesday with endangering the girls' health and safety. He told newsmen: "As a parent I tried to do what was right and take care of my daughters."

TWICE DIVORCED

Austin said he was divorced from the mother of the girls about 10 years ago, remarried and was divorced again in 1957. Since then he has lived alone with the girls.

The girls were placed in protective custody after saying their people in church. . . .

NEW BIBLE DICTIONARY PUBLISHED

"The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible," a new publication in four volumes, has recently come off the presses and will be available to the public in the early future.

Among the more than 250 experts who contributed articles is Dr. Jacob M. Myers, professor of Hebrew and Old Testament literature and theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary. He is the only theologian in this area to have contributed to the new work.

He wrote on the following subjects:

MANY FEATURES

The new publication is an illustrated encyclopedia defining and explaining:

Every person named in the Bible or Apocrypha; every town and region, hill and stream; every plant, animal, and mineral; every object used in daily life; every biblical doctrine and theological concept; more than 1,000 black and white illustrations; 32 pages of illustrations in full color, and 24 pages of full-color Westminster maps.

In addition to the definitions of individual words are full-length articles on each book of the Bible; on the Apocrypha and other extra-canonical books, including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Gnostic Manuscripts, and on great theological concepts of the Bible.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk has told Congress that if the Soviets or Cubans attempt to move arms into other Latin American countries the armed forces of the United States will be "used to intercept such traffic."

In testimony made public today, Rusk also said, "We intend to enforce the right to conduct such a surveillance, and this itself could lead to certain incidents which would involve the use of the armed forces of the United States."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration leaders decided after a White House breakfast today to make a fight in the House to recover deep cuts in the annual foreign aid appropriation bill.

The House plans to vote on the bill late today.

The leaders' reluctant decision brought threats from some high Republicans to impose even sharper reductions than those recommended by a House committee.

First Frost May Come Here Tonight

There was a hint in the air early this morning that frost may come soon and forecasters say the first frost of the season may arrive tonight. The low for this morning at The Gettysburg Times weather station was 42 degrees making this the coldest day here since May 10.

Last year the first frost came on the morning of September 30 when the mercury dropped to 37 degrees.

Sunday will be the first day of fall.

NO PHYSICAL CALL

The Adams County Selective Board reported Wednesday afternoon it has been notified that it will not call any men for final physical examinations in October. Earlier this month, the draft board had been notified that no men would be called for induction next month.

COUNTY CD LAUDED FOR RECORD HERE

Adams County's Civil Defense organization has been singled out by the Central Area Headquarters of the State Council of Civil Defense as the leader in the National Fallout Shelter program among the 26 counties of the area.

With 97 returns from the owners of the present 123 tentatively approved buildings heard from, Adams County is far out in front. Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver said.

Officials from the Mifflin County Civil Defense office recently visited the Adams County office to study the methods used here. They were just starting their program. While here, the Mifflin County officials spent some time studying the control center in the Gettysburg fire engine house from which the emergency radio net is operated as well as the quick-call system. They said they were impressed with the entire operation.

C-D Director Weaver also acting as shelter officer for the county, expressed his appreciation for the cooperation being given the local officials by the property owners of the county. Only two outright refusals, without reason, were received. Some others for very adequate reasons, which they expressed on the form, also declined to go into the program.

However the great majority signed, accepting the program. There are still some to be heard from, Mr. Weaver said, and he hopes to have their decision soon.

No other county in the 26-county central area approaches Adams County in the number of shelter licenses issued. As of the date of this report, there were 97 shelter areas on which licenses have been executed. The nearest approach to that figure is in Lycoming County with 64. Dauphin had 49, Lebanon, 32, and Bedford, 20. In 19 of the counties, including York, no shelters have been licensed.

ASSIGNED TO CHURCH POST

County Schoolmen Examine Five Plans For Reorganizing County's School Districts

WILL LAUNCH CONCERT DRIVE MONDAY NIGHT

The Gettysburg Community Concert Association membership campaign week will begin with the "kick off" dinner next Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Hotel Gettysburg dining room. Mrs. Henry M. Scharf is the dinner chairman. All campaign workers and board members have been invited to attend. The New York representative of Community Concerts will be present also.

The confirmation of two of the three concerts for this year's season have been received. Jorge Bolet, world famous pianist who played sound track on Franz Liszt film production "Song Without End," will appear on Wednesday, October 24. A Spanish ballet team, Inenez-Vargas, and their company of 14 dancers, Flamenco singers and guitarists will appear on Wednesday, November 28.

Adult membership tickets for the season cost $7.50 and student tickets, $3.50. These tickets are valid at community concerts in nearby areas, including Frederick, Waynesboro, Chambersburg and others. Announcements of some of these series have already been received and present a "most welcome variety of programs to be enjoyed by members," local officers said.

The Gettysburg membership campaign chairman is Mrs. William C. Darrah. The campaign drive will close on Saturday, September 29, to be followed by a summary meeting of the board members on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in the Hotel Gettysburg lounge, under the leadership of Paul Grove, local association president.

Mr. Grove has appointed the following additional committee chairman: Hotel desk chairman, Mrs. Earl Bowen; hospitality, Rev. W. R. Sammel; appointments, Mrs. Guillermo Barriaga; concert chairman, Prof. R. Henry Ackley, and publicity, Mrs. Jacob W. Heikinen.

The nominating committee consists of Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, chairman, Prof. Parker B. Wagild, and Kenneth Alwine. The audit committee members are David Bushman and Arthur Roth.

Ambulance Corps Session Is Held

The ambulance corps of the Gettysburg Fire Department met Wednesday evening at the engine house. A training session followed the meeting at which Chairman Julius Swope presided. Members were asked to check the oil and water in the ambulance each time they put gas in the vehicles.

Decision was made to purchase a special type of orthopedic stretcher for use in cases where patients have suffered fractures. The possibility of purchasing an additional ambulance chair stretcher was discussed.

STOCKS SAG

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock prices sagged moderately in another lackluster market today. Trading lagged.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 4 at 223.7 with industrials down .7, rails down .2, and utilities down .1.

WILL LAUNCH CONCERT DRIVE MONDAY NIGHT

The Adams County Board of School Directors at a special meeting Wednesday evening with school administrators and board presidents from throughout the county began a study that will place all schools of the county in a single school district or divide the county into not more than two districts.

Under Act 561, passed by the state legislature last year, the county board must submit its county school reorganization plan to the state Council of Education before January 1, 1963.

Five possible plans for reorganization of the public schools of the county were presented Wednesday evening at the three-hour meeting at the county superintendent's office on Carlisle St.

HEAR DR. BRYAN

One of the plans provided for a single school district for the entire county. The four others offered various plans for dividing the county into two districts with varying prospects of approval by the state council.

Act 561 and its application in Adams County were discussed for the county schoolmen Wednesday evening by Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, director of school reorganization for the state Department of Public Instruction. Dr. Bryan, who said he was giving his 167th talk on the new school act, called Wednesday's meeting "one of the best planned I've attended anywhere in the state."

The same group of administrators and school board presidents will gather again in early November to make recommendations to the county board before the plan it will submit to Harrisburg by the December 31 deadline.

SINGLE DISTRICT OK

Dr. Bryan told the group that the state Council of Education would approve "without question" a plan placing the entire county in one school district. He said some of the plans for a two-district county might be approved while others almost certainly would be rejected.

Complete statistics on population and finances for each plan were submitted along with district maps by County Superintendent M. Francis Coulson and his assistant, George B. Inskip.

PLAN A "POSSIBLE"

Plan A, which Dr. Bryan said would need "strong arguments to justify it on questions of financial ability and pupil population of the smaller district," would divide the county this way:

District A-1 would include Upper Adams Merged, Bernumian Springs Joint and New Oxford Area Merged which would provide a total population of 18,801 and a school population of 3,853, both of which are below state-fixed minimums.

District A-2 would include Littlestown Joint, Conewago Twp., McSherrytown, Fairfield Joint and Gettysburg Joint with a total population of 33,105 and 5,252 pupils, both safely above state minimum requirements.

"MIGHT BE APPROVED"

Plan B, which Dr. Bryan said might be approved but which would draw state questions on matters of attendance areas, would divide the county this way:

JUDGE MILLER IS GIVEN OATH

G. Thomas Miller, son of Mrs. George R. Miller, 133 W. Lincoln Ave., and the late Dr. Miller, vowing to have "neither enemies nor affections but only sight for that which is right," Wednesday was sworn in as judge of Dauphin County Common Pleas Court.

Superior Court Judge Robert E. Woodside administered the oath to the 39-year-old Harrisburg lawyer who fills a vacancy created by the death on August 3 of President Judge William H. Neely.

Judge Miller, a Democrat, is the 37th judge in the history of Dauphin County courts. It is the first time that two Democrats have been on the bench at the same time. President Judge Lee F. Swope of Orphans' Court is the other Democrat. The other four county jurists are Republicans. The six judges sit together as Commonwealth Court, court of original jurisdiction for suits involving the state.

Judge Miller was named last week by Gov. Lawrence to an interim appointment. He will serve until January, 1964. But the post will be up for election in November, 1963.

Father Locks 2 Daughters In House For Seven Months

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tract house in suburban Mission Hills is immaculate, say police, but it has padlocks on every window and double locks on all doors.

Bonnie Austin, 16, and Karen Austin, 15, claim their father kept them virtual prisoners in the house for seven months — until they broke a window and fled to police Tuesday.

The father, Eugene Austin, 39, consulting engineer, was charged Wednesday with endangering the girls' health and safety. He told newsmen: "As a parent I tried to do what was right and take care of my daughters."

TWICE DIVORCED

Austin said he was divorced from the mother of the girls about 10 years ago, remarried and was divorced again in 1957. Since then he has lived alone with the girls.

The girls were placed in protective custody after saying their father heard reports that they were "seeing boys" and padlocked the house several months ago. Karen was permitted to attend junior high school in Granada Hills, but Bonnie had to remain in the locked house studying correspondence courses. They had no radio, television or telephone.

The girls said their father treated them well otherwise, entertained guests at home and took the girls shopping with him.

Austin, freed on $500 bail, commented: "Bonnie got mixed up with some boys who gathered at a home where both parents were employed and where, I thought, supervision was lacking."

"The girls were not prisoners. They could get out through a window any time they wanted to. I read the Bible to them and tried to interest them in meeting young people in church...."

SPORTS NIGHT OBSERVED BY ROTARY CLUB

The Littlestown rotarians observed high school sports night at their meeting on Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. Jack Breain, athletic director at the local high school, presented a talk about the physical education program in the public school system. He noted that an obstacle course is nearing completion on the school grounds and will be the first such course to be used in the state of Pennsylvania. Other guests were William Heyser, head football coach at the school; Dale Hamm, backfield coach; Clifford Ruland, jayvee basketball coach; Lloyd L. Stavelly, administrative assistant to the high school and a member of the community service committee, which was in charge for the evening, introduced the coaching staff, Paul Herring, Westminster, and the Rev. William Hendrix, formerly of Pottersville, were visiting Rotarians.

President Howard A. Daum and several other members will attend the Rotary District Institute on Monday at the Holiday Motel.

The club will meet again next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's. The program will be arranged by the international service committee, composed of Fred W. King, chairman; Arthur E. Bair Sr., George P. Smith, Thomas C. McSherry, John D. Thrush and P. Emory Weaver.

GUEST SPEAKER

The Rev. Louis J. Hammann, Orrtanna R. D., professor of religion at Gettysburg College, will be the guest speaker in the Adult Department of the Sunday School of Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Sunday at 9:15 a.m. Rally Day will be observed.

Christ Ambassadors Youth Service of Bethel Assembly of God Church, along the Littlestown Fish and Game Rd., will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Friday at the church.

A public card party will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the

TO TURN WATER OFF

George Koons, son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Howard Koons, E. King St., and Miss Patricia Yingling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yingling, E. Myrtle St., both students at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, have resumed their studies there following the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Warner, Astoria, N.Y., recently left from Idlewild International Airport for a vacation in California and Honolulu. He is the son of Mrs. Helen E. Warner, E. King St., and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowers, Littlestown R. 2.

Littlestown borough officials have announced that the water will be turned off on E. King St., from Park Ave. to the square, on Friday from 10 to 11 a.m. Workmen will repair a hydrant. In case of rain Friday, the work will be done on the first nice evening thereafter, excluding Saturday and Sunday.

Miss M. Adelaide Hawk, Philadelphia, formerly of Littlestown, underwent surgery on Wednesday in Hahnemann Hospital, that city. Karl Bankert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, N. Queen St., and Michael Collins, son of Mrs. George G. Collins, son of St., both students at Dickinson College, Carlisle, have returned there for the fall semester of studies.

PTA MEETING HELD TUESDAY

"Who Can Help?" will be the program theme for the 1962-1963 meeting year of the Littlestown Jointure Parent-Teacher Association, as announced at the first fall session of the PTA held Tuesday evening in the new high school auditorium.

The meeting opened with the group singing "America," accompanied by Mrs. Eshbach, of the faculty, and continued as follows: Pledge to the flag; prayer by the Rev. Lawrence H. Roller, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church; group singing led by Mrs. Eshbach who also entertained with an organ solo.

President Sterling J. Wisotzkey presided for the business and announced that the unit membership goal for the year is 300. Mrs. Fred W. Hartlaub, secretary, and Mrs. Robert R. Reinaman, treasurer, gave their reports. The county council will meet Wednesday, September 26, at 8 p.m. in Biglerville. The unit will have a question box again this year.

John H. Riley, Rolling Acres Elementary School principal, and chairman of the standing program committee, presided for the evening's program for which the theme was "Extra Curricular in Your School." Five minute talks were given by the following faculty members: Miss Bosserman, new French teacher in the jointure, who told how teaching a foreign language in the elementary grades is beneficial; Miss Charlotte Rodgers spoke concerning the helpfulness of stressing developmental reading; John Bream talked about the physical fitness program in the schools; Paul A. Harner spoke on the music curriculum in the jointure; Frank E. Basehoar, high school principal, summarized the information imparted by the preceding teachers. Paul E. King, supervising principal of the jointure, also spoke briefly.

A social hour followed the business period and refreshments were served.

The PTA will meet again on

Governor Lauds New Castle Folk

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—The City of New Castle and the Lawrence County Society for Crippled Children and Adults drew praise Wednesday from Gov. Lawrence.

Lawrence noted that the society is "a voluntary, non-profit organization whose sole purpose is to aid the physically handicapped... it takes the humanitarian approach to the problem of crippled human beings."

He cited New Castle for its record of 26 consecutive months without a traffic fatality, and presented the city with the state's 1961 traffic safety award.

"Few other communities this size, anywhere in the nation, can boast a better, more effective program than this," he said.

SPANGLER RITES TODAY

Funeral services for John M. Spangler, 84, 550 Baltimore St., Hanover, formerly of Littlestown, and a retired farmer, who died Tuesday in the Hanover Hospital, were conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. Rev. John C. Chatlos, pastor of St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd., and the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, near Littlestown, officiated. Interment was in St. John's Cemetery. Pallbearers were Harry O. Harner, Paul E. King, Lloyd L. Stavelly, James U. Bowers, Edgar A. Wolfe and Curvin Mummert.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—New York and Harrisburg, Pa., firms have been awarded a $135,000 contract to plan construction of the Delaware River Port Authority's high speed rail line to South Jersey. Awarded the contract Wednesday were Frederic R. Harris, Inc., New York, and Gannett, Fleming, Corrdry and Carpenter, Inc., Harrisburg. Preliminary planning is expected to take eight months with actual construction starting next year. The $55 million rail line will connect Philadelphia, Camden and other South Jersey points.

Tuesday, October 16, when the program leader will be Gilbert Evans.

PRESIDENT TO TALK TONIGHT IN HARRISBURG

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will be hopping into the political arena tonight to open his personal part in the battle for the Democratic campaign cause.

The hop will be by helicopter to Harrisburg, Pa. Kennedy will speak at a rally aimed at raising the financial fortune of the Democratic party and the political fortunes of Democratic candidates.

It will be an outright political speech and people will pay to get in. The White House says it will be political, in contrast with what it termed nonpolitical talks the President made last month in South Dakota, Colorado and California—with Democratic candidates, and a smattering of Republicans, swarming around.

MORE SAFARIS

From here to the state and congressional elections of Nov. 6, there probably will be quite a few more Kennedy political safaris and speeches in key states.

Pennsylvania qualifies as a key state by reason of rousing races for the offices of U.S. senator, governor and 27 U.S. House seats.

Kennedy will be welcomed at Harrisburg by Gov. David L. Lawrence and all the Democratic contenders who can get there. These include Sen. Joseph L. Clark, trying for another term, and his close political ally, Richardson Dilworth, who resigned as mayor of Philadelphia to try for governor.

GOING TO ILLINOIS

A 10-term U.S. representative, James E. Van Zandt, is the Republican challenger against Clark.

A one-term congressman, millionaire William W. Scranton, has taken on Dilworth. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower pitched in for Scranton with a speech in Scranton last Friday.

Pennsylvania has 16 Republicans, 14 Democrats in the House. But reapportionment trimmed the state's 30 House seats to 27.

Illinois is the only state other than Pennsylvania that definitely is staked out for a presidential campaign visit, Democratic Rep. Sidney R. Yates will get a hand from Kennedy in trying to toss Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen out of the Senate.

Eisenhower was out in Illinois, too, last week, getting in some ticks for Dirksen. Kennedy is to appear at Springfield and Chicago Friday, Oct. 19.

U.S. DEMANDS U.N. MEMBERS PAY SHARES

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States demanded today that the General Assembly act immediately to require the Soviet bloc and all other members to pay their share of U.N. costs.

In a major policy speech for the 108-nation assembly, U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson declared "We deem our organization to impotence" unless steps are taken to put it on a sound financial footing.

"We cannot expect the United Nations to survive from day to day by passing a cup like a beggar in the street," he said.

CITES THREATS

The chief U.S. delegate urged that the United Nations give its main attention now to making itself stronger, more efficient and financially sound so it can meet the task of preserving world peace.

There are ominous threats, he said, in Berlin, Cuba, Viet Nam, Red China, Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

AVOIDS ATTACK

"And most ominous of all, the suicidal arms race continues unabated," he said. "These situations raise serious dangers to the peace of the world."

Stevenson avoided direct attacks on the Soviet Union. He appealed to assembly members to "replace strident politics with quiet but determined diplomacy."

Stevenson spoke as some Western diplomats expressed concern over growing indications that the Soviet Union was preparing an all-out attack on the United States on Cuba, U2 flights, Berlin and a number of other issues. There also was evidence that the Russians are going to give Acting Secretary-General U Thant a hard time.

Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will make his policy statement Friday.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The full House Agriculture Committee is expected to consider next week the Kaercher Creek watershed project in Berks County, Pa. The project, which would be eligible for $467,431 in federal funds toward a total cost of $554,897, was approved by the agriculture subcommittee Wednesday. It previously was approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee.

HOUSE VOTES TODAY ON NEW SCHOOL BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $2.35-billion college aid bill authorizing federal grants to both public and private colleges comes up today for a vote in the House.

A close vote is expected on the measure, snarled for months in a church-state controversy. Supporters of the administration-backed bill hoped for enough Republican votes to pass it. It still would need Senate approval.

The bill is a compromise worked out in months of negotiations between members of the House and Senate, which passed different versions in the first months of the session.

5-YEAR PERIOD

The conference bill would authorize $900 million in federal grants over a five-year period to public and private colleges. Use of the funds would be limited to construction of science and engineering buildings and libraries.

The measure also would provide $600 million in long-term, low-interest loans to colleges for construction of other classrooms, but with a restriction against the building of any facilities used for religious purposes.

Other sections of the bill would authorize $600 million for loans to students, some of which actually would be grants, and $250 million for public junior colleges.

The authors hope that by limiting federal grants to the specific categories of science, engineering and library facilities, they can submerge the religious issue raised by grants to private colleges.

HOLD CAMPOREE OVER WEEKEND

The annual fall camporee and field meet of Coneago Boy Scout District will be held over the weekend at the York and Adams County Game and Fish Association Farm, near Abbottstown.

Registration will open Saturday at 1 p.m. and camp will close with retreat ceremonies Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The theme will be "Scout Skills."

The field day program Saturday starting at 2 p.m. will include the following events: Tent peg making, signaling, first aid relay, height judging, knot tying, blanket rolling, blindfolded compass course, fire by flint and steel, fire building and water boiling, flapjack contest and bugling contests.

A tour of the host game and fish association facilities will be held Sunday at 9:45 a.m. following church call. Protestant services will be held at camp while Catholic Scouts will attend mass at nearby churches.

Conservation movies will be shown by the game and fish association Saturday evening. Arrangements are in charge of Robert C. Sadler, district camping and activities chairman.

Young Descendant Of Jenny Wade Here

A recent visitor to the Jenny Wade Museum was one of her youngest descendants, Mrs. Reginald C. Basken, of Estevan, Saskatchewan, Canada, who drove to Gettysburg with her husband. Mrs. Basken's great-great-grandmother was a sister of Jenny Wade.

The Baskens came here armed with several Jenny Wade histories and hand-written notebook containing the names of Jenny Wade's relatives, beginning before the year 1863. Mrs. Basken displayed a picture of Georgia Wade McClellan, Jenny's sister who died in Carroll, Iowa, September 5, 1927, at the age of 87. Mrs. Basken's mother was Mrs. Nellie Wade Paton and Mary Margaret Stewart was her grandmother.

Another Jenny Wade memento Mrs. Basken possesses is a paper-bound book entitled "The True Story of Jenny Wade" by J. W. Johnston.

special gifts: $784.50 from independent businesses; $299.70 from memorials; $224 from clubs and organizations; and $20 from the Roosevelt Foundation.

CLINIC MOVED

It was announced that the Warner Hospital has changed the location of the tumor clinic.

The clinic now has three examining rooms. It had only one before and the former tumor clinic examining room has been turned into an office for the clinic. The Littlestown State Bank has donated metal cabinets for the equipment, films, materials, etc., of the tumor clinic.

A new film entitled "Is Smoking Worth While" was shown, and the directors voted to purchase a copy of the film and make it available to schools, clubs, etc. While depicting the development of lung cancer from smoking, the film is especially aimed at preventing younger people from becoming addicted to the habit, while encouraging older people who have smoked for some time to cease the practice.

OFFER NEW FILM

Mr. and Mrs. William Shoemaker were named as delegates to the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Division of the American Cancer Society.

Purchase of a new "Breast Self-examination" film, succeeding the film made in 1950, was reported. The film which runs approximately 15 minutes will be available to all women's group, who may obtain it by phoning the executive director of the Adams County unit, Mrs. Henrietta Blocher at 334-5352. While the new film and the old film have certain basic similarities, a somewhat different approach is used in the 1962 film. Mrs. Blocher said the film will provide an opportunity to remind those who have seen the prior film of the technique of examination and at the same time will instruct persons who have not seen the prior film.

The initial meeting of the Adams County Manpower Development and Training Advisory Council was held Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the office of the Bureau of Employment Security here.

Representatives present included: Richard Hartley, Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce; George Inskip, assistant county superintendent of schools; Cletus Hess, business agent for the local Boot and Shoe Workers Union; Jack Hershey and Clair Dittler, York Springs Industrial committee; James D. Dillies, field representative, bureau of apprenticeship, and Ronald Baltzley, local office manager of Bureau of Employment Security. Lawrence Cummins and Eric Ruckelhaus of the Bureau of Employment Security were also present.

The primary purpose of the local advisory council will be to advise and determine the needs for trained workers in Adams County and to recommend training proposals that would assist in filling these needs. Such training would be administered under the Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962.

The Manpower Development and Training Act, the group was told, provides a job training program that would enable many unemployed or underemployed workers to learn new or better skills which are in demand in an area. In many instances those selected for training would be eligible for financial assistance while in training.

PACTS AVERT TWO STRIKES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two major missile-space producers have bowed to President Kennedy's request and accepted compulsory union membership proposed by a special presidential board for settlement of their contract disputes with two unions.

The agreements ended the threat of a strike Saturday against North American Aviation and General Dynamics Convair Division.

Kennedy announced the North American agreement with the United Auto Workers, AFL-CIO, Wednesday night. The Convair agreement with the AFL-CIO Machinists Union had been announced earlier at San Diego, Calif.

Boeing Aircraft, another large missile-space producer, has a similar dispute with the machinists. The union has pledged it won't strike Boeing for a 60-day period while a new White House board frames settlement recommendations. But a strike at Lockheed is possible this weekend if there is no agreement before then.

At his news conference last week Kennedy called on the four firms to accept the union shop or bear responsibility for strikes.

AAUW AGREES

of the matter, where one ends and the other begins. And the problem will continue to grow as the cities grow together.

UP TO LOCAL GROUP

Adams County, the AAUW members were told, has an opportunity to study the growing problem while still an agricultural area and thus, by finding out the problems in the more congested areas, plan in advance to meet many of the problems before they reach this area.

The activities of the local AAUW in connection with the study are "entirely up to you," the local members were told. The group voted to study the problem, then seek to divide it into various sections and see "what solutions can be considered." If the pilot project here "works out," then the study will be recommended to the other 1,500 chapters of the AAUW throughout the nation starting next year. If the local group "can't come up with anything," the project will probably be abandoned.

Mrs. Alice Fulmer Dunham, staff assistant of the national AAUW, greeted the group Wednesday night. Mrs. A. W. Butterfield introduced Dr. Gutheim. Mrs. Harold Dunkelberger gave the invocation. The hostess committee cochairmen were Mrs. James B. Myers and Mrs. J. Van Cleave Lott.

NAB SUSPECTS

$4.29 was taken.

Alderman Thomas said Wednesday night that Barber had waived hearings on these two charges.

Howard and Wynegar were charged also with these thefts: New Oxford Baby Shoe Company, Wellsville, on September 1, and 5, in which $15 and $10.30, respectively, were taken.

Speck's Service Center, Dillsburg R. 1, on September 14, in which merchandise valued at $1,233 was taken.

Gettysburg Shoe Company, Dillsburg, on September 2, in which $37 was taken.

Howard and Wynegar also were charged before Justice of the Peace Ronald Desenberg, West York, with the burglary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, West York, on September 16 in which between $35 and $50 was taken in dues money and from various coin devices.

All three were charged before Justice of the Peace Charles A. Kline, Hellam Twp., with these burglaries:

Long Brothers General Store, Wellsville, on September 7 in which merchandise valued at $138 was taken.

Barry's Sportswear, Dover R. 1, on both August 19 and September 1 in which $36 and $178, respectively, were taken along with a stopwatch valued at $3.50 and a .25 caliber automatic pistol valued at $35.

Howard had waived a hearing before York Alderman H. Gellard Fickes Tuesday on a burglary charge on entering the Warren R. Edris service station, York, at 12:04 a.m. Tuesday and taking $4.80 from a cigaret machine.

Wynegar was also charged with the same burglary Wednesday before Alderman Fickes.

Howard was arrested in the burglary by West Manchester Patrolman Charles E. Geiselman.

SEEK SOLUTION OF MINE WASTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Officials of Glen Allen Coal Co. and the State Sanitary Water Board sought a solution today to the problem of mine waste pollution of the Susquehanna River.

Glen Allen representatives agreed to attend a meeting to discuss a proposal that the Wilkes-Barre firm treat its mine wastes before discharging them into the river's north branch.

The session was set up by telephone Wednesday after the board took under a study to require treatment of wastes by the firm.

Walter Lyon, chief sanitary engineer in the Health Department, told the board the river is being polluted from Wilkes-Barre to Sunbury by a gravity outfall at Duryea and pumping operations by Glen Alden.

Lyon said he felt that Glen Alden's pumping already is at a minimum and further reduction He added that he believed the only practical solution was to treat wastes prior to discharge into the river.

The firm was ordered to restrict pumping to periods of high river flow after acid from company mines killed thousands of fish last October.

Lyon said the Duryea outfall is not considered serious since it likely will abate within the next year.

HOUSE VOTES TODAY ON NEW SCHOOL BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $2.35-billion college aid bill authorizing federal grants to both public and private colleges comes up today for a vote in the House.

A close vote is expected on the measure, snarled for months in a church-state controversy. Supporters of the administration-backed bill hoped for enough Republican votes to pass it. It still would need Senate approval.

The bill is a compromise worked out in months of negotiations between members of the House and Senate, which passed different versions in the first months of the session.

5-YEAR PERIOD

The conference bill would authorize $900 million in federal grants over a five-year period to public and private colleges. Use of the funds would be limited to construction of science and engineering buildings and libraries.

The measure also would provide $600 million in long-term, low-interest loans to colleges for construction of other classrooms, but with a restriction against the building or any facilities used for religious purposes.

Other sections of the bill would authorize $800 million for loans to students, some of which actually would be grants, and $250 million for public junior colleges.

The authors hope that by limiting federal grants to the specific categories of science, engineering and library facilities, they can submerge the religious issue raised by grants to private colleges.

HOLD CAMPOREE OVER WEEKEND

The annual fall camporee and field meet of Conecawag Boy Scout District will be held over the weekend at the York and Adams County Game and Fish Association Farm, near Abbottstown.

Registration will open Saturday at 1 p.m. and camp will close with retreat ceremonies Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The theme will be "Scout Skills."

The field day program Saturday starting at 2 p.m. will include the following events: Tent peg making, signaling, first aid relay, height judging, knot tying, blanket rolling, blindfolded compass course, fire by flint and steel, fire building and water boiling, flag-jack contest and bugling contests.

A tour of the host game and fish association facilities will be held Sunday at 9:45 a.m., following church call. Protestant services will be held at camp while Catholic Scouts will attend mass at nearby churches.

Conservation movies will be shown by the game and fish association Saturday evening. Arrangements are in charge of Robert C. Sadler, district camping and activities chairman.

Young Descendant Of Jenny Wade Here

A recent visitor to the Jenny Wade Museum was one of her youngest descendants, Mrs. Reginald C. Basken, of Estevan, Saskatchewan, Canada, who drove to Gettysburg with her husband.

Mrs. Basken's great-grandmother was a sister of Jenny Wade.

The Baskens came here armed with several Jenny Wade histories and hand-written notebooks containing the names of Jenny Wade's relatives, beginning before the year 1853. Mrs. Basken displayed a picture of George Wade McClellan, Jenny's sister who died in Carroll, Iowa, September 5, 1927, at the age of 87.

Mrs. Basken's mother was Mrs. Nellie Wade Paton and Mary Margaret Stewart was her grandmother.

Another Jenny Wade memento Mrs. Basken possesses is a parchment-bound book entitled "The True Story of Jenny Wade" by J. W. Johnston.

Manpower Training Group Meets Here

The initial meeting of the Adams County Manpower Development and Training Advisory Council was held Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the office of the Bureau of Employment Security here.

Representatives present included: Richard Hartley, Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce; George Inskip, assistant county superintendent of schools; Cleus Hess, business agent for the local Boot and Shoe Workers Union; Jack Hershey and Clair Dittler, York-Spring industrial committee; James D. Divelbiss, field representative, bureau of apprenticeship, and Ronald Batzley, local office manager of Bureau of Employment Security. Lawrence Cummins and Eric Ruckelhaus of the Bureau of Employment Security were also present.

The primary purpose of the local advisory council will be to advise and determine the needs for trained workers in Adams County and to recommend training proposals that would assist in filling these needs. Such training would be administered under the Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962.

The Manpower Development and Training Act, the group was told, provides a job training program that would enable many unemployed or underemployed workers to learn new or better skills which are in demand in an area. In many instances those selected for training would be eligible for financial assistance while in training.

Orttanna

ORRTANNA — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lochbaum and family and J. C. Lochbaum spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brubaker, Chambersburg R. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keller and children, Max, Carmen, Arlin and Kacintha, York, visited Sunday with Mrs. Keller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fissel.

Luther Wetzel and H. B. Saum, Orttanna R. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Wetzel, Gettysburg, spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Wetzel, Solly, Md., at their deer lodge near Wellsboro in Tioga County.

Kennedy announced the North American agreement with the United Auto Workers, AFL-CIO, Wednesday night. The CIO agreement with the AFL-CIO Machine Union had been announced earlier at San Diego, Calif.

Boeing Aircraft, another large missile-space producer, has a similar dispute with the machinists. The union has pledged it won't strike Boeing for a 60-day period while a new White House board frames settlement recommendations. But a strike at Lockheed is possible this weekend if there is no agreement before then.

At his news conference last week Kennedy called on the four firms to accept the union shop or bear responsibility for strikes.

The Arendtsville Fire Company will resume its winter public card parties October 5 at 8 p.m. at the engine house, the members decided at their meeting Tuesday. As in the past the parties will be held every other week during the winter months.

Clyde Sell was named chairman for the October parties; Wayne Criswell for November parties and Harry McDannell for the December parties. Each chairman will in turn name his own committees for the events. Glenn Bream was made advertising chairman for all three months.

The firemen voted to purchase a number of articles of kitchen equipment including a refrigerator, coffee urn and utensils.

Larry Kennedy has resumed his studies as a member of the Senior Class at Shippensburg State College after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyson Kennedy, Bendersville.

Lynn Lerew returned recently to his studies at Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lerew, Bendersville. He is a member of the Senior Class.

Mrs. Maybelle Davis, Bendersville, visited over the weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Raab, Selingsgrove, and another daughter, Sue Carol, who has entered her Freshman year at Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quigle, Bendersville, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burtner, Hershey, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Burtner's son, Roger, who is studying for his doctor's degree in geology at Harvard University.

The Biglerville Garden Club will hold its first fall meeting Monday evening, October 1, at 8 o'clock in the social room of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Biglerville. Guests are invited.

Arendtsville Boy Scout Troop 70 will hold its first meeting of the fall season Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the Scout hut.

Second Lieut. Donald Hawbeck returned this week to Massanutten Military Academy, Woodstock, Va., after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vincent Hawbeck, Biglerville R. 1.

The Fidelis Sunday School Class of Bender's Lutheran Church, Butler Township, will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in fellowship rooms of the church.

The Ambassador Sunday School Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Biglerville, will contribute eggs to the guests at the National Lutheran Home in Washington, D. C., for the Harvest Home service at the church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Any one desiring to contribute is asked to contact Mrs. Jane Wilson, telephone 677-7217, or Mrs. Robert E. Baker, telephone 677-7614.

Junior Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hershey Bowers, near Heidlersburg, has enrolled at Elizabethtown College.

James Henkle, who spent the summer in Biglerville, has returned to Penn State University. He was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Henkle Sr., Monroeville.

David Dull returned Tuesday to resume his studies as a member of the senior class at Penn State University after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Dull, Aspers.

PACTS AVERT TWO STRIKES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two major missile-space producers have bowed to President Kennedy's request and accepted compulsory union membership proposed by a special presidential board for settlement of their contract disputes with two unions.

The agreements ended the threat of a strike Saturday against North American Aviation and General Dynamics Convair Division.

Kennedy announced the North American agreement with the United Auto Workers, AFL-CIO, Wednesday night. The CIO agreement with the AFL-CIO Machine Union had been announced earlier at San Diego, Calif.

Boeing Aircraft, another large missile-space producer, has a similar dispute with the machinists. The union has pledged it won't strike Boeing for a 60-day period while a new White House board frames settlement recommendations. SPORTS NIGHT
OBSERVED BY ROTARY CLUB

The Littlestown rotarians observed high school sports night at their meeting on Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. Jack Bream, athletic director at the local high school, presented a talk about the physical education program in the public school system. He noted that an obstacle course is nearing completion on the school grounds and it will be the first such course to be used in the state of Pennsylvania. Other guests were William Heyser, head football coach at the school; Dale Hamm, backfield coach; Clifford Ruland, javyee basketball coach; Lloyd L. Stavelly, administrative assistant to the high school and a member of the community service committee, which was in charge for the evening, introduced the coaching staff. Paul Herring, Westminster, and the Rev. William Hendrix, formerly of Pottersville, were visiting Rotarians.

President Howard A. Daum and several other members will attend the Rotary District Institute on Monday at the Holiday Motel.

The club will meet again next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's. The program will be arranged by the international service committee, composed of Fred W. King, chairman; Arthur E. Bair Sr., George P. Smith, Thomas C. McSherry, John D. Thrush and P. Emory Weaver.

SUEST SPEAKER

The Rev. Louis J. Hammann, Orrtanna R. D., professor of religion at Gettysburg College, will be the guest speaker in the Adult Department of the Sunday School of Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Sunday at 9:15 a.m. Rally Day will be observed.

Christ Ambassadors Youth Service of Bethel Assembly of God Church, along the Littlestown Fish and Game Rd., will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Friday at the church. A public card party will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 at 8 p.m. Friday in the social room of the FOE home.

The first fall meeting of Cub Scout Den No. 5 of Pack 84 will be held next Wednesday from 6 to 7 p.m. at the home of the den mother, Mrs. Robert R. Reinaman, E. King St.

TO TURN WATER OFF

George Koons, son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Howard Koons, E. King St., and Miss Patricia Yingling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yingling, E. Myrtle St., both students at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, have resumed their studies there following the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Warner, Astoria, N.Y., recently left from Idlewild International Airport for a vacation in California and Honolulu. He is the son of Mrs. Helen E. Warner, E. King St., and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowers, Littlestown R. 2.

Littlestown borough officials have announced that the water will be turned off on E. King St., from Park Ave. to the square, on Friday from 10 to 11 a.m. Workmen will repair a hydrant. In case of rain Friday, the work will be done on the first nice evening thereafter, excluding Saturday and Sunday.

Miss M. Adelaide Hawk, Philadelphia, formerly of Littlestown, underwent surgery on Wednesday in Hahnemann Hospital, that city. Karl Bankert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, N. Queen St., and Michael Collins, son of Mrs. George G. Collins, Prince St., both students at Dickinson College, Carlisle, have returned there for the fall semester of studies.

PTA MEETING HELD TUESDAY

"Who Can Help?" will be the program theme for the 1962-1963 meeting year of the Littlestown Jointure Parent-Teacher Association, as announced at the first fall session of the PTA held Tuesday evening in the new high school auditorium.

The meeting opened with the group singing "America," accompanied by Mrs. Eshbach, of the faculty, and continued as follows: Pledge to the flag; prayer by the Rev. Lawrence H. Roller, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church; group singing led by Mrs. Eshbach who also entertained with an organ solo.

President Sterling J. Wisotzky presided for the business and announced that the unit membership goal for the year is 300. Mrs. Fred W. Hartlaub, secretary, and Mrs. Robert R. Reinaman, treasurer, gave their reports. The county council will meet Wednesday, September 26, at 8 p.m. in Biglerville. The unit will have a question box again this year.

John H. Riley, Rolling Acres Elementary School principal, and chairman of the standing program committee, presided for the evening's program for which the theme was "Extra Curricular in Your School." Five minute talks were given by the following faculty members: Miss Bosserman, new French teacher in the jointure, who told how teaching a foreign language in the elementary grades is beneficial; Miss Charlotte Rodgers spoke concerning the helpfulness of stressing developmental reading; John Bream talked about the physical fitness program in the schools; Paul A. Harner spoke on the music curriculum in the jointure.

Frank E. Basehoar, high school principal, summarized the information imparted by the preceding teachers. Paul E. King, supervising principal of the jointure, also spoke briefly. A social hour followed the business period and refreshments were served. The PTA will meet again on

Governor Lauds
New Castle Folk

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—The City of New Castle and the Lawrence County Society for Crippled Children and Adults drew praise Wednesday from Gov. Lawrence.

Lawrence noted that the society is "a voluntary, non-profit organization whose sole purpose is to aid the physically handicapped... it takes the humanitarian approach to the problem of crippled human beings."

He cited New Castle for its record of 26 consecutive months without a traffic fatality, and presented the city with the state's 1961 traffic safety award.

"Few other communities this size, anywhere in the nation, can boast a better, more effective program than this," he said.

SPANGLER RITES TODAY

Funeral services for John M. Spangler, 84, 550 Baltimore St., Hanover, formerly of Littlestown, and a retired farmer, who died Tuesday in the Hanover Hospital, were conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. Rev. John C. Ciatos, pastor of St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd., and the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, near Littlestown, officiated. Interment was in St. John's Cemetery. Pallbearers were Harry O. Harner, Paul E. King, Lloyd L. Stavelly, James U. Bowers, Edgar A. Wolfe and Curvin Mummert.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—New York and Harrisburg, Pa., firms have been awarded a $135,000 contract to plan construction of the Delaware River Port Authority's high speed rail line to South Jersey. Awarded the contract Wednesday were Frederic R. Harris, Inc., New York, and Gannett, Fleming, Corddry and Carpenter, Inc., Harrisburg. Preliminary planning is expected to take eight months with actual construction starting next year. The $55 million rail line will connect Philadelphia, Camden and other South Jersey points.

Tuesday, October 16, when the program leader will be Gilbert Evans.

PRESIDENT TO TALK TONIGHT IN HARRISBURG

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will be hopping into the political arena tonight to open his personal part in the battle for the Democratic campaign cause.

The hop will be by helicopter to Harrisburg, Pa. Kennedy will speak at a rally aimed at raising the financial fortune of the Democratic party and the political fortunes of Democratic candidates.

It will be an outright political speech and people will pay to get in. The White House says it will be political, in contrast with what it termed nonpolitical talks the President made last month in South Dakota, Colorado and California—with Democratic candidates, and a smattering of Republicans, swarming around.

MORE SAFARIS

From here to the state and congressional elections of Nov. 6, there probably will be quite a few more Kennedy political safaris and speeches in key states.

Pennsylvania qualifies as a key state by reason of rousing races for the offices of U.S. senator, governor and 27 U.S. House seats. Kennedy will be welcomed at Harrisburg by Gov. David L. Lawrence and all the Democratic contenders who can get there. These include Sen. Joseph L. Clark, trying for another term, and his close political ally, Richardson Dilworth, who resigned as mayor of Philadelphia to try for governor.

GOING TO ILLINOIS

A 10-term U.S. representative, James E. Van Zandt, is the Republican challenger against Clark. A one-term congressman, millionaire William W. Scranton, has taken on Dilworth. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower pitched in for Scranton with a speech in Scranton last Friday.

Pennsylvania has 16 Republicans, 14 Democrats in the House. But reapportionment trimmed the state's 30 House seats to 27.

Illinois is the only state other than Pennsylvania that definitely is staked out for a presidential campaign visit. Democratic Rep. Sidney R. Yates will get a hand from Kennedy in trying to toss Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen out of the Senate. Eisenhower was out in Illinois, too, last week, getting in some jabs for Dirksen. Kennedy is to appear at Springfield and Chicago Friday, Oct. 19.

U.S. DEMANDS
U.N. MEMBERS
PAY SHARES

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States demanded today that the General Assembly act immediately to require the Soviet bloc and all other members to pay their share of U.N. costs.

In a major policy speech for the 108-nation assembly, U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson declared "We doom our organization to impotence" unless steps are taken to put it on a sound financial footing.

"We cannot expect the United Nations to survive from day to day by passing a cup like a beggar in the street," he said.

CITES THREATS

The chief U.S. delegate urged that the United Nations give its main attention now to making itself stronger, more efficient and financially sound so it can meet the task of preserving world peace.

There are ominous threats, he said, in Berlin, Cuba, Viet Nam, Red China, Eastern Europe and the Middle East.

AVOIDS ATTACK

"And most ominous of all, the suicidal arms race continues unabated," he said. "These situations raise serious dangers to the peace of the world."

Stevenson avoided direct attacks on the Soviet Union. He appealed to assembly members to "replace strident politics with quiet but determined diplomacy."

Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will make his policy statement Friday.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The full House Agriculture Committee is expected to consider next week the Kaerckner Creek watershed project in Berks County, Pa. The project, which would be eligible for $467,464 in federal funds toward a total cost of $534,897, was approved by the agriculture subcommittee Wednesday. It previously was approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Drysdale, Wills Star As Leaders Blank Braves; Giants Conquer St. Louis

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
With Don Drysdale applying the stop and Maury Wills the go, the Los Angeles Dodgers are back on the track in their stretch drive for the National League's winner circle.

Drysdale put the stopper on the Dodgers' three-game losing string Wednesday with a five-hit pitching gem as the front-runners knocked off Milwaukee's streaking Braves 4-0.

Wills triggered the attack by opening the game with a single, stealing second, moving to third on a bunt hit and scoring the only run Drysdale needed on a double play grounder.

MAYS HAS HOMER
The Dodger whippet has 94 steals, with one game left to match or better Ty Cobb's 154-game record of 96. His chance to better the 47-year-old mark will come Friday night at St. Louis against the Cardinals.

The Dodgers maintained their 3 1/2 game lead over the San Francisco Giants, who powered their way out a six-game losing slump on homers by Willie Mays and Tom Haller and beat the Cards, 7-4. The loss was the eighth in a row for St. Louis.

Bob Friend pitched a six-hitter and Donn Clendenon homered as Pittsburgh trimmed Cincinnati 1-0, dropping the third-place Reds 5 1/2 games off the pace. Philadelphia downed Chicago 4-3 in a doubleheader opener shortened to six innings by rain. The second Phillies-Cub game was postponed, as was the two-night doubleheader scheduled at New York between the Mets and Houston.

5 IN ROW
Mays whacked his 45th homer, high in the majors, and Haller connected for two as the Giants hopped on Larry Jackson and the tailspinning Cards for all seven of their runs in the first three innings.

Haller homered in the second, making it 4-2. Then the Giants routed Jackson with a five-run explosion in the third, when Mays homered with two on and Haller with one aboard.

Bob Friend of the Pirates became an 18-game winner with his six-hit shutout of Cincinnati. Clendenon settled matters in the seventh with his homer.

By winning their abbreviated match with the Cubs, the Phillies made it five straight victories, 1-5, in their last 17 games and moved up to the 500 mark for the first time since May.

13 ENTRIES IN $75,038 RACE TODAY

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Thirteen 3-year-old packers, making up the Little Brown Jug's fast field ever, were poised for today's 17th running of the colorful harness horse race with a $75,038 purse.

Dry, crisp weather with temperatures in the 60s was forecast as the vanguard of an expected crowd of 35,000 arrived to watch the speedy sidewheelers go after the third jewel in racing's triple crown.

Post time for the first mile heat of the three or four that determine the outcome at the Delaware County Fairgrounds track was 1 p.m. (EST).

Although the field included Ranger Knight, winner of one leg of the triple crown by taking the Cane Futurity, and Thor Hanover, who got the other in the Messenger Stakes, Coffee Break held on as at least co-favorite. Although bothered by bowed tendons, he has paced the fastest mile of any harness horse this year, a 1:57 at Springfield, Ill.

But Thor Hanover (best clocking 1:58) Meadow Battles (1:58 1-5), Leigh Hanover (2:00 4-5), Haughton Hanover (2:00 4-5) and Play Bill (2:03 2-5) figured to make the first heat, which included Coffee Break, a torrid race.

Ranger Knight (1:59 1-5 in the Cane) ruled as choice in the second heat. But there was strong support for Mighty Tar Heel (1:57 4-5), Meadow Newport (1:59 1-5), Gamecock (1:59 3-5), Quick Pick (1:59 4-5), Buxton Hanover (2:00) and Smart Money (2:00 3-5).

The Jug record is a 1:58 3-5 heat by Muncy Hanover in 1960.

Rigney Is Given 2-Year Contract

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bill Rigney, who has a good chance of being named American League manager of 1962, has just been named manager for 1963 and 1964 by the Los Angeles Angels.

Rigney, who will probably finish third with a team that was supposedly destined for oblivion, said his new 2-year contract "is the fastest I've ever had."

Rigney was believed to be making about $33,000 under his original contract. The new one may put him in the $40,000 bracket, or even higher.

The Angels magnified his delight Wednesday night by pulling out of a six-game losing streak—their longest this season—with a 9-4 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

BIG GAMES FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

By DAVE LEHERR
HARRISBURG (AP)—Key conference battles highlight this weekend's schedule of schoolboy football activity in Pennsylvania.

Scores of make-or-break games are scheduled in virtually all of the state's top leagues.

In Western Pennsylvania, the Beaver Falls-New Castle contest Friday night shapes up as the top drawing card, featuring two of the best unbeaten elevens in WPIAL Class AA competition.

Other key WPIAL matches find Butler taking on Farrell in an other battle of the unbeaten, Uniontown meeting Redstone and Washington clashing with arch-rival Chartiers Valley.

The sprawling East Penn Conference offers a similar program of interesting games, pitting Tamaqua against Pottsville, Mahanoy Area against Mount Carmel, Old Forge at Blakely and Coal Township against Blue Mountain.

The Steel-High-Reading game and the John Harris-Lebanon contest will feature the action in the Central Penn League.

Seeks Fourth Golf Title In Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Billy Casper Jr., professional golfer's fourth-ranking money winner this year, is from California. But he considers Portland his town.

He has won the Portland Open the last three years. He went out eagerly today to try to make it four in a row.

Warning up for the $25,000 tournament, Casper shot a 31-35—66 on the par 36-36—72 Columbia-Edgewater Country Club course Wednesday. That was the second-best round in the pro-amateur meet which preceded the Open. Julius Boros tied him with 32-34—66.

Bob Harrison, 23, who is in his sophomore year among the professionals had the best round, a 32-33—65 that won him $300. Harrison had three bogeys, but he also turned in eight birdies and an eagle.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Board Names New Treasurer:

The Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, rector of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church and for many years a member of the board of directors of the Warner hospital, was elected treasurer of the board at the September meeting. He succeeds

Miss Sarah J. Clark who recently resigned as superintendent and treasurer. The board took special notice on the hospital's report for the month of August which in a number of respects set a record over any month since the hospital was established. With a total of 192 admissions — an average of more than six each day last month — the hospital cared for an average of 43 patients daily.

The July average was 40 and that for June was 35. Both of these months were above average. The record of 30 births also was exceptionally high, while the 163 operations and 799 laboratory examinations also topped previous

Married On Friday: Lt. Henry

M. Hartman Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hartman, Springs

avenue, and Miss Audrey L. Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

were united in marriage Friday evening in Baltimore. Lt. Harman expects to return to duty in the near future to a post in southern waters.

Mount Appoints Dean Of Freshmen: Mount St. Mary's College

President Msgr. John L. Sheridan announced today that the Rev.

T. J. Kilcullen of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., has been appointed

Dean of Freshmen. The Rev. John

C. Cogan, dean of studies, said there are 66 freshmen enrolled for the current semester. This is the largest freshman class to enroll at the Mount in recent years.

Mrs. Frank Clutz, West Broadway, has returned home from Pittsburgh where she spent a month with her husband, Doctor

Clutz, who is employed on an engineering project for the Navy.

Lions Not To Use Gas: Faced with an order from Tail Twister

D. E. Hess that they dare not use any gasoline in reaching the club's meeting place this evening, members of the Gettysburg Lions Club are devising gas-less means of transportation to take them to the West Gettysburg Inn for the weekly dinner session at 6 o'clock.

The penalty for mo'oring to the meeting will be a fine to be imposed and collected by the tailtwister.

Temple Leases Lee-Meade Inn:

Temple University, Philadelphia, has leased the Lee-Meade Inn,

two miles south of Gettysburg on the Emmitsburg road, for the duration of the war. Joseph H.

Chamberlain, proprietor, has an-

where he will spend the winter.

Mr. Chamberlain said that Temple university took over the inn for the purpose of housing 30 to 40 students who are enrolled in the Civilian Pilot Training course and who are denied flying instructions in Philadelphia because that area is within the restricted zone for flying. The students will receive their flight training at the Boulevard airport, two miles from Gettysburg on the Mummasburg road. The school has retained Mrs. Grace Mort as cook and another local couple will be engaged to assist in operating the inn for sleeping quarters for the

and Mrs. Chamberlain will go to Lake Alfred where they will open their hotel, Lake Alfred, on November 1. Clarence Fritz will continue to operate the Lee-Meade

Service station. The station was

Temple.

Speaks At Sharpsburg: Dr. J.

Walter Coleman, superintendent of Gettysburg National Military

Park, was the principal speaker at a program conducted in Antitam National cemetery, Sharps-burg, Md., on Sunday, in observance of the 80th anniversary of

Today's Talk

YESTERDAY

Somehow one of the most difficult of tasks is to forget yesterday! If we could only think of our days as steps in a great flight of stairs — each higher one lifting us nearer to our goal. Then, if we stumbled, we would just be more careful the next time and seek a higher step.

But the fact is, all of us carry our yesterday too much with us. We worry about what we failed to do, and what we did wrongly. If we could but gather up the memories of all the gain and all the good which we achieved, and add these to the new day at hand, then what progress we would make!

Only today really counts — today!

Today we may correct much that was fumbled yesterday, and today we may do much that we failed in yesterday. The musician, fingering over and over his beloved keys, keeps correcting and smoothing out his technique. His yesterdays of toil and errors fade away.

Only the sweet memories of yesterday should follow us along, and be as mellow music as we work and play. Yesterday was youth to many of us, but today that youth has accumulated many of the loves and beauties of the years and added to experience many of its richest gifts.

As we go along we keep picking up, here and there. And we keep dropping things away, as well. Yesterday may have been filled with strife and sorrow, but today only the lesson remains.

One summer I visited one of the little towns in which I lived as a boy. I loved it then. It was a world to me. But that was of the past. My viewpoint had changed when I made that summer visit and my dreams were elsewhere.

Sprinkle your yesterdays, like seeds, as you go. Let them hear what they may. But grasp today and work it through. Ride it till its back is sore!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject, "Luggage." Protected, 1962, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

THE OTHER "ME"
Within the mirror's shine I see
The outward surfaces of me;
The mouth, the brow, the chin
and eyes

Which other people recognize;
But there is more of me to know
Which in the mirror doesn't show.

For I keep hidden much of me
Which other people cannot see;
And there's an "I" whom no one knows

And in the mirror never shows.
But, oh, so different is he
From him that others think they see.

I know not whether worse he be
Or better than the outer me.
He hopes for goals he'll never gain

And clings to dreams he knows
are vain,
He knows my every fault and shame

And just how frail a thing I am.
Sometimes I think him strong and clean;
Sometimes I'm glad he can't be seen.

He seems to be a curious mix
Of lofty thoughts and petty tricks
And traits which others never see
This man I know myself to be.

Blaze Damages Wentz Building: Twelve occupants of five apartments in the R. W. Wentz building in the second block of Baltimore street were driven out of their living quarters by fire early this morning, which threatened the entire structure but was confined by Gettysburg firemen to the third floor. The blaze, discovered about 1:25 a.m., may have been caused by defective wiring and apparently started in an enclosed porch, a part of the third-floor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wentz at the front of the north side of the building. Fire Chief James A. Aumen estimated the damage to the building at about $3,000 but could not estimate the extent of the damage to furnishings in the water-soaked second floor apartment of Miss Mary Ramer and the stock of ladies' wear in Miss Virginia M. Myers shop on the first floor. Most of the occupants of the five apartments were awakened by the crackling and roar of the flames, by the odor of smoke and by the barking of "Skip," pet dog of Borough Officer and Mrs. Horace L. Bender who occupy the third floor apartment on the south side of the building. All of the occupants of the apartments reached safety without mishap although Harold Wentz had difficulty in reaching the bed of his four-year-old son, Gary, located in the broke out. The father was met by a blast of heat and dense smoke when he attempted to enter the room. The elderly mother of Miss Ramer, Mrs. Emily Ramer, 81, and her sister, Mrs. Laura Roddey, 89, were helped from their second-floor apt. and stayed with neighbors until later in the morning when they moved to the home of relatives here.

AUTHORIZE MERGER OF 2 EUB GROUPS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Merger of the Eastern and Northeastern Pennsylvania Conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, perhaps next spring, has been authorized by the Eastern group.

Delegates attending a three-day meeting of the Eastern Conference in nearby Colonial Park adopted Wednesday a resolution approving the consolidation.

The Northeastern Conference previously indicated its willingness to join with the Eastern group to form a new conference representing some 300 congregations with a combined membership of 75,000.

A special conference to effect the consolidation is expected to be held next April.

OTHER ACTION

The Rev. Artz S. Lick, Allentown, member of the Judicial Committee, the Rev. Alden G. Biely, Lebanon, conference trustee; the Rev. Daniel L. Shearer, Ephrata, and Dr. Ezra H. Rank, Harrisburg, ministerial trustees of Lebanon Valley College; and Carl S. Brandt, Harrisburg, and Dr. D. E. Grove, lay trustees of the college.

Bishop Hermann W. Kaebnick of Harrisburg presiding over the meeting, ordained the following new ministers Wednesday night:

Richard G. Black, Neffsville; Hervey W. Ebright, Lebanon; Ira C. Fortna, Sunbury; James K. Grady, Fontana; Eugene R. Hostetter, Lebanon; Donald R. Morgan, Valley View; Paul F. Rock II, Harrisburg; Frederick C. Seyler, Bath; John H. Shenk, Lancaster, and Sandy R. Stover, Hershey.

Lit+lestown MERIT TESTS ARE PLANNED

All 1964 graduates of Littlestown Junior-Senior High School who wish to enter the 1963-64 National Merit Scholarship competition should register now at the Guidance office, Elmer Gall, guidance counselor announced today.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given in the school at 9 a.m. Tuesday, March 5, 1963, or Saturday, March 9, 1963. Students who will graduate from high school in 1964 and enter college the same calendar year are eligible for scholarship consideration in the 1963-64 merit program.

To receive consideration, the student must take the test when it is offered in his school. Participating students pay a fee on the day of the test.

Awards in the merit program are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the amount of individual stipends. The stipends are renewable each year without further testing. A student's performance on the qualifying test also provides him with information that is useful in career planning or in selecting courses in high school and college, Mr. Gall said.

After the test, each student receives an interpretive folder prepared by Science Research Associates, the testing agency, that reports individual test results for comparison of high school students across the country. Thus students can learn about their educational strengths and weaknesses—whether or not they plan to attend college.

In addition to the awards made by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, about 150 business corporations, foundations and individuals give scholarships through the merit program. A considerable number of other scholarship agencies utilize the services of NMSC in awarding their scholarships.

Girl Scout News

Twenty-eight members attended the first meeting of Intermediate Troop 757 Girls Scouts of Fairfield held Tuesday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Charles Taylor. Carol McGlaughlin was color sergeant for the flag ceremony with Betsy Neely as flag bearer and Sandra Sites and Susan Sanders, color guards.

Mrs. Taylor informed the girls of the troop changes in division and uniforms. Each girl is asked to bring a No. 10 can and a coat hanger to the next meeting.

Mrs. Robert Neely and Mrs. Marie Kittinger were assistant leaders.

The Fairfield Community Homemakers will meet next Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. E. Benner for their first meeting at which time arts and crafts will be chosen for the winter meetings. All homemakers are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eberly of Dallastown were Saturday guests of Frank Moore.

An invitation has been extended to residents of the area to attend the Gettysburg Garden Club flower show to be held Friday afternoon and evening, September 28, at the West St. bank.

The Fairfield Band Auxiliary will meet Monday evening at the high school when officers for the coming year will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Manherz, York, were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Waddie.

Miss Sue Deardorff has returned to Mansfield State College, where she is a Sophomore, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deardorff.

DOG HAS ROLE IN STAGE PLAY

Dog lovers have enjoyed "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" at the Allenberry Playhouse, playing its second week there. A great deal of interest has been provided by the pet dog "Flush" of Elizabeth Lawrence, the commuting star from New York, who plays the Barrett role. "Lizzie-Girl" its real name, was on the sofa most of the time with her mistress and responded well to direction. She paid such attention that the audience felt she, too, was interested in her mistress' problems.

William McKereghan plays Edward Barrett, the tyrannical father, and does a magnificent job with this difficult role. He is a very versatile actor and in Allenberry's last production "Twin Beds" convulsed the audience with his antics as the inebriated Italian tenor.

Jane Farnol and Shirley Guy, playing the parts of the two sisters, Margaret Janney as Wilson, the maid, and the six young men in formal attire playing Elizabeth's brothers, together with two doctors and the fiancée of one of the girls, had good supporting roles.

The direction of Richard North Gage brings out the difficult parts of this well-known story quite plainly but in excellent taste.

In addition to the awards made by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, about 150 business corporations, foundations and individuals give scholarships through the merit program. A considerable number of other scholarship agencies utilize the services of NMSC in awarding their scholarships.

MISSISSIPPI ACTS TO AVERT INTEGRATION

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi authorities seek a last-ditch solution to avert integration of the University of Mississippi.

A Negro veteran, James Howard Meredith, 29, stands ready to try to enter the all-white school under a federal court order.

It would bring a showdown in the bitter struggle between state and federal authorities.

No Negro ever has attended the 114-year-old institution.

The Mississippi College Board and state officials met into the early hours today. After the session ended, Gov. Ross Barnett told newsmen he would stand firm on his decision not to let Meredith enter the university.

The board had no announcement on its action. Chairman Tom Tubbs said another meeting was scheduled today.

FALSE REGISTRATION

There was speculation Meredith would be arrested on a state warrant charging him with false voter registration.

Hinds County Atty. Paul Alexander said a criminal warrant had been issued charging Meredith with perjury in connection with his voter registration application.

Meredith was expected to show up in company of a number of federal marshals.

If the university refuses to enroll him, the registrar likely would face federal charges.

Federal courts up to and including the Supreme Court have ordered Meredith admitted to the university as a transfer student, coming from Jackson State College for Negroes.

PREPARE FOR JAIL

Barnett told state officials they should be prepared to go to jail or to resign so others could take over their jobs.

Chancery Judge L. P. Porter, a state judge, issued a temporary injunction Wednesday barring admittance of Meredith.

In special session, the Mississippi legislature passed a bill which would make it unlawful to admit to the university any student convicted of criminal charges or arrested on such charges involving moral turpitude. Presumably, this law involved Meredith through the charges of voter registration fraud against him. Barnett signed it into law early this morning.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Board Names New Treasurer:
The Rev. Dr. Mark E. Stock, rector of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church and for many years a member of the board of directors of the Warner hospital, was elected treasurer of the board at the September meeting. He succeeds Miss Sarah J. Clark who recently resigned as superintendent and treasurer. The board took special notice on the hospital's report for the month of August which in a number of respects set a record over any month since the hospital was established. With a total of 192 admissions—an average of more than six each day last month—the hospital cared for an average of 43 patients daily. The July average was 40 and that for June was 35. Both of these months were above average. The record of 30 births also was exceptionally high, while the 163 operations and 799 laboratory examinations also topped previous figures.

Married On Friday: Lt. Henry M. Hartman Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Hartman, Springs avenue, and Miss Audrey L. Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, were united in marriage Friday evening in Baltimore. Lt. Hartman expects to return to duty in the near future to a post in southern waters.

Mount Appoints Dean Of Freshmen: Mount St. Mary's College President Msgr. John L. Sheridan announced today that the Rev. T. J. Kilcullen of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., has been appointed dean of freshmen. The Rev. John C. Cogan, dean of studies, said there are 66 freshmen enrolled for the current semester. This is the largest freshman class to enroll at the Mount in recent years.

Mrs. Frank Clutz, West Broadway, has returned home from Pittsburgh where she spent a month with her husband, Doctor Clutz, who is employed on an engineering project for the Navy.

Lions Not To Use Gas: Faced with an order from Tail Twister D. E. Hess that they dare not use any gasoline in reaching a concert of the club's meeting place this evening, members of the Gettysburg Lions Club are devising gas-less means of transportation to take them to the West Gettysburg Inn for the weekly dinner session at 6 o'clock. The penalty for violating the meeting will be a fine to be imposed and collected by the tail-twister.

Temple Leases Lee-Meade Inn: Temple University, Philadelphia, has leased the Lee-Meade Inn, two miles south of Gettysburg on the Emmusburg road, for the duration of the war. Joseph H. Chamberlain, proprietor, has announced a few hours before he left for Lake Alfred, Florida, where he will spend the winter. Mr. Chamberlain said that Temple university took over the inn for the purpose of housing 30 to 40 students who are enrolled in the Civilian Pilot Training course and who are denied flying instructions in Philadelphia because that area is within the restricted zone for flying. The students will receive their flight training at the Boulevard airport, two miles from Gettysburg on the Mummusburg road. The school has retained Mrs. Grace Mort as cook and another local couple will be engaged to assist in operating the inn for sleeping quarters for the students and the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain will go to Lake Alfred where they will open their hotel, Lake Alfred, on November 1. Clarence Fritz will continue to operate the Lee-Meade Service station. The station was not included in the lease with Temple.

Speaks At Sharpsburg: Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of Gettysburg National Military Park, was the principal speaker at a program conducted in Antietam National cemetery, Sharpsburg, Md., on Sunday, in observance of the 90th anniversary of Somehow one of the most difficult of tasks is to forget yesterday. If we could only think of our days as steps in a great flight of stairs—each higher one lifting us nearer to our goal. Then, if we stumbled, we would just be more careful the next time and seek a higher step.

But the fact is, all of us carry our yesterday too much with us. We worry about what we failed to do, and what we did wrongly. If we could but gather up the memories of all the gain and all the good which we achieved, and add these to the new day at hand, then what progress we would make!

Only today really counts—to do it! Today we may correct much that was fumbled yesterday, and today we may do much that we failed in yesterday. The musician, fingered over and over his beloved key, keeps correcting and smoothing out his technique. His yesterdays of toil and errors fade away.

Only the sweet memories of yesterday should follow us along, and be as mellow music as we work and play. Yesterday was youth to many of us, but today that youth has accumulated many of the loves and beauties of the years and added to experience many of its richest gifts.

As we go along we keep picking up, here and there, and we keep dropping things away, as well. Yesterday may have been filled with strife and sorrow, but today only the lesson remains.

One summer I visited one of the little towns in which I lived as a boy. I loved it then. It was a world to me. But that was of the past. My viewpoint had changed when I made that summer visit and my dreams were elsewhere.

Sprinkle your yesterdays, like seeds, as you go. Let them bear what they may. But grasp today and work it through. Ride it till its back is sore!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "Luggage."

Just Folks

THE OTHER "ME"
Within the mirror's shine I see
The outward surfaces of me;
The mouth, the brow, the chin
and eyes
Which other people recognize;
But there is more of me to know
Which in the mirror doesn't show.

For I keep hidden much of me
Which other people cannot see;
And there's an "I" whom no one knows
And in the mirror never shows.
But, oh, so different is he
From him that others think they see.

I know not whether worse he be
Or better than the outer me;
He hopes for goals he'll never
gain
And clings to dreams he knows
are vain,
He knows my every fault and
shame
And just how frail a thing I am.

Sometimes I think him strong and
clean;
Sometimes I'm glad he can't be
seen.
He seems to be a curious mix
Of lofty thoughts and petty tricks
And traits which others never see
This man I know myself to be.

the Battle of Antietam. The program included a concert of sacred and patriotic music presented by the Sharpsburg Band and the M. J. Ghann Chanters of Hagerstown.

Blaze Damages Wentz Building: Twelve occupants of five apartments in the R. W. Wentz building in the second block of Baltimore street were driven out of their living quarters by fire early this morning, which threatened the entire structure but was confined by Gettysburg firemen to the third floor. The blaze, discovered about 1:25 a.m., may have been caused by defective wiring and apparently started in an enclosed porch, a part of the third-floor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wentz at the front of the north side of the building. Fire Chief James A. Aumen estimated the damage to the building at about $5,000 but could not estimate the extent of the damage to furnishings in the water-soaked second floor apartment of Miss Mary Ramer and the stock of ladies' wear in Miss Virginia M. Myers shop on the first floor. Most of the occupants of the five apartments were awakened by the crackling and roar of the flames, by the odor of smoke and by the barking of "Skip," pet dog of Borough Officer and Mrs. Horace L. Bender who occupy the third floor apartment on the south side of the building. All of the occupants of the apartments reached safety without mishap although Harold Wentz had difficulty in reaching the bed of his four-year-old son Gary, located in the broke out the father was met by a blast of heat and dense smoke when he attempted to enter the room. The elderly mother of Miss Ramer, Mrs. Emily Ramer, 81, and her sister, Mrs. Laura Roddey, 89, were helped from their second-floor apt. and stayed with neighbors until later in the morning when they moved to the home of relatives here.

AUTHORIZE MERGER OF 2 EUB GROUPS

HARRISBURG (AP)— Merger of the Eastern and Northeastern Pennsylvania Conferences of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, perhaps next spring, has been authorized by the Eastern group.

Delegates attending a three-day meeting of the Eastern Conference in nearby Colonial Park adopted Wednesday a resolution approving the consolidation.

The Northeastern Conference previously indicated its willingness to join with the Eastern group to form a new conference representing some 300 congregations with a combined membership of 75,000.

A special conference to effect the consolidation is expected to be held next April.

OTHER ACTION

The Rev. Artz S. Lick, Allentown, member of the Judicial Committee, the Rev. Alden G. Biely, Lebanon, conference trustee; the Rev. Daniel L. Shearer, Ephrata, and Dr. Ezra H. Rank, Harrisburg, ministerial trustees of Lebanon Valley College; and Carl S. Brandt, Harrisburg, and Dr. D. E. Grove, lay trustees of the college.

Bishop Hermann W. Kaebnick of Harrisburg presiding over the meeting, ordained the following new ministers Wednesday night:

Richard G. Black, Neffsville; Hervey W. Ebbright, Lebanon; Ira C. Fortna, Sunbury; James K. Graby, Fontana; Eugene R. Hostetter, Lebanon; Donald R. Morgan, Valley View; Paul F. Rock II, Harrisburg; Frederick C. Seyfert, Bath; John H. Shenk, Lancaster, and Sandy R. Stover, Hershey.

Littlestown MERIT TESTS ARE PLANNED

All 1964 graduates of Littlestown Junior-Senior High School, who wish to enter the 1963-64 National Merit Scholarship competition, should register now at the Guidance office, Elmer Gall, guidance counselor announced today.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given in the school at 9 a.m. Tuesday, March 5, 1963, or Saturday, March 9, 1963. Students who will graduate from high school in 1964 and enter college the same calendar year are eligible for scholarship consideration in the 1963-64 merit program.

To receive consideration, the student must take the test when it is offered in his school. Participating students pay a fee on the day of the test. Any interested student who is unable to pay the fee should consult Mr. Gall.

Awards in the merit program are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the amount of individual stipends. The stipends are renewable each year without further testing. A student's performance on the qualifying test also provides him with information that is useful in career planning or in selecting courses in high school and college, Mr. Gall said.

After the test, each student receives an interpretive folder prepared by Science Research Associates, the testing agency, that reports individual test results for comparison of high school students across the country. Thus students can learn about their educational strengths and weaknesses—whether or not they plan to attend college.

Girl Scout News

Twenty-eight members attended the first meeting of Intermediate Troop 757 Girls Scouts of Fairfield held Tuesday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Charles Taylor. Carol McGlaughlin was color sergeant for the flag ceremony with Betsy Neely as flag bearer and Sandra Sites and Susan Sanders, color guards.

Mrs. Taylor informed the girls of the troop changes in division and uniforms. Each girl is asked to bring a No. 10 can and a coat hanger to the next meeting.

Mrs. Robert Neely and Mrs. Marie Kittinger were assistant leaders.

The Fairfield Community Homemakers will meet next Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. E. Benner for their first meeting at which time arts and crafts will be chosen for the winter meetings. All homemakers are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eberly of Dallastown were Saturday guests of Frank Moore.

An invitation has been extended to residents of the area to attend the Gettysburg Garden Club flower show to be held Friday afternoon and evening, September 28, at the West St. bank.

The Fairfield Band Auxiliary will meet Monday evening at the high school when officers for the coming year will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Manherz, York, were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Waddle.

Miss Sue Deardorff has returned to Mansfield State College, where she is a Sophomore, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deardorff.

DOG HAS ROLE IN STAGE PLAY

Dog lovers have enjoyed "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" at the Allenberry Playhouse, playing its second week there. A great deal of interest has been provided by the pet dog "Flush" of Elizabeth Lawrence, the commuting star from New York, who plays the Barrett role. "Lizzie-Girl" its real name, was on the sofa most of the time with her mistress and responded well to direction. She paid such attention that the audience felt she, too, was interested in her mistress' problems.

William McKereghan plays Edward Barrett, the tyrannical father, and does a magnificent job with this difficult role. He is a very versatile actor and in Allenberry's last production "Twin Beds" convulsed the audience with his antics as the inebriated Italian tenor.

Jane Farnol and Shirley Guy, playing the parts of the two sisters, Margaret Janney as Wilson, the maid, and the six young men in formal attire playing Elizabeth's brothers, together with two doctors and the fiancé of one of the girls, had good supporting roles.

The direction of Richard North Gage brings out the difficult parts of this well-known story quite plainly but in excellent taste.

In addition to the awards made by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, about 150 business corporations, foundations and individuals give scholarships through the merit program. A considerable number of other scholarship agencies utilize the services of NAMSC in awarding their scholarships.

MISSISSIPPI ACTS TO AVERT INTEGRATION

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)— Mississippi authorities seek a last-ditch solution to avert integration of the University of Mississippi.

A Negro veteran, James Howard Meredith, 29, stands ready to try to enter the all-white school under a federal court order.

It would bring a showdown in the bitter struggle between state and federal authorities.

No Negro ever has attended the 114-year-old institution.

The Mississippi College Board and state officials met into the early hours today. After the session ended, Gov. Ross Barnett told newsmen he would stand firm on his decision not to let Meredith enter the university.

The board had no announcement on its action. Chairman Tom Tubbs said another meeting was scheduled today.

FALSE REGISTRATION

There was speculation Meredith would be arrested on a state warrant charging him with false voter registration.

Hinds County Atty. Paul Alexander said a criminal warrant had been issued charging Meredith with perjury in connection with his voter registration application.

Meredith was expected to show up in company of a number of federal marshals.

The university refuses to enroll him, the registrar likely would face federal charges.

Federal courts up to and including the Supreme Court have ordered Meredith admitted to the university as a transfer student, coming from Jackson State College for Negroes.

PREPARE FOR JAIL

Barnett told state officials they should be prepared to go to jail or to resign so others could take over their jobs.

Chancery Judge L. P. Porter, a state judge, issued a temporary injunction Wednesday barring admittance of Meredith.

In special session, the Mississippi legislature passed a bill which would make it unlawful to admit to the university any student convicted of criminal charges or arrested on such charges involving moral turpitude. Presumably, this law involved Meredith through the charges of voter registration fraud against him. Barnett signed it into law early this morning.

DEATHS

MOSCOW (AP)— Nikolai Pogodin, 62, prominent Soviet playwright, died Wednesday of an abdominal hemorrhage. Pogodin's plays usually centered around political and sociological themes.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)— Dr. Hilary R. Bell, 43, dean of the University of Dayton School of Business Administration, died Wednesday, apparently of a heart attack. He also taught at Tulane and the University of North Dakota.

WASHINGTON (AP)— Dr. John Leighton Stuart, 82, United States post-war ambassador to China, died Wednesday after a long illness. The Presbyterian minister was named ambassador to China in 1946. After the Communists took over the mainland, he served as ambassador to Nationalist China until 1952.

CLOWN TELLS BLIND YOUTH ABOUT CIRCUS

LOS ANGELES (AP)— It was opening day for the Barnum & Bailey Circus in the sports arena. This, in circus talk, meant:

"Death-defying feats."
"Extraordinary equestrianism."
"Marvelous mammals."
"Matchless mid-air marvels," and all the other showprowd wonderful come-ons for the "Greatest Show on Earth."

It also meant peanuts and popcorn, sawdust on tankark, the milky glaze of a spotlight in a hushed and darkened arena, lithe young acrobats, dainty lady acrobats, gleaming white horses and bulb-nosed clowns.

CLOWN TELLS BLIND

A group of blind youngsters from the Braille Institute saw it all Wednesday—through the eyes of a clown.

The clown, Bobby Kay, sat in street clothes with the kids and described this scene:

"Now all the pretty girls are climbing high on ropes and now they are all spinning around and around in the air. And now here comes more ponies and these have little dogs on their backs. . . ."

"Here come the camels. They are dromedary camels. That means they have only one hump."

"There is also a zebra. What's a zebra. Well, a zebra is like a small horse and he has black and white stripes. And nobody has ever figured out whether it is a black horse with white stripes or a white horse with black stripes, and whaddya think of that?"

How does he explain a trapeze to sightless youngsters?

"Take hold of my arm," Kay said. Three pairs of small hands gripped his forearm. Kay swung it back and forth, explaining: "This is a trapeze, only a trapeze is way up in the air and the men and women swing from one tra-

GUNMAN BACK FOR $14,000 ON 2ND TRIP

PITTSBURGH (AP)— A gunman, threatening to shoot, took an estimated $14,000 cash Wednesday night from the same branch bank he held up less than three months ago.

Western Pennsylvania National Bank Officials said the holdup man was the one who grabbed $4,373 at gunpoint last June 28 from the bank, which is located in the Great Valley Shopping Center in nearby North Versailles Township.

They described him as about 5-foot-6, 30 to 40 years old, cross-eyed with thick-lensed spectacles and wearing a small mustache. "DON'T GET EXCITED"

Bank officials estimated the loss in the latest holdup at $14,000 but said the exact amount won't be known until records are checked. The gunman entered the bank, carrying a .45 caliber automatic and a pillow case.

"Don't push any buttons!" he snapped to teller Wayne Brentzel. "Relax! Don't get excited or I'll shoot!"

Following the holdup man's orders, Brentzel emptied the cash from tellers' drawers into the pillow case.

"I'LL SHOOT YOU"

The gunman then ordered teller Everett Heath to put all the vault money in the pillow case and warned him:

"If I find anything left there, I'll shoot you!"

During the holdup, a man, two women and two children entered the bank. They were herded into the vault.

The robber fled in a car that later was found abandoned about a quarter of a mile away.

When the show was over, the children clapped heartily—as though they had seen every minute of it.

STAGE RIVAL VERSIONS OF SAME DRAMA

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP)—Off-Broadway is trying something new—rival versions of a single drama.

The theatrical tussle concerns an antiwar piece of emotional spectacle "Mann Ist Mann," penned by Bertolt Brecht, the late German playwright.

As "A Man's a Man," it was presented with colorful dash Wednesday night at the Masque Theater by the new repertory company—just 24 hours after arrival at the Living Theater of a thunder-and-lightning concept called "Man Is Man."

Each has assets and deficits, but an edge in over-all effectiveness must be conceded to "A Man's a Man."

That adaptation is by Eric Bentley, based upon Brecht's 1926 manuscript. Reaching for enhanced timeliness, the Living Theater translation was made by Gerhard Neukaus from the author's 1953 revision.

SARDONIC TIRADE
Besides being somewhat more direct in sardonic tirade against the way in which war can convert every man into robot savagery, "A Man's a Man" has been staged with theatrical flair by John Hancock.

The cast at the Masque is outfitted in grotesque facial makeup which makes the affair into a marionette charade of stylized effectiveness. In contrast, the Living Theater group—old hands at this kind of venture—rely on a minimum of physical props and create an atmosphere of deliberate, murky improvisation.

Besides crudities of dialogue and situation which may bother certain spectators, both labor under deficiencies in Brecht's basic argument. Emotion rather than reason is appealed to—in somewhat dated fashion.

The more polished performance at the Masque is highlighted by John Heffernan's portrayal of the duped victim. Judith Malina, co-producer and the wife of director Julian Beck, stands out as the tawdry temptress in the Living Theater exhibit.

$77 MILLION RESERVOIR IS DRAWING FIRE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The proposed $77 million Raystown Reservoir project on the Juniata River near Huntingdon, Pa., has drawn criticism from two Pennsylvania witnesses appearing before a Senate Public Works Subcommittee.

Louis H. Roddis Jr., president of the Pennsylvania Electric Co., told the subcommittee Wednesday he specifically opposed inclusion of the power features in the project. And while not opposing its construction for flood control purposes, he said the reservoir should be located further upstream.

E. L. Little, secretary of the Raystown Branch Conservation Committee of Huntingdon, testified the project would wipe out 75 per cent of the school taxes in the area without any guarantee that this income would be replaced. He said the project would inundate about 1,000 homes, churches and other structures and would not solve the flood problems of the basin.

WON'T SOLVE PROBLEM
Roddis also said the project would not solve flood problems. He said it would not produce power efficiently.

Roddis said the project has not been justified by Army Engineers who have endorsed it for possible inclusion in an omnibus authorization bill. Its flood control and recreation benefits do not require hydroelectric power features, he declared.

The power features, said Roddis, would cost an estimated $45 million and would be usable only 6 per cent of the time when water for such use should be available at least 20 per cent of the time.

Col. Robert Marshall, assistant director of civil works for the Army Engineers, acknowledged that inclusion of power features in the proposal has created "considerable controversy." He said engineers had found the only feasible plan involves use of a large

"I'VE FOUND"

I have found more joy than sadness . . . more smiles than bitter tears . . . and that faith will quell the fires . . . that are known as doubts and fears . . . for each wrong a thousand rights beam . . . giving off a tender glow . . . and for each pool of hatred . . . a thousand love streams flow . . . I have found most of life's troubles and not really bad at all . . . and that we ourselves are guilty . . . for the times we slip and fall . . . I've discovered that God answers . . . every unselfish prayer . . . and that hope can far out-distance . . . the devil, known as care . . . so with every passing moment . . . these facts I will propound . . . I am truly thankful . . . for the things I've found.

Races, Skydivers At Lincoln Oval

Bobby Hersh, Glen Rock, will attempt to score another win at the Lincoln Speedway Saturday night when the track will be host to its usual race card of sportsmen-modified and strictly-stock cars.

—Hersh, who has been on a winning streak at area dirt tracks, will return to Lincoln this week with a two-in-a-row victory in mind. In last week's 25-lap feature for the S-M cars, the leadfoot piloted his number 39 to victory when he poured on the coal in the 20th lap passing Bobby Abel, York, in a thrilling finish.

The strictly stockers will be on hand again with Ronnie Ruttters, fresh from a win, last week trying to keep the honors.

Promoter Hilly Rife stated that as an added attraction three members of the Baltimore Sky Diver's will make a return appearance at the oval. The parachutists will attempt a free-fall jump into the infield of the half-mile track at intermission. At last week's program the jumpers missed their mark when strong winds pushed them off course.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS — A meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held in the parish house at York Springs, Friday. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Joseph Stoner and the theme for the meditation period was "Preparedness." Mrs. Bennie Fadenrecht read an item on "National Consumer Expenditures" compiled from 1959.

The York Springs local plans to purchase two books to be presented to the school library in memory of Mrs. Ruth Leer, former president of the York Springs local.

A group of children from the Loyal Temperance League and the Youth Temperance Council, sponsored by the York Springs WCTU local, presented a program of songs and vocal and instrumental music for the guests at the Adams County Home for the Aged on September 15, and five of the children gave a speech contest, with Ronald Zook as winner for the bronze medal. Each guest at the home was presented with a gift from the LTL and YTC groups. Following the visit to the home the group returned to the home of Mrs. Bennie Fadenrecht and refreshments were served.

STAGE RIVAL VERSIONS OF SAME DRAMA

Associated Press Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP)—Off-Broadway is trying something new—rival versions of a single drama.

The theatrical tussle concerns an antiwar piece of emotional spectacle "Mann Ist Mann," penned by Bertolt Brecht, the late German playwright.

As "A Man's a Man," it was presented with colorful dash Wednesday night at the Masque Theater by the new repertory company—just 24 hours after arrival at the Living Theater of a thunder-and-lightning concept called "Man Is Man."

Each has assets and deficits, but an edge in over-all effectiveness must be conceded to "A Man's a Man."

That adaptation is by Eric Bentley, based upon Brecht's 1926 manuscript. Reaching for enhanced timeliness, the Living Theater translation was made by Gerhard Neillhaus from the author's 1953 revision.

SARDONIC TIRADE

Besides being somewhat more direct in sardonic tirade against the way in which war can convert every man into robot savagery, "A Man's a Man" has been staged with theatrical flair by John Hancock.

The cast at the Masque is outfitted in grotesque facial makeup which makes the affair into a marionette charade of stylized effectiveness. In contrast, the Living Theater group—old hands at this kind of venture—rely on a minimum of physical props and create an atmosphere of deliberate, murky improvisation.

Besides crudities of dialogue and situation which may bother certain spectators, both labor under deficiencies in Brecht's basic argument. Emotion rather than reason is appealed to—in somewhat dated fashion.

The more polished performance at the Masque is highlighted by John Heffernan's portrayal of the duped victim, Judith Malina, co-producer and the wife of director Julian Beck, stands out as the tawdry temptress in the Living Theater exhibit.

$77 MILLION RESERVOIR IS DRAWING FIRE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The proposed $77 million Raystown Reservoir project on the Juniata River near Huntingdon, Pa., has drawn criticism from two Pennsylvania witnesses appearing before a Senate Public Works Subcommittee.

Louis H. Roddis Jr., president of the Pennsylvania Electric Co., told the subcommittee Wednesday he specifically opposed inclusion of the power features in the project. And while not opposing its construction for flood control purposes, he said the reservoir should be located further upstream.

E. L. Little, secretary of the Raystown Branch Conservation Committee of Huntingdon, testified the project would wipe out 75 per cent of the school taxes in the area without any guarantee that this income would be replaced. He said the project would inundate about 1,000 homes, churches and other structures and would not solve the flood problems of the basin.

WON'T SOLVE PROBLEM

Roddis also said the project would not solve flood problems. He said it would not produce power efficiently.

Roddis said the project has not been justified by Army Engineers who have endorsed it for possible inclusion in an omnibus authorization bill. Its flood control and recreation benefits do not require hydroelectric power features, he declared.

The power features, said Roddis, would cost an estimated $45 million and would be usable only 6 per cent of the time when water for such use should be available at least 20 per cent of the time.

Col. Robert Marshall, assistant director of civil works for the Army Engineers, acknowledged that inclusion of power features in the proposal has created "considerable controversy." He said engineers had found the only feasible plan involves use of a large

Races, Skydivers At Lincoln Oval

Bobby Hersh, Glen Rock, will attempt to score another win at the Lincoln Speedway Saturday night when the track will be host to its usual race card of sportsmen-modified and strictly-stock cars.

Hersh, who has been on a winning streak at area dirt tracks, will return to Lincoln this week with a two-in-a-row victory in mind. In last week's 25-lap feature for the S-M cars, the leadfoot piloted his number 39 to victory when he poured on the coal in the 20th lap passing Bobby Abel, York, in a thrilling finish.

The strictly stockers will be on hand again with Ronnie Ruttters, fresh from a win, last week trying to keep the honors.

Promoter Hilly Rife stated that as an added attraction three members of the Baltimore Sky Divers will make a return appearance at the oval. The parachutists will attempt a free-fall jump into the infield of the half-mile track at intermission. At last week's program the jumpers missed their mark when strong winds pushed them off course.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS — A meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held in the parish house at York Springs, Friday. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Joseph Stoner and the theme for the meditation period was "Preparedness." Mrs. Bennie Fadenrecht read an item on "National Consumer Expenditures" compiled from 1959.

The York Springs local plans to purchase two books to be presented to the school library in memory of Mrs. Ruth Leer, former president of the York Springs local.

A group of children from the Loyal Temperance League and the Youth Temperance Council, sponsored by the York Springs WCTU local, presented a program of songs and vocal and instrumental music for the guests at the Adams County Home for the Aged on September 15, and five of the children gave a speech contest, with Ronald Zook as winner for the bronze medal. Each guest at the home was presented with a gift from the LTL and YTC groups. Following the visit to the home the group returned to the home of Mrs. Bennie Fadenrecht and refreshments were served.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. MacPHERSON

EARLY MARRIAGES

The record of the marriages performed by the Rev. Father Thomas Barton, while priest at Christ Episcopal Church, Huntington Township, York (now Adams) County, is continued at this time.

Marriages in the year 1755 —

11. "October 8th — John Grosz (Grosseross) to Elizabeth Riddling — Banns Published."

12. "November 12th — William Hamilton to Jennet Ramsey (Ramsey) — Banns Published."

Note: — William Hamilton, the bridegroom named above, was the son of Colonel Hance and Ann Hamilton. Colonel Hamilton, famed as an Indian fighter, was elected the first sheriff of York County, Pennsylvania.

13. "December 23rd — John Mitchell to Margaret Lacklin — Banns Published."

14. "December 23rd — James Drumm to Elizabeth Newgent — License."

15. "December 25th — Samuel Anderson (Anderson) to Rudy Shaver — License."

"Marriages in the year 1756 —

16. "January 11th — David Bond to Jane Gallacher — License."

17. "February 3 — Thomas Holt to Elizabeth Mitchell — License."

18. "February 8th — Robert Stewart to Ann Lewiston (Lewiston) — Banns Published."

19. "February 28th — Charles Caldwell to Elizabeth McLean — License."

20. "April 26th — John Robeson (Robeson) to Ann Boles — License."

21. "May 18th — Robert Stevenson (Stevenson) to Elizabeth McCalmond — Banns Published."

Note: — The Robert Stevenson mentioned above was a member of the family, early settlers in the Manor of the Maske (Masque), who were apparently members of the Upper Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church. Some members of the Stevenson clan are buried in the old graveyard (Black's) belonging to that congregation.

22. "June 15th — David McNair to Ann Dunning — License."

Note: — The McNair family were members of Tom's Creek Presbyterian Church.

23. "June 21st — Thomas White to Rose McKinn — License."

24. "July 17th — William McGrew to Margaret Bracken — License."

Note: — Both the bride and bridegroom mentioned in the above record were members of Christ Episcopal Church, one of the parishes served by Father Barton.

25. "July 24th — Jacob Sanford to Margaret Carlton — License."

26. "August 15th — David Himm to Agnes — Banns Published."

27. "August 22nd — John Huston to Isabella McIlvane."

28. "August 23rd — Ensign William Lyon to Alice Armstrong — License."

Note: — William Lyon and Alice Armstrong were members of early Carlisle families. Their graves are in the "Old Graveyard," Carlisle.

29. "October 5th — David Hoge (Hoge) to Elizabeth Jones — License."

Note: — The Hoge family were early settlers in the Cumberland Valley and Hoge town, Cumberland, was founded by them.

30. "October 5th — Conrad Henry to Ann King — Banns published."

31. "November 15th — John Coonan to Sarah Weekes — Banns Published."

32. "November 20th — Adams Kimmel to Barbara Miller — License."

"Marriages in the Year 1757 —

33. "February 14th — Thomas Bunn to Susanna (Susanna) Locke — Banns Published."

34. "March 3rd — William Dadds to Susanna (Susanna) Murphy — License."

35. "April 15th — William Oliver to Agnes McConnell — License."

36. "April 24th — William Rosbrough to Rachel Smith — License."

37. "April 26th — James Long to Rachel Campbell — Banns Published."

38. "May 4th — John Crozier to Frances Moreton — License."

39. "June 20th — David Kenworthy to Rebecca Howe — License."

Note: — The pioneer members of the Kenworthy family adhered to the Society of Friends — whose members were known as Quakers.

40. "June 22nd — William Read to Sarah Wallock — License."

41. "June 23rd — Joseph Wood to Rebecca Abbot — License."

Note: — The Rebecca Abbot (or Abbot) mentioned above was probably a member of the family of John Abbot, the founder of Abbotstown, this County. It will be remembered that the said John Abbot was a member of Christ Episcopal Church, Huntington Township, this County.

42. "June 27th — Arthur Clark to Jane Swansy — License."

43. "July 30th — John Chapman to Isabella Turner — Banns Published."

44. "August 11th — Archibald McClain (McClean) to Margaret Grimes — License."

Note: — It is quite possible that the Archibald McClain (McClean), the bridegroom in the above record, was a member of the McClean family who were early settlers in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania. Archibald McClean, a surveyor, helped to run the "Mason and Dixon" Line.

45. "September 24th — James Lee to Mary Kilpatrick — License."

The marriage record of the Rev. Father Thomas Barton will be concluded in this column next week.

WILLS HAS ONE GAME TO BEAT COBB'S RECORD

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fleet Maury Wills chases an asterisk Friday that could be worth $50,000 or more.

Wills and his Los Angeles Dodgers teammates move into St. Louis for their 154th game of the season with Wills in hot pursuit of Ty Cobb's modern record of 96 stolen bases.

Wills, acclaimed as the greatest base runner of his era, swiped his 94th in the Dodgers' 4-0 victory over Milwaukee Wednesday.

Wills said, "I'm thinking about it." "Sure, I'm more interested in us clinching the pennant."

$50,000 INVOLVED

If Wills should crack the record in the 154 games, many observers feel the feat would be worth as much as $50,000 in off-season endorsements over and above what he may get if he goes to 162 games to break it.

And the odds are against the swift shortstop. He has to get two to tie and three to break the mark Friday on bruised and battered legs and a painful ankle.

"Yes, it hurts to run," he said Wednesday of an ailing ankle. "It hurts so much I have to loosen up pretty good before a game, either running by myself or with the pitchers in the outfield."

SAME RULING

Wills faces the same ruling that applied to Roger Maris last season when he sought Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs.

The problem involves the expanded schedules Ruth and Cobb set their records in a 154 game schedule. With both the National and American Leagues expanded to 162 games, clubs now play 162 games.

The ruling, by baseball commissioner Ford Frick, is that the record must be broken in 162 team decisions or go into the record book with an asterisk, indicating that it was broken in a 162-game schedule.

NEW SKI RESORT

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP) — Plans for development of a new ski resort were announced Wednesday night.

President Edward M. Peterson of the Blue Knob Development Corp., Altoona, said the skiing area will be located on a 600-acre tract near Blue Knob State Park in northwestern Bedford County.

He said work will begin this winter on a beginners' slope, but it will not be open to the public.

Mercury Venus and Pluto have no discernible satellites.

TO FURLOUGH 400 HOLIDAYERSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Some 400 workers are to be furloughed at the Pennsylvania Railroad's Samuel Rea Shop here effective Oct. 1.

J. L. Parker, manager of the heavy repair shop, said Wednesday the present level of business and uncertainties about the future are the cause of the furloughs.

About 400 men were furloughed from the shop in this Blair County community last July.

APPOINTED — Richard W. Reuter of New York City was named by the President to be the new director of the Food for Peace program. He succeeds George McGovern.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the great pleasures of middle age is the discovery that your memory is slipping.

From then on you can make your life even more enjoyable if you pretend it has slipped even further than it has, just as elderly people often pretend they are harder of hearing than they actually are.

Then you can remember only what you want to — just as old folks hear only what they choose to.

Loss of memory isn't so much a matter of physical aging in most men as it is a selective form of self-defense. It is affected by the kind of jobs they have, and how long they have been married.

FORGET SOME THING

In general it might be said that the more people there are who feel they have a right to tell you what to do, the earlier your memory begins to show signs of failing.

It is only by forgetting some of their insistent demands that you can remember to do some of the things you want to get done yourself. This is what is known as protective, or self-defensive, loss of memory.

Some people take an inordinate pride in their memories. They can remember all their past automobile licenses, and can recall the name and room number of every hotel they stayed in. What is worse, they like to show off this useless skill at cocktail parties after their second drink.

NUISANCE MEMORIES

Such parrot-type memories are more of a nuisance than a blessing, and hardly show intelligence of a very high order. They result in a mind stuffed with nonessential lumber that should bore one's self and certainly is bound to bore others.

Many middle-aged people worry at any sign of loss of memory. The truth is loss of memory is normal, healthy, and essential.

It begins at birth and continues inexorably until death.

Every day, probably every hour, awake or asleep, our crowded brains forget something they no longer need to keep — and if they didn't it is hard to see how we could go on living.

How impossible life would be to the average man if he remembered every wrong or foolish thing he had done in his long journey! Such a mountain of accumulated guilt and regret would break the stoutest back. He would have time only for remorse; none left for accomplishment.

FORGETS NAMES

The wise man of middle age feels a quiet sense of elation at the discovery his memory isn't quite what it used to be.

What if he no longer can work a problem in high school algebra? What if he does keep meeting people whose faces are familiar but whose names he can no longer recall? What if he did forget his wife's 49th birthday?

Maybe he no longer needs algebra, the names of those forgotten faces no longer are important to him, and his wife would rather he remembered their 23rd wedding anniversary than her 49th birthday.

The part of wisdom in middle age is to remember what makes you feel better, and if anyone tries to remind you of anything else, simply to shake your head and say, "I must have slipped my mind. It's a shame the way my memory is going."

WINDS WORRY YANK CREW

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Steadily worsening weather conditions have cast a pall over the once-bright America's Cup picture for the United States' Weatherly.

The best of seven series for the ancient, battered cup stood at 1-1 today as Weatherly went to the starting line against Australia's Gretel.

High winds and heavy seas had the Americans worried and the challenging Aussies jubilant.

"If these conditions get worse, it could be awful bad," said Phillip Rhodes, Weatherly's designer, after the U.S. team went through a four-hour drill in winds up to 32 miles per hour.

Weatherly scored a resounding half mile victory in the opening race in light winds last Saturday, causing many observers to predict a four-race sweep.

But Gretel came back to capture the second race on heavier seas Tuesday as Weatherly's crew had trouble tacking to windward and displayed slow spinnaker work.

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Republican State Convention adopted a resolution Tuesday urging Sen. Barry Goldwater to run for the presidency in 1964.

The chimpanzee is considered the most intelligent of apes.

Cranberry Crunch Squares

Here's a novel "sweet choice" to serve when you've asked folks to come for dessert and coffee. Or make this the grand finale for your family dinner. They're tart-sweet Cranberry Crunch Squares. Serve them warm from the oven if you like or serve chilled.

You're sure to describe this dessert as fun — fun to make and even more fun to serve. It's Cranberry Crunch Squares. Dessert fancies have so many spots in our dinner and entertaining plans that you'll want to try this recipe soon.

To give you more description of these Cranberry Crunch Squares, they have a crumb base and topping made with quick cooking oats, brown sugar, enriched flour, shredded coconut and salt. To this mixture 1/2 cup of lard is added.

The filling for the squares is a tart-sweet combination made up of canned cranberry sauce, orange juice and orange rind.

USES FOR LARD

Perhaps you've forgotten all the many uses for lard. Of course it was used in your grandmother's day for the finest of baked products. Today it is still used for making fine pie crusts, rolls, cookies, cakes and biscuits.

Even when used immediately after taking it from the refrigerator, lard is easily worked through the flour and other dry ingredients as you will see when you prepare this recipe.

Now for the Cranberry Crunch Squares. First prepare the crumb mixture. Next, cut the 1/2 cup of lard into these dry ingredients.

PREPARE FILLING

When well combined, place half the crumb mixture in an 8 by 8 by 2-inch greased baking dish. Next, prepare the filling. Combine one 16-ounce can of whole cranberry sauce with 1 tablespoon of orange juice and 2 teaspoons of orange rind.

Spread this mixture evenly over the crumb base. Then top with the remaining crumb mixture. Bake the Crunch Squares in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 30 to 35 minutes or until done.

While still warm, cut into 9 squares. You can serve this dessert either warm or cold.

Cranberry Crunch Squares
1 cup quick cooking oats
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
1/2 cup sifted enriched flour
1/2 cup shredded coconut
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 can (16 ounces) whole cranberry sauce
1 tablespoon orange juice
2 teaspoons grated orange rind

Grease an 8 by 8 by 2-inch baking pan. Mix oats, sugar, flour, coconut and salt together. Cut lard into dry ingredients. Place half the crumb mixture in baking pan. Combine cranberry sauce, orange juice and rind. Spread evenly over crumb mixture. Top with remaining crumb mixture.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 to 35 minutes or until done. Cut, while warm, into 9 squares. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream, if desired. 9 servings

NEW PATTERNS FOR TV SHOWS ARE PREDICTED

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It is something of an open secret that, inside television, it is expected that most of this season's real excitement will be generated by the public affairs, information and documentary programs.

During the past few years, while television entertainment has been slipping gradually into the hands of Hollywood's facile manufacturers of B features, network news departments and private packageers have been learning to build meaty, professional and illuminating programs based on reality.

NOTE DIFFERENCE

There is considerable irony in the vast difference between the often shoddy pieces of fiction and enthusiastic painstaking efforts in reporting the realities. The irony is that the vast television audience, in every survey ever made, has shown a clear preference for entertainment, however feeble.

It is a rare news show — the launching of an astronaut, the critical balloting at a political convention — that can even begin to compete with the popularity of the shabbiest, most cliché-ridden Western or situation comedy.

The proof of every television pudding is still its popularity rating — the old and controversial numbers game that remains, in spite of all the disclaimers, the cold hard basis on which most advertisers decide whether or not to sponsor a show.

MAKE LONG STUDY
CBS Radio recently announced results of a 12-month study which, among other things, indicated more than half the viewers want to hear something besides music on the air waves. Most complaints involved too much rock 'n' roll music, too many commercials, hard-sell commercials and loud sound effects. Also, most radio listening still is done at home — only about a quarter of it in automobiles.

Sea winds generally contain no foreign matter except for salt particles from the sea.

STRAVINSKY WILL RETURN TO HOMELAND

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Igor Feodorovich Stravinsky comes back to his homeland Friday to demonstrate for the Russians what has come of the musical revolution he took to the West a half century ago and to hear what they have done with music while he was gone.

The mutual impact on his first return in 18 years is likely to be considerable, perhaps affectionate.

His Russian tour could be a brisk crackling of good will such as American poet Robert Frost engendered on his recent Soviet visit. Stravinsky, Russian-born and California-American by choice, is no less an outspoken individualist than the California-born New Englander Frost.

RELATED CELEBRATION

Stravinsky's triumphant return is a belated and reconciliatory part of celebrations of his 80th birthday, now three months past.

In the earlier phases of the four-score birthday celebrations Stravinsky was entertained by the Kennedys in the White House, and somewhere along the way in Russia he is expected to meet Premier Khrushchev, as Frost did with the touring good will clarinetist Benny Goodman did before him this year.

Khrushchev was friendly but frankly told Goodman he didn't dig Benny's music, and there is speculation as to whether the premier will comment on Stravinsky. Many others over the world have — often violently.

TO SEE NIECE

Soviet arbiters of art have prepared the way for Stravinsky in recent months by permitting for the first time renditions of many of the Stravinsky works that had been unacceptable under Soviet doctrine.

The small, wiry, octogenarian composer will find little of the old Russia on this first visit since 1914 — before World War I. There is a niece in Leningrad, Xenia Stravinsky, whom he will meet.

His father, a famous basso at the old czarist St. Petersburg (Leningrad) Opera, and his first teacher, Nicolai Rimsky-Korsakov are buried near each other in Novodevichy Cemetery.

TO CONDUCT CONCERTS

The elder Stravinsky turned Igor away from music and sent him to law school, where he met a son of Rimsky-Korsakov, and then Rimsky himself, and his fu-

TOUGH GUY LEE MARVIN REALLY IS EASY GOING

By DORIS KLEIN

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tough guy actor Lee Marvin hooked a left at me over the entire at the Brown Derby.

"Newton Minow and the PTA don't know what violence is," he growled.

"What we need is more violence."

Marvin, who is too easy-going to strike a woman, wanted to make it clear that he wasn't afraid that opposition, from the Federal Communications Commissioner or Parent-Teacher groups, would hurt him in his lucrative career as a film bad man.

LOT OF NONSENSE

"This business of films inciting people to violence is a lot of nonsense," said he.

"You don't see real brutality in films. Most of it is in the audience's mind."

"One of the most violent moments in films is Frank Sinatra's fight scene in 'From Here to Eternity.' And all you saw was the two guys' feet. The rest was left up to the imagination."

"You take this brawl I get into with John Wayne in 'Donovan's Reef.' It's really a farce. But when we got through, John Ford, the director, said, 'Now they'll think they've seen a helluva fight.'"

A FUNNY FIGHT

"It's really a very funny fight," said Marvin. "When we get through, you really think you've seen one."

"But the best part is when you are making the scene. Everyone goes sprawling. But when the director cuts, they all pick themselves up and stroll out."

"That kind of fight wouldn't deter anyone from violence. It's too much of a farce."

Marvin's fighting experience? He got his lumps in preliminaries on the sidewalks of New York's 15th Street as a kid and in the South Pacific as a Marine during World War II.

HAS NO TROUBLE

His make-believe brawling — even during his television run as a Chicago detective on "M Squad" — doesn't give him any trouble off screen.

"I'm a pretty loose guy. If I'm in a bar and someone tries to put me on, I just say, 'C'mon fella, have a drink.'"

"But if I said, 'I'm gonna push your nose all over your face,' pow, he'd start swinging."

Marvin jabbed a left over the coffee. I ducked.

Ask Treble Damages Against 11 Firms

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Three suits seeking treble damages from 11 electrical equipment firms have been filed in U.S. District Court here by the State Public School Building Authority.

The suits, filed Tuesday, claim the authority purchased $600,000 in equipment from the firms which were among 29 companies named in anti-trust indictments last year.

The General Electric Co. and Westinghouse Electric Co. were named as defendants in all three. I-T-E Circuit Breaker was named in two suits.

ture was settled.

The classic academic imprint of Rimsky and the avant-garde encouragements of the ballet entrepreneur Diaghilev gave young Igor the sure-fingered grasp and the inventive fire that made him famous — and endlessly controversial — and now welcome in a more tolerant homeland.

Stravinsky will conduct concerts in Moscow and Leningrad, near Oranienbaum, where he was born June 17, 1882.

Cranberry Crunch Squares

Here's a novel "sweet choice" to serve when you've asked folks to come for dessert and coffee. Or make this the grand finale for your family dinner. They're tart-sweet Cranberry Crunch Squares. Serve them warm from the oven if you like or serve chilled.

You're sure to describe this dessert as fun — fun to make and even more fun to serve. It's Cranberry Crunch Squares. Dessert fancies have so many spots in our dinner and entertaining plans that you'll want to try this recipe soon.

To give you more description of these Cranberry Crunch Squares, they have a crumb base and topping made with quick cooking oats, brown sugar, enriched flour, shredded coconut and salt. To this mixture 1/2 cup of lard is added.

The filling for the squares is a tart-sweet combination made up of canned cranberry sauce, orange juice and orange rind.

USES FOR LARD
Perhaps you've forgotten all the many uses for lard. Of course it was used in your grandmother's day for the finest of baked products. Today it is still used for making fine pie crusts, rolls, cookies, cakes and biscuits.

Even when used immediately after taking it from the refrigerator, lard is easily worked through the flour and other dry ingredients as you will see when you prepare this recipe.

Now for the Cranberry Crunch Squares. First prepare the crumb mixture. In a large bowl combine 1 cup of quick cooking oats; 1/2 cup of brown sugar, packed; 1/2 cup of sifted enriched flour; 1/2 cup of shredded coconut and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Next, cut the 1/2 cup of lard into these dry ingredients.

PREPARE FILLING
When well combined, place half the crumb mixture in an 8 by 8 by 2-inch greased baking dish. Next, prepare the filling. Combine one 16-ounce can of whole cranberry sauce with 1 tablespoon of orange juice and 2 teaspoons of orange rind.

Spread this mixture evenly over the crumb base. Then top with the remaining crumb mixture. Bake the Crunch Squares in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 30 to 35 minutes or until done.

While still warm, cut into 9 squares. You can serve this dessert either warm or cold.

1 can (16 ounces) whole cranberry sauce
1 tablespoon orange juice
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
Grease an 8 by 8 by 2-inch baking pan. Mix oats, sugar, flour, coconut and salt together. Cut lard into dry ingredients. Place half the crumb mixture in baking pan. Combine cranberry sauce, orange juice and rind. Spread evenly over crumb mixture. Top with remaining crumb mixture.

WILLS HAS ONE GAME TO BEAT COBB'S RECORD

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fleet Maury Wills chases an asterisk Friday that could be worth $50,000 or more.

Wills and his Los Angeles Dodgers teammates move into St. Louis for their 154th game of the season with Wills in hot pursuit of Ty Cobb's modern record of 96 stolen bases.

Wills, acclaimed as the greatest base runner of his era, swiped his 94th in the Dodgers' 4-0 victory over Milwaukee Wednesday.

Los Angeles, leading the National League race, is idle today.

"Sure, I'm thinking about it," Wills said, "but I'm more interested in us clinching the pennant."

$50,000 INVOLVED

If Wills should crack the record in the 154 games, many observers feel the feat would be worth as much as $50,000 in off-season endorsements over and above what he may get if he goes to 162 games to break it.

And the odds are against the swift shortstop. He has to get two to tie and three to break the mark Friday on bruised and battered legs and a painful ankle.

"Yes, it hurts to run," he said Wednesday of an ailing ankle. "It hurts so much I have to loosen up pretty good before a game, either running by myself or with the pitchers in the outfield."

SAME RULING

Wills faces the same ruling that applied to Roger Maris last season when he sought Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs.

The problem involves the expanded schedules. Ruth and Cobb set their records in a 154 game schedule. With both the National and American Leagues expanded to 162 games, clubs now play 162 games.

The ruling, by baseball commissioner Ford Frick, is that the record must be broken in 154 team decisions or go into the record book with an asterisk, indicating that it was broken in a 162-game schedule.

NEW SKI RESORT

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP) — Plans for development of a new ski resort were announced Wednesday night.

President Edward M. Petsonk of the Blue Knob Development Corp., Altoona, said the skiing area will be located on a 600-acre tract near Blue Knob State Park in northwestern Bedford County.

He said work will begin this winter on a beginners' slope, but it will not be open to the public.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the great pleasures of middle age is the discovery that your memory is slipping.

From then on you can make your life even more enjoyable if you pretend it has slipped even further than it has, just as elderly people often pretend they are harder of hearing than they actually are.

Then you can remember only what you want to — just as old folks hear only what they choose to.

Loss of memory isn't so much a matter of physical aging in most men as it is a selective form of self-defense. It is affected by the kind of jobs they have, and how long they have been married.

FORGET SOME THING

In general it might be said that the more people there are who feel they have a right to tell you what to do, the earlier your memory begins to show signs of failing.

It is only by forgetting some of their insistent demands that you can remember to do some of the things you want to get done yourself. This is what is known as protective, or self-defensive, loss of memory.

Some people take an inordinate pride in their memories. They can remember all their past automobile licenses, and can recall the name and room number of every hotel they stayed in. What is worse, they like to show off this useless skill at cocktail parties after their second drink.

NUISANCE MEMORIES

Such parrot-type memories are more of a nuisance than a blessing, and hardly show intelligence of a very high order. They result in a mind stuffed with nonessential lumber that should bore one's self and certainly is bound to bore others.

Many middle-aged people worry at any sign of loss of memory. The truth is loss of memory is normal, healthy, and essential.

It begins at birth and continues inexorably until death.

Every day, probably every hour, awake or asleep, our crowded brains forget something they no longer need to keep — and if they didn't it is hard to see how we could go on living.

How impossible life would be to the average man if he remembered every wrong or foolish thing he had done in his long journey! Such a mountain of accumulated guilt and regret would break the stoutest back. He would have time only for remorse; none left for accomplishment.

FORGETS NAMES

The wise man of middle age feels a quiet sense of elation at the discovery his memory isn't quite what it used to be.

What if he no longer can work a problem in high school algebra? What if he does keep meeting people whose faces are familiar but whose names he can no longer recall? What if he did forget his wife's 49th birthday?

Maybe he no longer needs algebra, the names of those forgotten faces no longer are important to him, and his wife would rather he remembered their 25th wedding anniversary than her 49th birthday.

The part of wisdom in middle age is to remember what makes you feel better, and if anyone tries to remind you of anything else, simply to shake your head and say, "It must have slipped my mind. It's a shame the way my memory is going."

TO FURLOUGH 400

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Some 400 workers are to be furloughed at the Pennsylvania Railroad's Samuel Rea Shop here, effective Oct. 1.

J. L. Parker, manager of the heavy repair shop, said Wednesday the present level of business and uncertainties about the future are the cause of the furloughs.

About 400 men were furloughed from the shop in this Blair County community last July.

WINDS WORRY YANK CREW

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Steadily worsening weather conditions have cast a pall over the once-

bright America's Cup picture for the United States' Weatherly.

The best of seven series for the ancient, battered cup stood at 1-1 today as Weatherly went to the starting line against Australia's Gretel.

High winds and heavy seas had half mile victory in the opening challenging Aussies jubilant.

"If these conditions get worse, it could be awful bad," said Phillip Rhodes, Weatherly's designer, after the U.S. team went through a four-hour drill in winds up to 32 miles per hour.

Weatherly scored a resounding, half mile victory in the opening race in light winds last Saturday, causing many observers to predict a four-race sweep.

But Gretel came back to capture the second race on heavier seas Tuesday as Weatherly's crew had trouble tacking to windward and displayed slow spinaker work.

PORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Republican State Convention adopted a resolution Tuesday urging Sen. Barry Goldwater R-Ariz., to seek the presidency in 1964.

Home Economist Urges Women To Look For Good Bargains In Nutrition

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

Cost and nutritive value of protein foods are not always related. If nutrition was the only consideration, a homemaker could serve her family well-balanced meals at various costs.

To get the best value from the family food dollar you should look for bargains in nutrition. For example, an adult male needs 70 grams of protein and an adult woman needs 58 grams of protein each day.

What foods can they eat to supply a high share of these protein needs?

To provide MRS. TUNISON about one-third of his daily requirements of protein, an adult could eat one and a half cups cooked dry beans for four cents, two-thirds cup cottage cheese for 9 cents, or three large eggs for 15 cents. A serving of rib roast of beef, from a cut that provides two or three servings, will cost about 32 cents a serving, or 11 strips of bacon would cost 28 cents. Each food would provide about one-third of an adult's daily protein need.

GET BEST NUTRITION

Notice how much of each food is needed to provide the same amount of protein and how the cost of each food differs. Doing similar comparisons on cost and nutritive value of foods should help the homemaker get the best nutrition for her family food dollar.

Leather is important in 1962 fall and winter fashions for shoes, coats, belts, bags and gloves. Daytime shoes will be black with a one-color trim, brown or beige with green trim, yellow with scarlet trim, or similar color combinations. Evening pumps will feature two-color combinations, such as brown and green, or two texture combinations, such as suede and patent leather, or suede and polished leather. Shoe styles will have scalloped and uneven toplines. Toes will be snipped, rounder or pointed.

ALL-PURPOSE WEAR

Suede and smooth leather coats and jackets may be fitted to the figure or have a flared skirt. Ideal for all-purpose wear, leather coats and jackets are supple, warm and lightweight, and come in wide price range.

Leather shoulder bags are back in style. Choose a bag to harmonize with the rest of the costume.

Leather belts and ties may add beauty to leather or fabric coats and dresses. Belts are fashioned to be worn anywhere, from just under the bust to below the waist. Crushed leather belts are wide; patent, suede and grained leather belts are narrower than crushed leather belts. Soft suede ties should harmonize with the garment they accent.

Leather gloves will be worn in every length from the one-button daytime glove to the 16 or 20-button glove for formal wear. Textures in leather gloves vary from suede and smooth kid to calf and pig skin.

UNPAINTED FURNITURE

nishing dollar and still have attractive furnishings? Buy unpainted furniture and become a do-it-yourselfer. If you're not familiar with unpainted furniture and its possibilities, these facts may help you. There are many pieces of inexpensive unpainted furniture on the market such as bookcases, chests, high chairs, desks, vanity tables and wardrobes. But, before you buy a piece of unpainted furniture make sure it is strong enough to serve the purpose you need it for. For example, check to see that the drawers in a chest are all wood, not paperboard. Some unpainted furniture is already sanded. Even so, it's best to give a final sanding before you begin to finish it. Table, chest and dresser tops need a tough finish that will withstand everyday wear. You may wish to use one of the self-sticking plastic films that are available in solid colors, attractive wood or marble grains.

Or you may use plate glass on the top of furniture — and to add interest use a patterned paper or fabric or a print of your favorite painting under the glass. Black glass also makes an attractive surface. A good grade of varnish put on a painted or stained top surface can offer protection, and the surface needs only occasional waxing to keep it looking fresh. You may improve the appearance of some ready-made unpainted furniture by putting on different drawer pulls, hinges and other hardware or add casters and line drawers or shelves with attractive paper. Finishing unpainted furniture is an interesting hobby, and at the same time it helps you stretch your home furnishing dollar.

FAMILY DINNER

When cauliflower is in your market, try dressing it this way for extra savory flavor.

Veal Chops with Mushroom Gravy

Brown Rice

Parmesan Cauliflower

Green Salad French Bread

Fresh Fruit Beverage

PARMESAN CAULIFLOWER

1 medium head cauliflower

1 cup boiling water

¼ teaspoon salt

¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

2 tablespoons olive oil

Remove any large leaves and tough base from cauliflower; break or cut flowerets in cold water. Boil rapidly in a covered saucepan, with the boiling water and salt just until tender — about 8 minutes; drain. Arrange flowerets in a heated shallow serving dish; sprinkle with Parmesan.

Heat olive oil in saucepan and spoon over cheese. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

FAMILY SUPPER

Short on time? You can make this old-fashioned dessert just before serving.

Chilled Spinach and Cheese Soup

Sliced Meat Potato Salad

Whole Baby Tomatoes

Bread Tray

Blueberry Dumplings Beverage

BLUEBERRY DUMPLINGS

1 cup biscuit mix

½ cup milk

½ cup sugar

½ cup water

2 cups washed drained blueberries

1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Grated nutmeg

Stir together the biscuit mix and sugar; stir in milk with a fork. In a deep 8-inch skillet with a dome cover, stir the sugar and water together over low heat; add the blueberries and lemon rind and bring to a boil. Drop the biscuit dough, in 6 dumplings, over the blueberries. Cover tightly and simmer 15 to 20 minutes or until the dumplings are cooked through. Sprinkle dumplings with nutmeg. Allow to stand off heat for about 5 minutes and the blueberry sauce will thicken. Serve at once with cream. Makes 6 servings.

COMPANY DINNER

Bacon and sage flavor this good and different stuffing for roast chicken.

Roast Chicken with Bread Dressing

Chive Potatoes Green Peas

Salad Bowl Bread Tray

Fresh Cherry Pie Beverage

ROAST CHICKEN WITH BREAD DRESSING

1 fryer-roaster (about 3½ pounds ready-to-cook weight)

3 slices bacon

2 cups fine fresh bread crumbs with crusts removed

2 eggs (slightly beaten)

½ teaspoon salt

¼ teaspoon pepper

¼ teaspoon sage

Soft butter

Wash and clean and dry chicken. Cook bacon until crisp; mix crumbled bacon and bacon fat with bread crumbs, eggs, salt, pepper and sage. Stuff chicken with dressing; rub outside surface with butter. Roast on a rack in an open pan in a slow (325 degrees) oven about 1 hour and 45 minutes or until cooked through and browned. Turn chicken a few times or start basting down if necessary to give back a chance to get brown and crisp. Stuffing should be firm enough to slice. Make gravy from pan drippings.

Let's Look At The Record

CUBAN SEMANTICS
America Must Quit Playing With Words
Castro Has Unadmitted Capabilities

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

RUSSIAN WEAPONS in Cuba are purely defensive, we are assured by high authority. This is small comfort.

The thin line between offensive weapons and defensive weapons often pales into utter insignificance. Merely calling an airplane an interceptor type does not render it incapable of flying an offensive mission.

The presence of Russian jets in Cuba clearly indicates an offensive capability. Their flying time from a base near Havana to Cape Canaveral is a matter of minutes.

Emphasis is given to the thought that the build-up of Russian technicians is purely defensive, because they are installing ground to air anti-aircraft missile installations. One gets a mental picture of our early Nike type weapons.

But the same launching techniques for Nike type weapons can quickly be transitioned to larger missiles of far greater range. Furthermore, the question as to whether anti-aircraft artillery, or Nike type missiles are defensive or offensive, largely depends upon where they are located.

Such installations within range of the American naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, would clearly indicate offensive intentions.

CASTRO'S intention, since the day he gained power, has clearly been the exportation of Communist revolution to other Latin American nations.

But American military men and the State Department have lost little sleep over this know intention. They reason he has not had the capability.

It is an old military axiom that intentions without the capabilities are meaningless — until the opponent, perchance, comes into possession of the capabilities.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY clearly had this in mind when he confidently discounted Castro's offensive capability.

"Were it otherwise," he added, "the gravest issues would arise." This clearly suggests a defensive — offensive action would be taken by the United States to restrict Castro. But Castro himself is maintaining a sing-song, forensic marathon about the defense of Cuba.

With Russian military jets at his disposal, and rocket and missile type weapons within range of American targets, particularly at Guantanamo, what is to keep Castro from deciding upon a defensive — offensive action of his own? It could be a hit and run raid against Cape Canaveral, but most likely an attempt upon Guantanamo. Such action within such limited capabilities by Castro would be utter folly.

BUT MANY of the woes of the world have resulted from folly. In retrospect it is easy to say Japan's sneak attack on Pearl Harbor was the most foolish operation in the history of warfare. The bitter fact remains that the Japanese did not think so at the time. It took over three years of long, bitter warfare to convince them of the error that now all of them readily admit.

THE PRESENT PICTURE does not look good. Russian-equipped bases in Cuba are exceptionally well dispersed and situated for Russian intentions.

There is one near the extreme western tip. Four more bases are grouped within a 50-mile radius of Havana. A sixth base is near the coast between Matanzas and Cardenas.

Russian technicians are working on three other sites in the state of Santa Clara. Two are toward the north coast and north-west of the city of Santa Clara. Another is on the south coast between Cienfuegos and Casilda.

The tenth and last area of Russian military activity in Cuba is in the State of Oriente and within artillery, rocket and missile range of the Guantanamo base. The trends in Cuba are definitely in the direction of offensive intentions. Capabilities are being expanded in that direction.

THE REAL QUESTION is one of Russian intentions and these capability expansions. They are even more clearly defined.

Russia considers herself surrounded by American bases in NATO countries. There is also the American naval threat, the off shore, atomic submarines and carrier based airplanes.

In Cuba, Russia sees an opportunity to create a Communist base, whence American targets can be attacked with the same precision and accuracy the Americans now have in their Polaris missiles.

The Russian boast that they do not need such bases, because they can already hit any place with precision in America, is strictly for home consumption.

In the face of this growing threat, it would best serve American interests to quit playing with such words as offensive, defensive, intentions and capabilities. These nebulousities do not deny the fact that the Cuban problem is getting worse.

A defensive, nonbelligerent blockade, accompanied by food for areas revolting against Castro, should be announced and imple-

MISHAP OPENS DOOR TO JOB IN MODELING

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A tragic auto accident badly disfigured the face of a young Methodist minister's wife and strangely opened the door for her to a new career in modeling and beauty therapy.

Rev. J. Bond Johnson, his wife Ruth, and their three children were on their way to Texas for the Christmas holidays three years ago when the accident happened.

Although the others escaped serious injury, Mrs. Johnson left the hospital many months later with scars that were "very demoralizing," as she puts it.

LEARNS SECRET
A sympathetic friend of the family, however, arranged for Mrs. Johnson to consult with William Tuttle, head of a Hollywood makeup department. He taught her his trade secrets which would camouflage her scars.

Intrigued with the process, the tall, slender daughter of a Methodist minister enrolled in a modeling school to learn more. Mrs. Johnson had not intended to make modeling a career. However she was soon in demand by fashion photographers. Resulting photo assignments took her as far away as Japan.

Then Mrs. Johnson took a teaching position in a modeling school that specializes in makeup techniques. There a psychiatrist asked her to help him renew a depressed divorcee's interest in life. She had become overweight and careless in her appearance.

WAS A SUCCESS
Mrs. Johnson showed the unhappy woman how to improve her makeup, choose clothes to hide her figure faults, wear her hair more flatteringly, and induced her to replace horn rim glasses with contact lenses.

The transformation was successful. As a result Mrs. Johnson was called upon by other psychiatrists and psychologists for help. Soon she was forced to give up teaching modeling to devote more time to beauty therapy.

OTHER DUTIES

Nation's Meat Industry Is World's Biggest Food Business At $16 Billion

By MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

The nation's meat industry is the largest food business in the world. Americans spent $16 billion for beef, pork, veal and lamb in 1961. That's about one-fourth of all money spent for food during the year, and averages about $277 for each family.

Despite rising costs, meat is still a good buy. In the early 1920's, the annual meat bill amounted to about $34 for each person and bought 134 pounds of meat. By 1961, the meat bill, at about $90 for each person, was almost three times as high, and bought 161 pounds of meat.

MRS. TUNISON

Even more important to the family budget is that only 4.5 per cent of the take-home pay was needed to buy meat in 1961. Forty years ago the meat bill required 6.7 per cent of the take-home pay.

The percentage of income spent on meat declined because incomes are higher than they were four decades ago. Also, today's farmer can raise more hogs, beef cattle, and sheep with considerably less time and labor. Better farm management, greater use of machinery, and improved foods help the farmer to produce more meat for consumers at a reasonable price.

VITAMIN C CONTENT

Orange juice and orange drink differ greatly in their vitamin C content. The homemaker who confuses orange drink with orange juice may not be providing enough vitamin C for her family's dietary needs.

Five ounces of pure orange juice — fresh, canned or frozen — will give family members the vitamin C recommended for the day. Orange drink, however, is orange juice diluted with water, and contains less vitamin C than pure orange juice. Orange drink should cost one third as much as orange juice to be an equally good buy.

Vitamin C acts as a cementing agent between cells of the body, helps in repairing wounds and burns, and aids in building and repairing bones, tissues and teeth. The body can't store this important vitamin so each person needs a food rich in vitamin C every day.

HOME FREEZERS

Convenience of a home food freezer is easily recognized, but its economy is not so readily demonstrated. It costs about $100 to own and operate a home freezer. This cost includes such items as depreciation, interest on the investment, repairs and electricity. A freezer that is only half full or is not opened for food several times during the week is not paying its way.

If a freezer holds 400 pounds and is filled only once a year, it costs 25 cents a pound to store food, over and above the original cost of the food and the $100 operating cost. The cost of owning a freezer is spread over more food and is only 10 cents a pound if a family eats 1,000 pounds of food from the freezer during the year.

Home freezers, like budgets, must be managed if they are used to save money. It's possible to save money with a freezer. If a family freezes produce in season, it may be able to provide almost all the fruit and vegetable needs for only a few cents a pound.

Taking advantage of specials may save money. For example, it may be wise for a family to stock up on favorite meat cuts when offered at special prices rather than buy a half carcass, pay to have it cut and wrapped, then pay storage on some cuts the family doesn't like.

TO VISIT SON BEHIND BARS IN RED CHINA

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Ruth Redmond, 64, got permission from Red China on Wednesday to make another visit to her son who has been behind Communist bars since the Korean War.

She immediately made plans for the trip, and said she expected to reach Communist Chinese soil Oct. 1. She said she would try to see Chinese officials to renew her pleas for release of her son, Hugh F. Redmond Jr.

Redmond, 43, a businessman, is one of four American prisoners known to be in Red China. He is serving a life term in a Shanghai prison on unspecified Communist charges of espionage.

OTHERS THERE TOO

Mrs. Redmond is scheduled to leave New York by plane Oct. 13 and reach Hong Kong two days later via San Francisco, Honolulu and Tokyo. She last visited her son in 1958.

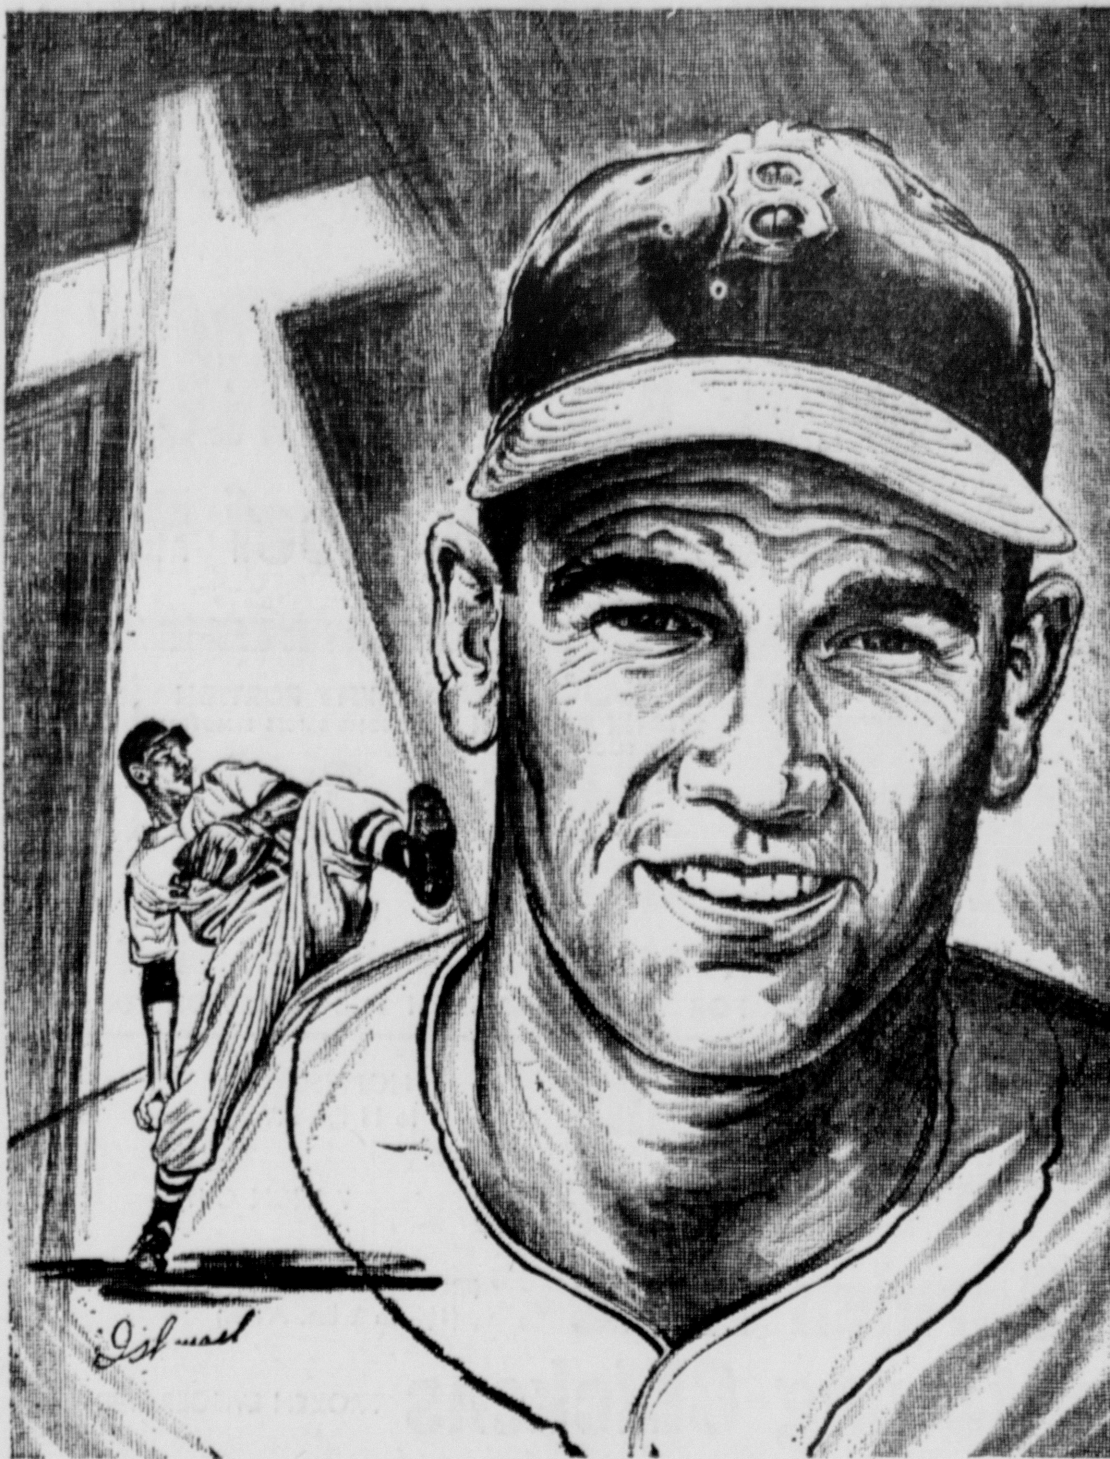

Also imprisoned by Red China are John T. Downey of New Britain, Conn., and Richard Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., Army civilian employees jailed in Peiping on espionage charges similar to those against Redmond. Last Christmas was their 10th in jail.

Roman Catholic Bishop James E. Walsh of Cumberland, Md., was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment four years ago. He is past 70.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

Before his first major league game, baseball's Dave "Boo" Ferris paused in the locker room to ask God for strength and courage.

He went on to become a pitching great with the Boston Red Sox, but in 1949, after five years, a shoulder injury threatened to end his pitching career. His prayers seemed unanswered.

"I grew more and more discouraged," he said. "Little by little, though, I began to see that God had other gifts to give."

Back in the minor leagues he was given a chance to coach, and in a few years he returned to the Red Sox as a pitching coach. He says:

"I'd learned the meaning of the verse: 'All things work together for good to them that love God...' (Romans 8:28). I learned that God always answers, even when we don't know exactly what to pray for."

HAVANA AND MOSCOW GIVEN U.S. WARNING

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Senate committees warned "the rulers of Havana and Moscow" today the United States will not tolerate a military force in Cuba capable of endangering U.S. security.

Such a threat "could have the gravest possible consequences," and the United States "will not flinch from these consequences," declared the armed forces and foreign relations committees.

The warning was contained in a report to the Senate which votes today on a Cuban policy resolution drafted by the committees.

The report carried unanimous, bipartisan endorsement of the group's 33 members.

The resolution declares the United States will use force if necessary to resist the advance of communism in this hemisphere.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee meets this morning to go over final language of a similar resolution before submitting it to the House for a vote.

The resolution — triggered by congressional concern over the military buildup of Cuba — is expected to be approved today by both houses. It then will go to President Kennedy for his signature.

"WILL NOT TOLERATE"

The resolution, said the Senate report, will make clear "the essential unity of purpose, not only of the Congress, but of the President and the American people as well."

The report said "existing military capabilities in Cuba do not endanger the security of the United States" and the resolution is designed to "make sure they do not in the future."

The compact, already adopted by the legislatures of the two states, provides for establishing the new authority and empowers it to construct crossings and transportation and terminal facilities.

BUS CRASHES TRUCK, 38 HURT

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A bus-truck collision on the fog-shrouded Ohio Turnpike early today resulted in injuries to 38 persons.

Thirteen of the injured were hospitalized but none was reported in serious condition in two different hospitals.

Summit County sheriff's deputies said a Continental Trailways bus with 45 aboard rammed into the rear of a van-type truck on the toll road about two miles east of Hudson.

Both vehicles were westbound and rolled off the road and down an embankment. The bus remained upright but the truck turned over in a field.

Deputies said the bus, enroute from Pittsburgh to Chicago, carried several recently discharged servicemen. Thirty-eight persons on the bus were injured, including the driver, George Wheeler, 28, of Pittsburgh, and George Nelson, 20, Harrisburg, Pa. The truck driver, Lee Plyler, 50, of Custards, Pa., was treated for minor injuries and released.

CROWN PRINCE TAKES THRONE

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Crown Prince Saif al Islam Mohammad al-Badr, a modern-minded liberal, took over the ancient throne of Yemen today following the reported death of his despotic father, one of the world's last feudal monarchs.

A broadcast from Yemen's remote capital of San'a said Badr, 35, was proclaimed successor to Imam Ahmed Bin Yehya, 71, perennial target of assassins. The Imam was said to have died from natural causes hastened by old wounds.

The new monarch, who will rule as al Mansoor Billah (The Victorious by Allah's Will) but is known to all as Badr, announced respect for the United Nations and Arab League charters and "friendly and mutual cooperation with all."

But Badr, whose liberal ideas clashed with his iron-fisted father, has been notably cool to the West, particularly Britain for its role as protector of the neighboring Aden territories. Yemen claims part of the territories and has clashed with British forces along the southern Yemeni border.

Badr has visited the Soviet Union and Red China in recent years and draws support from the Communist states. Both maintain missions in Yemen and direct about two thirds of the primitive monarchy's development projects.

ROCKEFELLER HEADS TICKET IN NEW YORK

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Confident Republicans marched into the state election campaign today under the banner of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to seek a "smashing victory" that would enhance his presidential prospects.

Amid some shouts of "Rocky for president," the governor was nominated by acclamation for a second four-year term Wednesday night at a quiet and orderly state convention that came alive only in the closing session.

The Republican ticket boasts four incumbents, all experienced campaigners, including U.S. Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

BOOST FOR DEMOCRATS

To challenge them, the Democrats earlier this week hammered out a slate headed by two political newcomers, former federal prosecutor Robert M. Morgenthau, the gubernatorial nominee, and prisoner-exchange lawyer James B. Donovan, who will oppose Javits.

The Democrats, who face an uphill fight in the 48 days before the election, received a boost Wednesday night when the Liberal party, which exists only in this state and is centered in New York City, endorsed Morgenthau and his running mates.

The endorsement was expected and traditional.

PROMISES FIGHT

Another hopeful note for the underdog Democrats was sounded by David H. Jacquith, gubernatorial nominee of the state's fledgling Conservative party, who said the splinter group had obtained enough petition signatures to assure it of a place on the ballot.

The Conservative party was created to fight what its adherents consider to be the too-liberal views of Rockefeller and Javits.

Rockefeller, in his acceptance speech to jubilant Republicans, proclaimed "the most fervent and fighting campaign New York State has ever seen" against a Democratic Party "morally divided against itself" from its occasionally turbulent state convention in Syracuse.

RUNNING MATES

To run with Rockefeller and Javits, the GOP chose by acclamation Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson and Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz to seek re-election and John P. Lomenzo of Rochester, a former county judge, as candidate for comptroller.

Rockefeller, who knows he must make a good showing to remain in the national picture, called for a "smashing victory" at the polls.

Three Conductors To Direct Symphony

NEW YORK (AP)—Three associate conductors were appointed Wednesday for the American Symphony Orchestra, organized by Leopold Stokowski and preparing for its premiere season.

The new orchestra will make its debut Oct. 15 at Carnegie hall. Jose Serebrier, a Uruguayan who formerly directed the Utica Symphony Orchestra and is now conductor of the symphony orchestra at Swarthmore College in Pennsylvania; Warner Bass, who has conducted in Germany, Canada, the United States and South Africa; and David Katz, founder and music director of the Queens Symphony Orchestra.

ROME (AP)—Even the Romans are having trouble with Latin. Debate raged Wednesday in the Senate over whether to continue Latin as compulsory in the middle grades.

The school system branches into two parts in the middle grades. One leads to higher education and includes Latin. The other prepares for technical labor with no further education after eighth grade. It omits Latin.

Italian Communists want Latin dropped.

Another hopeful note for the underdog Democrats was sounded by David H. Jacquith, gubernatorial nominee of the state's fledgling Conservative party who said the splinter group had obtained enough petition signatures to assure it of a place on the ballot.

The Conservative party was created to fight what its adherents consider to be the too-liberal views of Rockefeller and Javits.

Rockefeller in his acceptance speech to jubilant Republicans proclaimed "the most fervent and fighting campaign New York State has ever seen" against a Democratic Party "morally divided against itself" from its occasionally turbulent state convention in Syracuse.

RUNNING MATES

To run with Rockefeller and Javits, the GOP chose by acclamation Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson and Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz to seek re-election and John P. Lomenzo of Rochester, a former county judge, as candidate for comptroller.

Rockefeller, who knows he must make a good showing to remain in the national picture called for a "smashing victory" at the polls.

Three Conductors To Direct Symphony

NEW YORK (AP) — Three associate conductors were appointed Wednesday for the American Symphony Orchestra, organized by Leopold Stokowski and preparing for its premiere season.

The new orchestra will make its debut Oct. 15 at Carnegie hall.

Jose Serebrier, a Uruguayan who formerly directed the Ubea Symphony Orchestra and is now conductor of the symphony orchestra at Swarthmore College in Pennsylvania; Warner Bass, who has conducted in Germany, Canada, the United States and South Africa; and David Katz, founder and music director of the Queens Symphony Orchestra.

ROME (AP) — Even the Romans are having trouble with Latin.

Debate raged Wednesday in the Senate over whether to continue Latin as compulsory in the middle grades.

The school system branches into two parts in the middle grades. One leads to higher education and includes Latin. The other prepares for technical labor with no further education after eighth grade. It omits Latin.

Italian Communists want Latin dropped.

Home Economist Urges Women To Look For Good Bargains In Nutrition

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

Cost and nutritive value of protein foods are not always related. If nutrition was the only consideration, a homemaker could serve her family well-balanced meals at various costs.

To get the best value from the family food dollar you should look for bargains in nutrition. For example, an adult male needs 70 grams of protein and an adult woman needs 58 grams of protein each day. What foods can they eat to supply a high share of these protein needs?

To provide about one-third of his daily requirements of protein, an adult could eat one and a half cups cooked dry beans for four cents, two-thirds cup cottage cheese for 9 cents, or three large eggs for 15 cents. A serving of rib roast of beef, from a cut that provides two or three servings, will cost about 32 cents a serving, or 11 strips of bacon would cost 28 cents. Each food would provide about one-third of an adult's daily protein need.

GET BEST NUTRITION

Notice how much of each food is needed to provide the same amount of protein and how the cost of each food differs. Doing similar comparisons on cost and nutritive value of foods should help the homemaker get the best nutrition for her family food dollar.

Lether is important in 1962 fall and winter fashions for shoes, coats, belts, bags and gloves. Daytime shoes will be black with a one-color trim, brown or beige with green trim, yellow with scarlet trim, or similar color combinations. Evening pumps will feature two-color combinations, such as brown and green, or two texture combinations, such as suede and patent leather, or suede and polished leather. Shoe styles will have scalloped and uneven toplines. Toes will be snipped, rounder or pointed.

ALL-PURPOSE WEAR

Suede and smooth leather coats and jackets may be fitted to the figure or have a flared skirt. Ideal for all-purpose wear, leather coats and jackets are supple, warm and lightweight, and come in wide price range.

Lather shoulder bags are back in style. Choose a bag to harmonize with the rest of the costume.

Leather belts and ties may add beauty to leather or fabric coats and dresses. Belts are fashioned to be worn anywhere, from just under the bust to below the waist. Crushed leather belts are wide; patent, suede and grained leather belts are narrower than crushed leather belts. Soft suede ties should harmonize with the garment they accent.

Leather gloves will be worn in every length from the one-button daytime glove to the 16 or 20-button glove for formal wear. Textures in leather gloves vary from suede and smooth kid to calf and pig skin.

UNPAINTED FURNITURE

nishing dollar and still have attractive furnishings? Buy unpainted furniture and become a do-it-yourselfer. If you're not familiar with unpainted furniture and its possibilities, these facts may help you. There are many pieces of inexpensive unpainted furniture on the market such as bookcases, chests, high chairs, desks, vanity tables and wardrobes. But, before you buy a piece of unpainted furniture make sure it is strong enough to serve the purpose you need it for. For example, check to see that the drawers in a chest are all wood, not paperboard. Some unpainted furniture is already sanded. Even so, it's best to give a final sanding before you begin to finish it. Table, chest and dresser tops need a tough finish that will withstand everyday wear. You may wish to use one of the self-sticking plastic films that are available in solid colors, attractive wood or marble grains.

Or you may use plate glass on the top of furniture — and to add interest use a patterned paper or fabric or a print of your favorite painting under the glass. Black glass also makes an attractive surface. A good grade of varnish put on a painted or stained top surface can offer protection, and the surface needs only occasional waxing to keep it looking fresh. You may improve the appearance of some readymade unpainted furniture by putting on different drawer pulls, hinges and other hardware or add casters and line drawers or shelves with attractive paper. Finishing unpainted furniture is an interesting hobby, and at the same time it helps you stretch your home furnishing dollar.

COOKING IS FUN

FAMILY DINNER

When cauliflower is in your market, try dressing it this way for extra savory flavor.

Veal Chops with Mushroom Gravy

Brown Rice

Parmesan Cauliflower

Green Salad French Bread

Fresh Fruit Beverage

PARMESAN CAULIFLOWER

1 medium head cauliflower

1 cup boiling water

1/4 teaspoon salt

1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese

2 tablespoons olive oil

Remove any large leaves and tough base from cauliflower; break or cut flowerets from center core; wash thoroughly in cold water. Boil rapidly, in a covered saucepan, with the boiling water and salt until tender — about 8 minutes; drain. Arrange flowerets in a heated shallow serving dish; sprinkle with Parmesan. Heat olive oil in saucepan and spoon over cheese. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

FAMILY SUPPER

Short on time? You can make this old-fashioned dessert just before serving.

Sliced Meat Potato Salad

Bread Tray

Blueberry Dumplings Beverage

BLUEBERRY DUMPLINGS

1 cup biscuit mix

1 1/2 tablespoons sugar

1/2 cup milk

1/2 cup sugar

1/2 cup water

2 cups washed drained blueberries

1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

Grated nutmeg

Stir together the biscuit mix and sugar; stir in milk with a fork. In a deep 8-inch skillet with a dome cover, stir the sugar and water together over low heat; add the blueberries and lemon rind and bring to a boil. Drop the biscuit dough, in 6 dumplings, over the blueberries. Cover tightly and simmer 15 to 20 minutes or until the dumplings are cooked through. Sprinkle dumplings with nutmeg. Allow to stand off heat for about 5 minutes and the blueberry sauce will thicken. Serve at once with cream. Makes 6 servings.

COMPANY DINNER

Bacon and sage flavor this good and different stuffing for roast chicken.

Roast Chicken with Bread Dressing

Chive Potatoes Green Peas

Salad Bowl Bread Tray

Fresh Cherry Pie Beverage

ROAST CHICKEN WITH BREAD DRESSING

1 fryer-roaster (about 3 1/2 pounds ready-to-cook weight)

3 slices bacon

2 cups fine fresh bread crumbs with crusts removed

2 eggs (slightly beaten)

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper

3/4 teaspoon sage

Soft butter

Wash and clean and dry chicken. Cook bacon until crisp; mix crumbled bacon and bacon fat with bread crumbs, eggs, salt, pepper and sage. Stuff chicken with dressing; rub outside surface with butter. Roast on a rack in an open pan in a slow (325 degrees) oven about 1 hour and 45 minutes or until cooked through and browned. Turn chicken a few times or start baste down if necessary to give back a chance to get brown and crisp. Stuffing should be firm enough to slice. Make gravy from pan drippings.

Let's Look At The Record

CUBAN SEMANTICS
America Must Quit Playing With Words
Castro Has Unadmitted Capabilities

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

RUSSIAN WEAPONS in Cuba are purely defensive, we are assured by high authority. This is small comfort.

The thin line between offensive weapons and defensive weapons often pales into utter insignificance. Merely calling an airplane an interceptor type does not render it incapable of flying an offensive mission.

The presence of Russian jets in Cuba clearly indicates an offensive capability. Their flying time from a base near Havana to Cape Canaveral is a matter of minutes.

Emphasis is given to the thought that the build-up of Russian technicians is purely defensive, because they are installing ground to air anti-aircraft missile installations. One gets a mental picture of our early Nike type weapons.

But the same launching techniques for Nike type weapons can quickly be transitioned to larger missiles of far greater range. Furthermore, the question as to whether anti-aircraft artillery, or Nike type missiles are defensive or offensive, largely depends upon where they are located.

Such installations within range of the American naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, would clearly indicate offensive intentions.

CASTRO'S intention, since the day he gained power, has clearly been the exportation of Communist revolution to other Latin American nations.

But American military men and the State Department have lost little sleep over this know intention. They reason he has not had the capability.

It is an old military axiom that intentions without the capabilities are meaningless — until the opponent, perchance, comes into possession of the capabilities.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY clearly had this in mind when he confidently discounted Castro's offensive capability.

"Were it otherwise," he added, "the gravest issues would arise."

This clearly suggests a defensive — offensive action would be taken by the United States to restrict Castro. But Castro himself is maintaining a sing-song, forensic marathon about the defense of Cuba.

With Russian military jets at his disposal, and rocket and missile type weapons within range of American targets, particularly at Guantanamo, what is to keep Castro from deciding upon a defensive — offensive action of his own? It could be a hit and run raid against Cape Canaveral, but most likely an attempt upon Guantanamo. Such action within such limited capabilities by Castro would be utter folly.

BUT MANY of the woes of the world have resulted from folly. In retrospect it is easy to say Japan's sneak attack on Pearl Harbor was the most foolish operation in the history of warfare. The bitter fact remains that the Japanese did not think so at the time. It took over three years of long, bitter warfare to convince them of the error that now all of them readily admit.

THE PRESENT PICTURE does not look good. Russian-equipped bases in Cuba are exceptionally well dispersed and situated for Russian intentions.

There is one near the extreme western tip. Four more bases are grouped within a 50-mile radius of Havana. A sixth base is near the coast between Matanzas and Cardenas.

Russian technicians are working on three other sites in the state of Santa Clara. Two are toward the north coast and northwest of the city of Santa Clara. Another is on the south coast between Cienfuegos and Casilda.

The tenth and last area of Russian military activity in Cuba is in the State of Oriente and with in artillery, rocket and missile range of the Guantanamo base. The trends in Cuba are definitely in the direction of offensive intentions. Capabilities are being expanded in that direction.

THE REAL QUESTION is one of Russian intentions and these capability expansions. They are even more clearly defined.

Russia considers herself surrounded by American bases in NATO countries. There is also the American naval threat, the off shore, atomic submarines and carrier based airplanes.

In Cuba, Russia sees an opportunity to create a Communist base, whence American targets can be attacked with the same precision and accuracy the Americans now have in their Polaris missiles.

The Russian boast that they do not need such bases, because they can already hit any place with precision in America, is strictly for home consumption.

In the face of this growing threat, it would best serve American interests to quit playing with such words as offensive, defensive, intentions and capabilities. These nebulosities do not deny the fact that the Cuban problem is getting worse.

A defensive, nonbelligerent blockade, accompanied by food for areas revolting against Castro, should be announced and imple-

MISHAP OPENS DOOR TO JOB IN MODELING

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A tragic auto accident badly disfigured the face of a young Methodist minister's wife and strangely opened the door for her to a new career in modeling and beauty therapy.

Rev. J. Bond Johnson, his wife Ruth, and their three children were on their way to Texas for the Christmas holidays three years ago when the accident happened.

Although the others escaped serious injury, Mrs. Johnson left the hospital many months later with scars that were "very demoralizing," as she puts it.

LEARNS SECRET
A sympathetic friend of the family, however, arranged for Mrs. Johnson to consult with William Tuttle, head of a Hollywood makeup department. He taught her his trade secrets which would camouflage her scars.

Intrigued with the process, the tall, slender daughter of a Methodist minister enrolled in a modeling school to learn more. Mrs. Johnson had not intended to make modeling a career. However she was soon in demand by fashion photographers. Resulting photo assignments took her as far away as Japan.

Then Mrs. Johnson took a teaching position in a modeling school that specializes in makeup techniques. There a psychiatrist asked her to help him renew a depressed divorcee's interest in life. She had become overweight and careless in her appearance.

WAS A SUCCESS
Mrs. Johnson showed the unhappy woman how to improve her makeup, choose clothes to hide her figure faults, wear her hair more flatteringly, and induced her to replace horn rim glasses with contact lenses.

The transformation was successful. As a result Mrs. Johnson was called upon by other psychiatrists and psychologists for help. Soon she was forced to give up teaching modeling to devote more time to beauty therapy.

OTHER DUTIES
She still accepts fashion show and photo modeling assignments. And she continues her musical studies. She is a soprano soloist and a regular member of the Roger Wagner Choral.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Trostle has returned to their home in Washington, D. C., after visiting with relatives.

The Bermudian Springs Band Parents held their first meeting of this school year on Monday night with the president, Joel Zepp, presiding. There were 21 members present. The next meeting will be held November 19. Some of the members of the band will provide entertainment. The program committee consists of Mrs. Paul Lerew, chairman, East Berlin; Mrs. William Wenger, East Berlin; Mrs. Ray Reinacker and Mrs. Kenneth Hankey, York Springs. They served refreshments after the meeting had adjourned.

Carl Hikes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hikes, is a student at Carnegie Institute of Technology at Pittsburgh. His address is Box 780, 103 McGill Hall, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

Miss Martha Hikes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hikes, has enrolled as a Freshman at Shippensburg State College. Her address is Box 146, Horton Hall, Shippensburg, Pa.

Mrs. Ann Marte, Philadelphia, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Calvin Leer, and other relatives.

Robert Weigle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Weigle, left Sunday morning for Anderson College, Anderson, Ind. He accompanied Mrs. Louella Starry to Anderson as she was en route to visit her daughter, Mrs. William Taylor, and family at Evansville, Ind. Miss Sandra Weigle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Weigle, is enrolled as a Freshman at Shippensburg State College.

The Latimore WCTU will hold its September meeting on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ruth Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Grove, Shiremanstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean McCauslin, Wexville, visited their mother, Mrs. Ruth Grove, on Sunday.

These go-togethers make classic fare. Have you served them lately? Steak and fried onions; roast beef and popovers (individual Yorkshire puddings); boiled beef with horseradish sauce; corned beef and green cabbage with mustard sauce; boiled smoked tongue with raisin sauce.

FOREIGN TRADE BILL PLEASES MR. KENNEDY

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has hailed Senate passage of the foreign trade bill which gives him revolutionary powers to slash or eliminate tariffs.

By a 78-5 vote Wednesday, the Senate approved the measure that would open the way to an economic partnership with the booming European Common Market.

The House passed a similar version earlier. House and Senate conferees must reconcile the differences and work out a final version of the legislation.

This is not expected to be a difficult task since both versions contain the major powers the President requested.

BIGGEST VICTORY

The Senate vote on the measure—which heads Kennedy's legislative priority list—gave the administration its biggest victory so far in Congress.

Kennedy, described by an aide as elated, congratulated the Senate for its "significant action."

"It is the strongest trade bill since the original legislation was passed . . . and the new legislation gives us the opportunity to develop closer and more harmonious trade relations with the common market and other nations throughout the world," he said.

Both advocates and opponents agreed that the trade expansion bill is the most far-reaching trade legislation since the 1934 Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the nation's basic tariff law, was enacted.

PRIZE MEASURE

Republicans and Democrats joined in praising the measure. Opponents, mainly Republicans, denounced the bill as the greatest grant of power ever handed a chief executive in the trade field.

The bill would extend the reciprocal trade act to June 30, 1967—the longest extension ever provided.

At the heart of the bill is provision for the United States to work out economic agreements with the six-nation common market.

The President would be granted two broad categories of authority:

1. To cut tariffs by 50 per cent.
2. To negotiate the elimination of duties on items on which the United States and the common market account for 80 per cent of the world trade.

It also would provide for government relief to industries and workers harmed by foreign competition.

The President would have authority to raise tariffs or impose quotas against a nation or group of nations which puts unreasonable restrictions on U.S. products.

DEMOCRATS GET PLATFORM

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania Democrats were presented today by their platform writers with a "Program for Prosperity" as a start to the big opening of their fall gubernatorial campaign.

Education and industrial development were given the major emphasis in the program prepared by the 34-member Democratic State Platform Committee Wednesday night for consideration of the 113 members of the Democratic State Committee later today.

BUTTERFLIES IN TUMMY FACE HEAD COACHES

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The stomach twitches is more pronounced now, so is the heartbeat, and the eyes move quicker to catch each play. Little mistakes suddenly blossom into big ones, and good plays bring feelings of relief.

It can mean only one thing—the first game as a new head football coach is coming up on Saturday. At least a dozen men will trot out their new teams for the first time as the college football season has its first big day of action, and for some it will mean victory, while for others, it will mean back to the practice field for more polish, and maybe even a faint hope that things will be better in 1963.

SOME GOOD SQUADS

Men like Charley McClendon at Louisiana State, Jim Miller at Boston College, John Idzik at Detroit inherited teams with plenty of experience. But Hayden Fry at Southern Methodist, Paul Dietzel at Army, Charley Bradshaw at Kentucky, Hank Folsberg at Texas A&M and Bud Davis at Colorado all face the bleak prospects of maybe having that wait until 1963.

McClendon, who opposes Folsberg and his Aggies at home on drumbeating was to be climaxed tonight by the party's $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner, with President Kennedy as the featured speaker. His speech will be carried live over a statewide radio and television network (10 p.m.).

The dinner—at which the Democratic Finance Committee expects 10,000 or more of the party faithful to attend, raising in the neighborhood of $1 million for the campaign—will kick off, officially, the party's bid to retain the governorship and the senior U.S. senatorship from Pennsylvania on Nov. 6, as well as its effort to take over complete control of the state legislature.

The Platform Committee, at a two-hour session in a downtown hotel, produced a platform that pinpointed unemployment as the major problem confronting the candidates and offered Pennsylvania voters a choice, in the committee's view, between a party "with a clear vision of what the future can bring" and a "party that is obstructionist, complacent and satisfied with the status quo."

Stresses Personal Ties In Banking

BRETTON WOODS, N.H. (AP)

A Pennsylvania banker has told the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks he questions the ability of huge banking empires to benefit the public.

Reed Albig, president of the National Bank of McKeesport and immediate past president of the Independent Bankers Association, told the supervisors Wednesday at their national convention:

"In banking there is no clear demonstration of public benefits from widespread banking empires. I believe there is no business in which the personal relationship between the server and the person served is as important as it is in the banking business."

Huge system banks, Albig said, should not be permitted to absorb by merger "any and all banks, large and small, whom they can induce to join them."

Saturday night, may have only limited service from highly touted soph back Danny Le Blanc, and has had to make some switches in his No. 1 line because of an injury to tackle Fred Miller, but with halfback Jerry Stovall in top form, the Bayou Bengals, figured No. 5 in the pre-season Associated Press poll, are solid favorites.

TUTOR VS. TEACHER

Miller and Idzik, his assistant at Detroit a year ago, will oppose each other in their first game as head coaches. Miller inherited almost two complete teams of lettermen, but left Idzik with quarterback Jerry Gross, considered the nation's top passing quarterback a year ago.

Fry, who inherited an SMU team that had a 2-7-1 record under Bill Meek last year after a winless 1960 season, plays tough Maryland while Dietzel has transferred his three-team idea to Army, which is a two-touchdown favorite over weak Wake Forest. Bradshaw, instituting the same hard-nosed brand of coaching that spelled success for his old boss, Bear Bryant, had 19 players quit during spring drills, including the team's top halfback Darrell Cox, but Kentucky is still favored to win against Florida State, which opened its season with a victory over The Citadel last week.

Davis, whose Colorado team is an underdog against Utah, has been beset by eligibility problems and injuries this year in taking over the Big Eight champs from Sonny Grandelius, who was fired for alleged coaching irregularities.

JFK FIRED UP BY HOUSE CUT IN FOREIGN AID

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says a House committee's recommendation that nearly $1.4 billion be sliced from this year's foreign aid funds is an irresponsible action that "poses a threat to free world security."

He asked that the slashed funds be restored. House leaders, detecting sentiment for additional trimming of the $5,356,352,000 economic and military aid measure, may forego a salvage operation at this time for strategic purposes, Kennedy originally asked $7.3 billion.

The cut criticized Wednesday night by the President in a statement is the handiwork of the House Appropriations Committee. The stiff opposition to move to restore the money would face a summed up by Rep. Otto E. Passman's declaration that "Not one cent will be put back if I have anything to do with it."

The Louisiana Democrat, a persistent advocate of keeping foreign aid spending down, was chairman of the appropriations subcommittee that drafted the bill. He will be floor manager for the measure in House debate, beginning today. In his statement the President declared: "It makes no sense at all to make speeches against the spread of communism, to deplore instability in Latin America and Asia, to call for an increase in American prestige and an initiative in Eastern Europe—and then vote to cut back the Alliance for Progress, to hamper the Peace Corps, to repudiate our long-term commitments of last year and to undermine the efforts of those who are seeking to stave off chaos and communism in the most vital areas of the world."

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Soblen's body remained in the hands of the coroner today with no indication when it will be released for burial. An inquest into the Sept. 11 death of the fugitive spy has been adjourned until Oct. 4.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority Wednesday gave final approval for seven loans totaling $12 million and preliminary approval for nine loans of about $1 million.

YOUTH TAKES OVER AMATEUR GOLF TOURNEY

By KEN ALYTA

Associated Press Sports Writer
PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—The "kids" have taken over the 62nd U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Going into today's fifth and sixth rounds after two rounds Wednesday cut the field to 16, light-hearted Bill Joe Patton, Morganton, N.C., lumber broker, was the "old man" of the field at 40.

Bob Allen of West Hartford, Conn., 38-year-old sales engineer for a steel company, and 31-year-old Charlie Smith, Gastonia, N.C., automobile dealer, are the only other survivors over 25. Eight of the others are 24 or less and three still are in their teens. Nine are collegians.

NO EX-CHAMPS

So devastating has been the sweep of the young and hungry set that there's not a former champion around and only three men of the nine on the list being considered for the four-man U.S. team going to Japan next month for the World Championship Team matches. Patton, Smith and Arkansas Dick Sikes, 22-year-old winner of the last two Public Links titles make up the trio.

Such notables as former champions Dick Chapman, Harvie Ward and Deane Beman and Dr. Edgar Updegraff and Marion Methvin, semifinalist last year, went out during the third and fourth rounds Wednesday.

Beman was vanquished by Homero Blancas, 24, of the University of Houston, in a 24-hole marathon in the fourth round after each had breezed to victory in the morning.

SCHOOLBOY PLAYS

Blancas opened the fifth round today against the "baby" of the field, 18-year-old Dave Marad, Massachusetts schoolboy champion from Milton, who is going to sharpen his game this winter while serving as a bellboy on the staff of a nearby resort hotel.

Patton went up against John McKee Jr., 19, of Orlando, Fla., and Duke University, who won a pair of 1-up matches from Don Albert, a semifinalist nine years ago, and Dick Chapman, the 1940 champion.

The other four spots in the upper half of the draw all were filled by collegians. Labron Harris Jr., 20, of Oklahoma State, son of the professional golfer, met 22-year-old Sikes. The championship of Athens was at stake, among other things, when Bob Littler, 19, of Ohio University and Athens, Ohio, played Jim Gabrielson, 20, of the University of Georgia and Athens, Ga.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Los Angeles ace Don Drysdale credits an improved overhead delivery for helping him to become the major league's biggest winner, but Milwaukee Manager Birdie Tebbetts has another opinion.

"He stopped being a bully," Tebbetts said after Drysdale snapped Los Angeles' three-game losing streak by blanking the Braves 4-0 for his 25th victory Wednesday.

"I have no feelings about losing a game like this," Tebbetts said after Drysdale's five-hit, nine-strikeout effort. "He was great, just great. He's a completely different type of pitcher out there."

FIERY TEMPER

"He used to be a bully. Maybe he found out he couldn't bull his way through out there, I don't know. But suddenly he's become a heck of a pitcher. Now he's working at his trade instead of getting mad at something or someone."

Drysdale, a towering right-hander who had not won more than 17 games in any season since joining the Dodgers in 1956, was noted until this year for his fiery temper — and hit batsmen. However, he often has denied throwing intentionally at batters.

The 26-year-old right-hander let one ball get away from him in the Milwaukee windup and pinked Dennis Menke with two out in the fifth. It was only the ninth batter Drysdale has hit in 290 2-3 innings this year.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Navy thinks it will have a solid enough defense to stop the grinding power of Penn State's football lions and win Saturday's football opener between the two schools.

Coach Wayne Hardin ventured the prediction Wednesday, despite the fact Navy is a one-touchdown underdog and Penn State is expected to be the No. 1 power in the East.

"We are going into this game predominantly defense-minded," Hardin said. "We've got to stop that juggernaut and get the ball in order to score. We think we have a chance to beat them."

STRESSES DEFENSE

He said the emphasis on defense has been stronger for this opening game than in any of his four years as a coach here. "We know a lot more about Penn State this year than we did last year," Hardin said, referring to the 20-10 opener Navy lost to the Nittany Lions with a green team.

Both schools will field veteran teams. Navy has lettermen at every starting position except fullback, where sophomore Pat Donnelly earned the spot over two veterans, and left half where sophomore Steve Szabo will be alternating with the injured John Sal.

LEWIS' MURDER CASE MOVES ON

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)

The last of some 25 prosecution witnesses were to be called to testify today as the state moved to close its case against William Lewis, accused of murder in the death of a 14-year-old girl.

The 20-year-old AWOL Marine is charged in the death of Jean Volukonis, who, police say, was killed the night of last July 13 when she plunged from a cliff while fleeing Lewis' advances.

Dist. Atty. Stephen Teller of Luzerne County said at the outset of the jury trial Monday he would call 25 witnesses.

More than 20 have testified so far, among them William Shirk of West Nanticoke, who testified Wednesday about a party the night of the girl's death.

Shirk said the party was at the vacant home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kleintob in West Nanticoke. He said several boys and girls attended the beer drinking affair.

FOREIGN TRADE BILL PLEASES MR. KENNEDY

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has hailed Senate passage of the foreign trade bill which gives him revolutionary powers to slash or eliminate tariffs.

By a 78-3 vote Wednesday, the Senate approved the measure that would open the way to an economic partnership with the booming European Common Market.

The House passed a similar version earlier. House and Senate conferees must reconcile the differences and work out a final version of the legislation.

This is not expected to be a difficult task since both versions contain the major powers the President requested.

BIGGEST VICTORY

The Senate vote on the measure—which heads Kennedy's legislative priority list—gave the administration its biggest victory so far in Congress.

Kennedy, described by an aide as elated, congratulated the Senate for its "significant action."

"It is the strongest trade bill since the original legislation was passed . . . and the new legislation gives us the opportunity to develop closer and more harmonious trade relations with the common market and other nations throughout the world," he said.

Both advocates and opponents agreed that the trade expansion bill is the most far-reaching trade legislation since the 1934 Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the nation's basic tariff law, was enacted.

PRASE MEASURE

Republicans and Democrats joined in praising the measure.

Opponents, mainly Republicans, denounced the bill as the greatest grant of power ever handed a chief executive in the trade field.

The bill would extend the reciprocal trade act to June 30, 1967—the longest extension ever provided.

At the heart of the bill is provision for the United States to work out economic agreements with the six-nation common market.

The President would be granted two broad categories of authority:

1. To cut tariffs by 50 per cent.
2. To negotiate the elimination of duties on items on which the United States and the common market account for 80 per cent of the world trade.

It also would provide for government relief to industries and workers harmed by foreign competition.

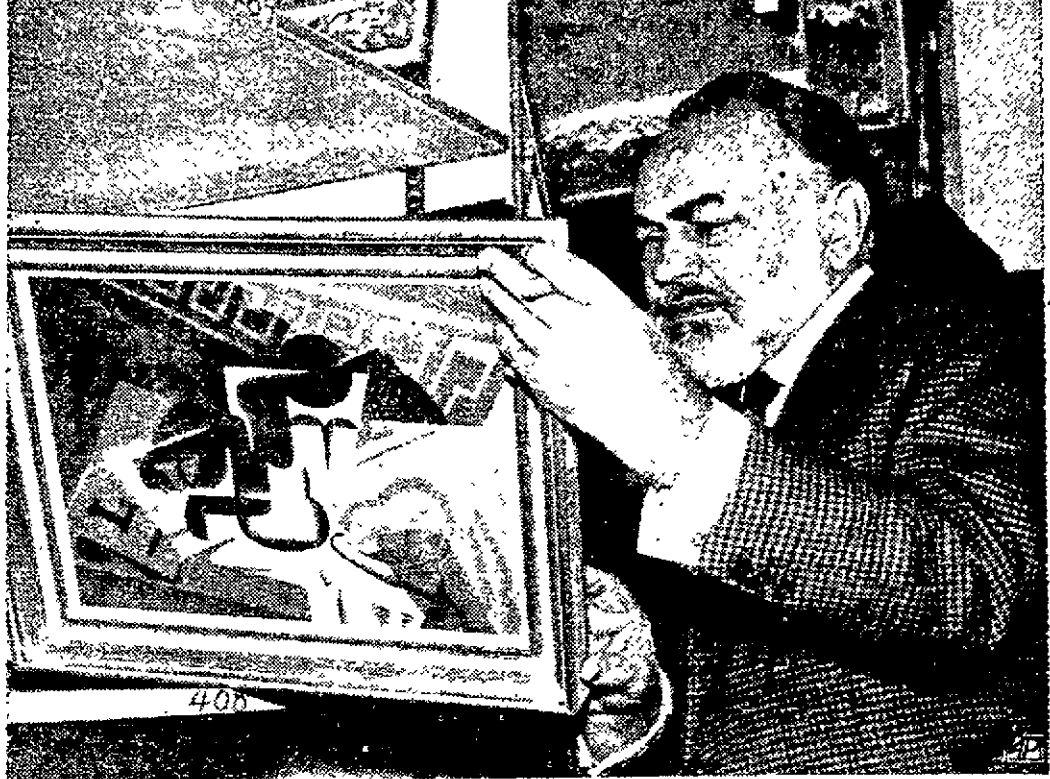

The President would have authority to raise tariffs or impose quotas against a nation or grouping of nations which puts unreasonable restrictions on U.S. products.

DEMOCRATS GET PLATFORM

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania Democrats were presented today by their platform writers with a "Program for Prosperity" as a start to the big opening of their fall gubernatorial campaign.

Education and industrial development were given the major emphasis in the program prepared by the 34-member Democratic State Platform Committee Wednesday night for consideration of the 113 members of the Democratic State Committee later today.

BUTTERFLIES IN TUMMY FACE HEAD COACHES

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The stomach twitch is more pronounced now, so is the heart-beat, and the eyes move quicker to catch each play. Little mistakes suddenly blossom into big ones, and good plays bring feelings of relief.

It can mean only one thing—the first game as a new head football coach is coming up on Saturday.

At least a dozen men will trot out their new teams for the first time as the college football season has its first big day of action, and for some it will mean victory, while for others, it will mean back to the practice field for more polish, and maybe even a faint hope that things will be better in 1963.

SOME GOOD SQUADS

Men like Charley McClendon at Louisiana State, Jim Miller at Boston College, John Idzik at Detroit inherited teams with plenty of experience. But Hayden Fry at Southern Methodist, Paul Dietzel at Army, Charley Bradshaw at Kentucky, Hank Foldsberg at Texas A&M and Bud Davis at Colorado all face the bleak prospects of maybe having that wait until 1963.

Stresses Personal Ties In Banking

BRETTON WOODS, N.H. (AP)—A Pennsylvania banker has told the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks he questions the ability of huge banking empires to benefit the public.

Reed Albig, president of the National Bank of McKeesport and immediate past president of the Independent Bankers Association, told the supervisors Wednesday at their national convention:

"In banking there is no clear demonstration of public benefits from widespread banking empires. I believe these are no business in which the personal relationship between the server and the person served is as important as it is in the banking business."

Huge system banks, Albig said, should not be permitted to absorb by merger "any and all banks, large and small, whom they can induce to join them."

Saturday night, may have only limited service from highly touted soph back Danny Le Blanc, and has had to make some switches in his No. 1 line because of an injury to tackle Fred Miller. But with halfback Jerry Stovall in top form, the Bayou Bengals, figured No. 5 in the pre-season Associated Press poll, are solid favorites.

TUTOR VS. TEACHER

Miller and Idzik, his assistant at Detroit a year ago, will oppose each other in their first game as head coaches. Miller inherited almost two complete teams of lettermen, but left Idzik with quarterback Jerry Gross, considered the nation's top passing quarterback a year ago.

Fry, which inherited an SMU team that had a 2-7 record under Bill Meek last year after a winless 1960 season, plays tough Maryland while Dietzel has transferred his three-team idea to Army, which is a two-touchdown favorite over weak Wake Forest.

Bradshaw, instituting the same hard-nosed brand of coaching that spelled success for his old boss, Bear Bryant, had 19 players quit during spring drills, including the team's top halfback Darrell Cox, but Kentucky is still favored to win against Florida State, which opened its season with a victory over The Citadel last week.

Davis, whose Colorado team is an underdog against Utah, has been beset by eligibility problems and injuries this year in taking over the Big Eight champs from Sonny Grandelius, who was fired for alleged coaching irregularities.

JFK FIRED UP BY HOUSE CUT IN FOREIGN AID

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says a House committee's recommendation that nearly $1.4 billion be sliced from this year's foreign aid funds is an irresponsible action that "poses a threat to free world security."

He asked that the slashed funds be restored.

House leaders, detecting sentiment for additional trimming of the $5,356,332,000 economic and military aid measure, may force a salvage operation at this time—for strategic purposes, Kennedy originally asked $7.3 billion.

OPPOSITION IS STIFF

The cut criticized Wednesday night by the President in a statement is the handiwork of the House Appropriations Committee. The stiff opposition a move to restore the money would face was summed up by Rep. Otto E. Passman's declaration that "Not one cent will be put back if I have anything to do with it."

The Louisiana Democrat, a persistent advocate of keeping foreign aid spending down, was chairman of the appropriations subcommittee that drafted the bill. He will be floor manager for the measure in House debate, beginning today.

In his statement the President declared: "It makes no sense at all to make speeches against the spread of communism, to deplore instability in Latin America and Asia, to call for an increase in American prestige and an initiative in Eastern Europe—and then vote to cut back the Alliance for Progress, to hamper the Peace Corps, to repudiate our long-term commitments of last year and to undermine the efforts of those who are seeking to stave off chaos and communism in the most vital areas of the world."

LONDON (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Soblen's body remained in the hands of the coroner today with no indication when it will be released for burial.

An inquest into the Sept. 11 death of the fugitive spy has been adjourned until Oct. 4.

YOUTH TAKES OVER AMATEUR GOLF TOURNEY

By KEN ALTYA
Associated Press Sports Writer

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—The "kids" have taken over the 62nd U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Going into today's fifth and sixth rounds after two rounds Wednesday cut the field to 16, light-hearted Bill Joe Patton, Morganton, N.C., lumber broker, was the "old man" of the field at 40.

Bob Allen of West Hartford, Conn., 38-year-old sales engineer for a steel company, and 31-year-old Charlie Smith, Gastonia, N.C., automobile dealer, are the only other survivors over 25. Eight of the others are 24 or less and three still are in their teens. Nine are collegians.

NO EX-CHAMPS

So devastating has been the sweep of the young and hungry set that there's not a former champion around and only three men of the nine on the list being considered for the four-man U.S. team going to Japan next month for the World Championship Team matches. Patton, Smith and Arkansas Dick Sikes, 22-year-old winner of the last two Public Links titles make up the trio.

Such notables as former champions Dick Chapman, Harvie Ward and Deane Beman and Dr. Edgar Updegraff and Marion Methvin, semifinalist last year, went out during the third and fourth rounds Wednesday.

Beman was vanquished by Homero Blancas, 24, of the University of Houston, in a 24-hole marathon in the fourth round after each had breezed to victory in the morning.

SCHOOLBOY PLAYS

Blancas opened the fifth round today against the "baby" of the field, 18-year-old Dave Marad, Massachusetts schoolboy champion from Milton, who is going to sharpen his game this winter while serving as a bellboy on the staff of a nearby resort hotel.

Patton went up against John McKey Jr., 19, of Orlando, Fla., and Duke University, who won a pair of 1-up matches from Don Albert, a semifinalist nine years ago, and Dick Chapman, the 1940 champion.

The other four spots in the upper half of the draw all were filled by collegians. Labron Harris Jr., 20, of Oklahoma State, son of the professional golfer, met 22-year-old Sikes. The championship of Athens was at stake, among other things, when Bob Litterer, 19, of Ohio University and Athens, Ohio, played Jim Gabrielson, 20, of the University of Georgia and Athens, Ga.

LONG-AWAITED PRESIDENTIAL HOUSING ORDER MAY BE NEAR

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The next big move in the civil rights field may be the long-promised presidential order outlawing discrimination in federally aided housing.

President Kennedy has delayed for 20 months, waiting for what he has called an appropriate time to sign it. A made-to-order occasion is coming right up.

It is Sept. 22, the 100th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation. Yet Washington isn't making any bets Kennedy will find that anniversary appropriate.

PRESSURES GROW

Lincoln signed two Emancipation Proclamations—a preliminary one of Sept. 22, 1862, and the final freeing of the slaves on Jan. 1, 1863.

So next New Year's Day also would be symbolic.

But Jan. 1 is months away, and the pressure on Kennedy grows daily. Some advisers are sure that the appropriate time, politically speaking, is before the Nov. 6 congressional elections.

These same advisers want Congress out of town before the order comes. They fear it will affront Southern members whose support is needed on major administration bills.

OPINIONS DIFFER

In terms of economic impact, the appropriate time might be even further away. Builders say the order would seriously curtail new construction activity. Housing officials believe the builders exaggerate.

For Negro and civil rights groups, growing ever more vocal and powerful, the appropriate time is long-passed. They have criticized the President for not acting.

Back in 1960, when Kennedy was a candidate, it must have looked easy. Kennedy scolded President Dwight D. Eisenhower for not acting. It could be done, Kennedy said, by "a stroke of the presidential pen."

HASN'T MADE GOOD

Making good on this campaign pledge has become one of Kennedy's most perplexing problems.

He decided the political difficulties were far outweighed by the issues of law, equity, and constitutionality. After all, Kennedy had asked Southern politicians when he promised the order. And the non-partisan Civil Rights Commission, created by Congress itself, has officially demanded it.

Still, the question remains: how far can Kennedy stretch his presidential power?

MANY QUESTIONS

Few have questioned his authority to enforce integration in public housing, where the federal cash is a direct subsidy. Not many challenge his power to bar discrimination by banks and loan companies in dwellings which are financed with Federal Housing Authority mortgage insurance or Veterans Administration loan guarantees.

Less clear are situations in

Once Penniless Man Gives $2 Million To University

By ANDREW MEISELS
NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur B. Belfer arrived here from Poland on Sept. 5, 1939—four days after the outbreak of World War II—without a penny in his pockets or an asset to his name.

Belfer, 55, and the head of a far-flung business empire, donated $2 million to Yeshiva University Tuesday for its Graduate School of Science.

The events of the 23 years in between read like the fulfillment of the American dream.

Belfer was a successful dealer in down and feathers in Cracow, Poland, when he set sail for the United States on a business trip, leaving his wife and three children behind.

FUNDS WORTHLESS

When he arrived here he discovered that Poland had ceased to be an independent country. The money he had with him and the funds he had left behind were worthless.

His situation was precarious in another way, since he had entered the United States on a visitor's visa and had no country to return to.

Belfer was detained at Ellis Island for three days, then was allowed to enter the United States for 60 days on condition he would emigrate to Canada.

He left Ellis Island—after borrowing $5 for spending money—and made his way to Canada. Later he obtained an immigrant's visa and returned to the United States. Subsequently, he managed to bring his family here.

INTERESTED BROKER

Using his knowledge of the international feather market, Belfer interested a New York broker in purchasing feathers in Europe, where they were selling far below U.S. market prices.

The result of these transactions permitted him to get back into business on borrowed money. By 1942 he was manufacturing sleeping bags for the armed forces.

In 1946, Belfer became a U.S. citizen. Four years later he branched out into the foam rubber business. In 1952, he went into oil in Texas and acquired property in Wyoming.

Belfer is head of the Belco Petroleum Corp., which deals in

CROPS GAIN AFTER RAINS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Additional rain last week helped late summer crops make further recoveries from the long summer drought, says the State Crop Reporting Service.

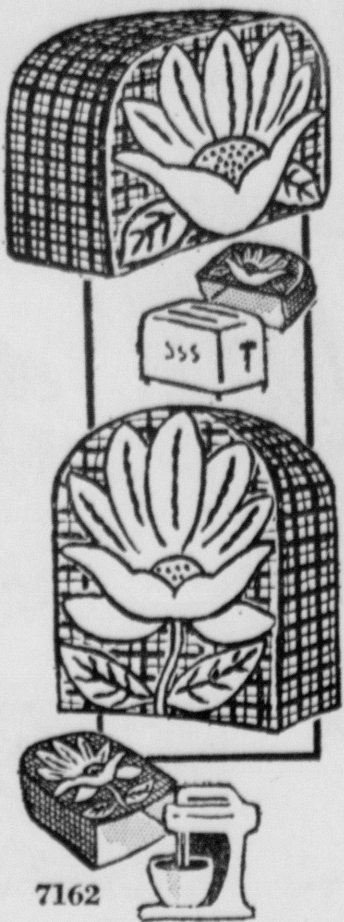

In its weekly survey issued Tuesday, the service added: "Harvesting corn for silage continued as the major farm activity, along with seed bed preparation and the sowing of barley, wheat and clover crops. Clear weather during most of the week provided ideal working conditions."

"More corn than expected was being made into silage as a result of light frost in some areas during the Sept. 6-7 cold snap. Some corn was harvested for grain in southeastern counties, while along the northern tier many fields were no farther along than the tassels stage. Generally, the state's corn crop was between the dough and early dent stages."

"McIntosh, Cortland and delicious apples were being picked in all major orchard areas. Grapes were processing well in Erie County, and were showing high sugar content. Erie growers were harvesting late peaches, but elsewhere the crop had been picked."

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The United States must prepare to defend itself from Russian attack from space, says the head of the Air Force systems command. In an article published Tuesday in the employe magazine of the General Electric Co.'s Missile and Space Division, Gen. Bernard A. Schriever cautioned that there is no reason to believe Russian intentions in space differ from those on earth. "We cannot afford to be subject to an attack from space and we cannot afford to be denied the use of space," for peaceful means, he said.

PREDICTS END OF THREE-WEEK RAIL STRIKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Acting Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz predicts an end soon to the three-week strike of telegraphers against the Chicago & North Western Railway.

Both sides, he said Tuesday, seem to be near an understanding on the issues to be submitted to arbitration. When that is done the strike will be over.

President George Leighty of the striking AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers hinted it might take weeks to agree on issues to be arbitrated. He suggested it might be quicker to continue negotiations.

The C&NW board chairman, Ben W. Heineman, indicated that the range of arbitration could be agreed on quickly.

Wirtz said nothing developed at his meeting with the railroad and union to indicate any difficulty in determining which issues could be settled outright and which should go to arbitration.

The dispute, dragging on for five years, involves the railroad's demand for a free hand in making manpower economies and the union's demand to limit such layoffs or make them subject to negotiation.

The railroad's shutdown has hit the economy of a large section of the Midwest where tons of corn and sugar beets and other crops are ready for movement to market.

Wirtz conferred with Leighty and other union officials again today but a Labor Department spokesman said it was not expected there would be any announcement of an agreement on issues for arbitration before late today or Thursday at the earliest.

KONNERSREUTH, Germany (AP)—Therese Neumann, 64, an almost legendary figure among Catholics died Tuesday of a heart ailment. With the exception of 1951, Miss Neumann has appeared to enter a trance on Good Friday of each year and suffer the agonies of Christ on the cross, with blood apparently streaming from her eyes and hands.

LONG-AWAITED PRESIDENTIAL HOUSING ORDER MAY BE NEAR

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The next big move in the civil rights field may be the long-promised presidential order outlawing discrimination in federally aided housing.

President Kennedy has delayed for 20 months, waiting for what he has called an appropriate time to sign it. A made-to-order occasion is coming right up.

It is Sept. 22, the 100th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation. Yet Washington isn't making any bets Kennedy will find that anniversary appropriate.

PRESSURES GROW

Lincoln signed two Emancipation Proclamations—a preliminary one of Sept. 22, 1862, and the final freeing of the slaves on Jan. 1, 1863.

So next New Year's Day also would be symbolic.

But Jan. 1 is months away, and the pressure on Kennedy grows daily. Some advisers are sure that the appropriate time, politically speaking, is before the Nov. 6 congressional elections.

These same advisers want Congress out of town before the order comes. They fear it would affront Southern members whose support is needed on major administration bills.

IN TERMS OF economic impact, the appropriate time might be even further away. Builders say the order would seriously curtail new construction activity. Housing officials believe the builders exaggerate.

For Negro and civil rights groups, growing ever more vocal and powerful, the appropriate time is long-passed. They have criticized the President for not acting.

Back in 1960, when Kennedy was a candidate, it must have looked easy. Kennedy scolded President Dwight D. Eisenhower for not acting. It could be done, Kennedy said, by "a stroke of the presidential pen."

HASN'T MADE GOOD

Making good on this campaign pledge has become one of Kennedy's most perplexing problems. He decided the political difficulties were far outweighed by the issues of law, equity, and constitutionality. After all, Kennedy had asked Southern politicians when he promised the order. And the non-partisan Civil Rights Commission, created by Congress itself, has officially demanded it.

Still, the question remains: how far can Kennedy stretch his presidential power?

MANY QUESTIONS

Few have questioned his authority to enforce integration in public housing, where the federal cash is a direct subsidy. Not many challenge his power to bar discrimination by banks and loan companies in dwellings which are financed with Federal Housing Authority mortgage insurance or Veterans Administration loan guarantees.

Less clear are situations in which the government merely funnels money, when needed, into the banking system and the savings and loan industry to pump up the supply of mortgage credit; or merely regulates the lenders; or just provides insurance for their deposits, which may in time become mortgage loans.

In these and other ways the government has some strings, however tenuous, on virtually every lender. Can it therefore dictate the terms of its loans? Most government lawyers say yes, in this case. They believe it would be impractical, if not illegal, to issue an order which binds some agencies in the housing credit field and not others.

SAY U.S. WILL USE TROOPS TO STOP COMMIES

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders of both parties finish work Wednesday on a resolution declaring the United States will use troops if it must to resist Communist aggression in this hemisphere.

Three committees meet to polish the language of the resolution and have it ready for passage Thursday by the Senate and House.

Aim of the declaration is to express a common Cuban policy that both Congress and President Kennedy can accept.

BEHIND PRESIDENT

It will also, congressional leaders believe, carry a warning to Moscow and Havana that the nation is behind the President in any action he feels must be taken in reply to the Communist military buildup in Cuba.

In its present form, the resolution pretty much echoes Kennedy's press conference statement on Cuba last Thursday.

To get the resolution into final form, the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committee scheduled a joint meeting. On the other side of the Capitol, the House Foreign Affairs Committee will get together.

The committees will consider a working draft of a joint resolution asserting the United States is determined to prevent "by whatever means may be necessary, including the use of arms, the Marxist-Leninist regime in Cuba from extending its aggression to any part of this hemisphere by force or the threat of force."

Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, John Sparkman, D-Ala., acting chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., ranking GOP member of the former group, developed the proposed language Tuesday in conferences with the House committee and the White House.

The resolution also would voice U.S. determination:

"To prevent in Cuba the creation or use of an externally supported offensive military base capable of endangering the United States naval base at Guantanamo, free passage to the Panama Canal, United States missile and space preparations or the security of this nation and its citizens."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has fired another nuclear test in the atmosphere, the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission reported Tuesday.

The AEC said the device fired in the arctic test area had a low yield. The test was the 13th announced by the AEC in the current Soviet series.

BAN VACCINE USE

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — The Lancaster city and county medical society has postponed use of Type III Sabin oral polio vaccine until its safety is definitely established.

The society said Tuesday it had called off a scheduled Oct. 6 clinic at which Type III was to be administered.

Two other clinics, Nov. 18 and Dec. 6, will be conducted with Types I and II being administered.

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's Red rulers have appealed to the population to save kitchen scraps and keep pigs in their backyards to help overcome the meat shortage.

FAMOUS NAMES ARE INVOLVED IN POLITICKING

By JACK BELL

BOSTON (AP) — November's congressional and state elections appear destined to go down in political history as the battle of highly advertised names.

Massachusetts and New York added some well-known names to the nomination lists already studied by starred billings such as those of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Robert Taft Jr. and auto maker George Romney.

Massachusetts voters decided to pit Edward M. Kennedy, 30, brother of the President, against George Cabot Lodge, 35, son of a former ambassador and senator, for a two-year Senate term.

That's the remainder of the tenure President Kennedy surrendered in 1960 when he moved to the White House from the Senate. REVIVE OLD FIGHTS

Kennedy and Lodge are bereft of elective office experience. But what memories their names conjure up in a state rich with the political tradition of battles between the Kennedy and Lodge clans.

This promises to be a cliff-hanger for the seat once held by Daniel Webster and later by the first Henry Cabot Lodge. It is the job John F. Kennedy wrested from Henry Cabot Lodge, the present candidate's father, in the year former President Dwight D. Eisenhower first showed Republicans how to sweep a presidential contest.

The Eisenhower name will play a part in the Massachusetts general election campaign, along with President Kennedy's. SELECT DONOVAN

New York Democrats came up in their convention with a gold-embossed name from the glittering political days of the late

Woman Is Killed Trying To Save Car

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP) — A 30-year-old grandmother was killed in a desperate effort to move her daughter's stalled car from the path of a train Tuesday.

Marjorie E. Smith of Roodhouse, Ill., her daughter and granddaughters were in the car when it stalled on a Wabash Railway Co. crossing. The others jumped out and fled.

Mrs. Smith slid in behind the steering wheel of the stalled car, trying to restart it. As the passenger train approached, Mrs. Smith jumped.

When the train hit the car, the hurtling car hit Mrs. Smith.

ARZEW, Algeria (AP) — Ahmed Ben Bella has promised that his political bureau will re-establish law and order and make Algeria "an oasis of peace and tranquility within three or four weeks."

The Algerian deputy premier flew Friday to this small Mediterranean port city to lay the foundation stone for a natural gas processing plant to be built by French, American, British and Dutch interests.

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda Wednesday reported hundreds of tons of fruit and vegetables are rotting in the lush Kuban region. It blamed organizational snarls for the losses.

Franklin D. Roosevelt as their nominee for governor. The name is Morgenthau—Robert M. Morgenthau.

Morgenthau, 43, son of former Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, could hardly expect that his name would be as well-known as that of his Republican opponent, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Possibly to make up for this, the Democrats nominated James B. Donovan, the prisoner-exchange negotiating man, as their candidate for the U.S. Senate.

But Donovan is bucking an expert in keeping his name before the public—Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

PAROLING OF SEX CRIMINALS IS CRITICIZED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mayor James H. Tate, describing the rise in "rape cases as pretty shocking, has sharply criticized prison officials and correction and parole boards for what he termed the dumping of sex criminals back into the public stream.

"I don't exclude the courts from blame," Tate told a news conference Tuesday. His statement came on the heels of five assault cases in the city since midnight Saturday.

Tate said that during the first eight months of 1962 there were 225 rape cases. Of the arrests in these, said Tate, 175 had previous records, averaging four arrests per person and ranging from 2 to 33. Of the total, said the mayor, 140 had been arrested on prior sex offenses.

"Prison officials, correctional and parole boards seem to disregard the rights of the people and dump these persons back into the public stream," said Tate.

The mayor called for an overhaul of the parole system, a change in attitude of parole and correctional boards and tightening of parole and probation requirements.

"In spite of police activity and the fact that we are putting more men on the street to give the people assurance of protection we just can't compete with the parole boards who release these people to repeat their activities," said Tate.

CHICAGO (AP) — Jefferson G. Ish, 74, died Tuesday in a hospital after collapsing, apparently from a heart attack. Ish was vice chairman of the board of the Supreme Oil Co., a member of the Illinois Public Aid Commission and a member of an advisory board to the Small Business Administration.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

VOICE APPEAL. An attractive voice and manner of speaking win votes for the politician, fans for the actor, and orders for the salesman. In any area of operation, a woman with a lovely voice gains and holds admiration.

From a man's point of view, voice appeal is a prime requisite in a woman. Men admit that they remove themselves as quickly and as far as possible, from a strident female voice. Yet a pleasant tone can woo them, even into taking a certain amount of bossing.

That, however, does not mean a woman can assume a honied tone and put across unpalatable commands. She just cannot get away with it, for the voice is a double-dealer. It somehow betrays unworthy ideas, although it is well-modulated. But unless it is well-modulated, it cannot express your most winning thoughts.

Perhaps you have never given much consideration to the habitual sound of your voice. Ratings require concentration, a good deal of it. You have to listen—really listen—to the sounds you make to detect whether the tone is melodious or shrill, too loud or too low, colorful or flat.

At the same time you have to concentrate on the meaning of your words. Let your mind wander and your voice will lose its power of conviction.

Again, concentration is the means of correcting flaws. This time while reading aloud. As you read, keep your pitch down and your volume up; by varying your tone and emphasis, try to express the exact shades of the words. Soon the practice produces a voice that attracts all ears.

MACMILLAN IS TOLD TO PUSH FOR CM ENTRY

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP) — Commonwealth leaders have been Prime Minister Harold Macmillan a carefully hedged go-ahead to continue his efforts to lead Britain into the European Common Market.

But the Commonwealth statesmen took the action on the firm understanding that Britain will take account of Commonwealth fears and seek a better deal for Britain's Commonwealth partners when negotiations with the six Common Market countries are resumed in two weeks.

A communique, issued after an unhappy 10-days of wrangling, catalogued various reservations expressed by the Commonwealth leaders.

SUMMIT TALK

The communique said the Commonwealth prime ministers trusted that a closer association between Britain and Europe "would not be allowed, as it developed, to weaken the cohesion of the Commonwealth or its influence for peace and progress in the world."

The lengthy document was issued at the end of summit talks between 16 countries of Britain's worldwide alliance.

It was preceded by a marathon dispute over Britain's proposal to link up with Europe. Almost every one of Britain's partners expressed fears and anxieties that the project would hurt their old-time trading arrangements and political unity.

KEY PASSAGE

The communique explained that various Commonwealth leaders had expressed "the economic points of special concern to their respective countries and the extent to which their interests had not so far been met" in the Common Market negotiations.

A key passage of the communique said "The prime ministers expressed the readiness of their governments to join in comprehensive international efforts by all available means to expand world trade both in primary products and manufactures."

"They recognized the important contribution which the European Economic Community and other regional groups could make in such efforts."

"They hoped that the general

Window Washer Scared To Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Window Washer John Hirowski, 63, apparently was frightened to death Tuesday when his safety belt broke, leaving him dangling by one strap and screaming for help below a sixth-floor window in Manhattan.

He hung suspended at least 10 minutes outside the West 54th Street apartment building before a tenant heard his screams and called police.

When officers got to the window 10 minutes later, Hirowski appeared to have stopped breathing. He was pronounced dead of heart failure.

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Robbins Wolcott Barstow, 70, died in a hospital Tuesday night. The Congregational minister, who retired in 1959, was an executive of the National Council of Churches in New York and a member of the council's staff since 1950.

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Havana radio claimed today U.S. planes made two violations of Cuban territorial waters in the last 48 hours over the northern coast of Oriente Province.

Once Penniless Man Gives $2 Million To University

By ANDREW MEISELS
NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur B. Belfer arrived here from Poland on Sept. 5, 1939—four days after the outbreak of World War II—without a penny in his pockets or an asset to his name.

Belfer, 55, and the head of a far-flung business empire, donated $2 million to Yeshiva University Tuesday for its Graduate School of Science.

The events of the 23 years in between read like the fulfillment of the American dream.

Belfer was a successful dealer in down and feathers in Cracow, Poland, when he set sail for the United States on a business trip, leaving his wife and three children behind.

FUNDS WORTHLESS
When he arrived here he discovered that Poland had ceased to be an independent country. The money he had with him and the funds he had left behind were worthless.

His situation was precarious in another way, since he had entered the United States on a visitor's visa and had no country to return to.

Belfer was detained at Ellis Island for three days, then was allowed to enter the United States for 60 days on condition he would emigrate to Canada.

He left Ellis Island—after borrowing $5 for spending money—and made his way to Canada. Later he obtained an immigrant's visa and returned to the United States. Subsequently, he managed to bring his family here.

INTERESTED BROKER
Using his knowledge of the international leather market, Belfer interested a New York broker in purchasing leathers in Europe, where they were selling far below U.S. market prices.

The result of these transactions permitted him to get back into business on borrowed money. By 1942 he was manufacturing sleeping bags for the armed forces.

In 1946, Belfer became a U.S. citizen. Four years later he branched out into the foam rubber business. In 1952, he went into oil in Texas and acquired property in Wyoming.

Belfer is head of the Belco Petroleum Corp., which deals in

CROPS GAIN AFTER RAINS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Additional rain last week helped late summer crops make further recoveries from the long summer drought, says the State Crop Reporting Service.

In its weekly survey issued Tuesday, the service added:

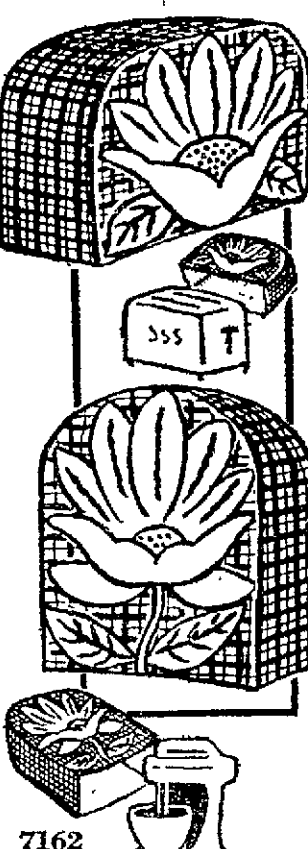

"Harvesting corn for silage continued as the major farm activity, along with seed bed preparation and the sowing of barley, wheat and clover crops. Clear weather during most of the week provided ideal working conditions."

"More corn than expected was being made into silage as a result of light frost in some areas during the Sept. 6-7 cold snap. Some corn was harvested for grain in southeastern counties, while along the northern tier many fields were no farther along than the tassels stage. Generally, the state's corn crop was between the dough and early dent stages."

"McIntosh, Cortland and delicious apples were being picked in all major orchard areas. Grapes were processing well in Erie County, and were showing high sugar content. Erie growers were harvesting late peaches, but elsewhere the crop had been picked."

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The United States must prepare to defend itself from Russian attack from space, says the head of the Air Force systems command. In an article published Tuesday in the employe magazine of the General Electric Co.'s Missile and Space Division, Gen. Bernard A. Schriever cautioned that there is no reason to believe Russian intentions in space differ from those on earth. "We cannot afford to be subject to an attack from space and we cannot afford to be denied the use of space for peaceful means, he said."

PREDICTS END OF THREE-WEEK RAIL STRIKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Acting Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz predicts an end soon to the three-week strike of telegraphers against the Chicago & North Western Railway.

Both sides, he said Tuesday, seem to be near an understanding on the issues to be submitted to arbitration. When that is done the strike will be over.

President George Leighty of the striking AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers hinted it might take weeks to agree on issues to be arbitrated. He suggested it might be quicker to continue negotiations.

The C&NW board chairman, Ben W. Heineman, indicated that the range of arbitration could be agreed on quickly.

Wirtz said nothing developed at his meeting with the railroad and union to indicate any difficulty in determining which issues could be settled outright and which should go to arbitration.

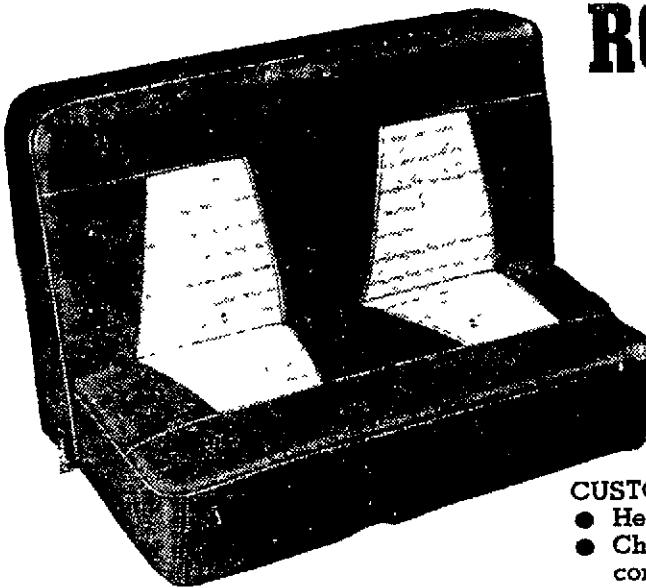

The dispute, dragging on for five years, involves the railroad's demand for a free hand in making manpower economies and the union's demand to limit such layoffs or make them subject to negotiation.

The railroad's shutdown has hit the economy of a large section of the Midwest where tons of corn and sugar beets and other crops are ready for movement to market.

Wirtz conferred with Leighty and other union officials again today but a Labor Department spokesman said it was not expected there would be any announcement of an agreement on issues for arbitration before late today or Thursday at the earliest.

KONNERSREUTH, Germany (AP)—Therese Neumann, 64, an almost legendary figure among Catholics died Tuesday of a heart ailment. With the exception of 1951, Miss Neumann has appeared to enter a trance on Good Friday of each year and suffer the agonies of Christ on the cross, with blood apparently streaming from her eyes and hands.

Ecclesiastical Matters Will Dominate Vatican Council Sessions

By JULES LOH
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The announced aim of the Second Vatican Council to promote Christian unity has gotten most of the headlines, but actually it is only one of a dozen major topics on the proposed agenda.

The main work of the council — which opens October 11 and will last at least a year, perhaps longer — will be mostly in the category of ecclesiastical housekeeping.

As the accompanying map shows, the Catholic Church now encompasses 550,356,000 persons in every corner of the world. Its growth has resulted in an enormous administrative problem, as well as difficulties in keeping its teachings and practices tidy among so many varying cultures.

IMPORTANT TASKS

One of the council's most important tasks, therefore, will be to spell out more precisely the role of the approximately 2,000 bishops who tend the far flung flock.

Catholics regard their bishops as the successors to the apostles, with the same relation to the Pope as the apostles had to Peter.

The First Vatican Council a century ago defined the position and powers of the Pope. "The Second Vatican Council," said Boston's Cardinal Cushing, "must now do the same thing in delineating with new insight the position and authority of the bishops."

For the past several months the bishops, who will make up the council, have been studying a proposed agenda. It was drawn up by more than 1,000 preparatory workers — 66 of them from the United States — during the past three years.

WELL PREPARED

None of the other 20 councils in the church's history has been so thoroughly prepared.

The agenda, all 2,060 pages of it, is divided into 12 general topics, each subdivided in turn into as many as 17 specific categories. The 12 topics are:

Theology, bishops and government of dioceses, discipline of clergy and laity, religious communities, sacraments, liturgy, studies and seminaries, Eastern churches, mission, laity, communications media, and Christian unity.

The council won't be hidebound by the agenda, though. The definition of papal infallibility, the most important work done by the last council, 100 years ago, wasn't even on the agenda.

Even though most of the topics are of a strictly Catholic nature there will be much done at the council of interest to non-Catholics.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

For example, the bishops will study a proposal to assert religious freedom as "a human right," and also will examine the church's position on church-state relations. Religious freedom also will be considered in discussions concerning Christian unity.

In the reform of canon law, the council is expected to emphasize social teachings.

"What a tragedy it will be," said Rev. H. A. Reinhold of Pittsburgh, "if we let communism appear to be the only alternative to a 'free' economy. Let us keep in mind that our great adversary is the practical materialism of the whole world, not simply one of its crystallizations in communism."

CHRISTIAN UNITY

Under the general heading of Christian unity, the council will study four subtopics: Catholic ecumenism, religious freedom, the necessity of prayers for unity, and the Bible as a means of union.

Augustin Cardinal Bea, the Vatican's secretary for promoting Christian unity, has spoken at length on the subject and a clear view of some of the problems the council will face has emerged.

Some of the obstacles to unity, he has said, are "an immense accumulation of misinterpretation, of resentment and of misunderstanding between separated Christians . . . bitter historical memories that provoke mutual suspicion and aversion . . . widespread ignorance of one another's religious tenets and . . . the unexampled life of many Catholics."

NO COMPROMISE

Cardinal Bea has ruled out any compromise in the realm of dogma, but without closing the door to further doctrinal unity.

"Without sacrificing any revealed truth," he said, "the council could help to understand more clearly the whole of revealed truth."

"The council could explain Catholic doctrine in a way that would take account of the changes of language that have occurred among our separated brothers from the time of separation up to now."

"Our theological propositions do not always express the full depth and richness of revealed doctrine. The council could, therefore . . . develop especially those aspects of revealed truth which answer their deepest needs and

Mummasburg

MUMMASBURG — Raymond Fidler, an employee of Inland Container Corporation, Biglerville, and a member of Local 839, returned to his home after spending eight days as a delegate to the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphate and Paper Mill Workers, held at Detroit.

Mrs. Bessie Riddle of Hanover spent the weekend at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cullison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carey and sons, Mr. and Mrs. John Carey, and family, and Mrs. Anna Warrenfeltz visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Warrenfeltz Sunday at Tower City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harmon, Mrs. Nellie Leatherman and Mrs. Bessie Riddle visited at the home of Mrs. Ida Shoop at Mt. Alto, on Sunday.

The prospects in this field plainly are exciting, and will be of paramount interest to the 100 non-Catholic observers who will attend the sessions.

But the day to day business of the council is likely to be a good deal more pedestrian.

Cool, night-time temperatures forewarn us that we have but a short time remaining to enjoy so many fresh produce items from nearby farms. An early frost could force cancellation of your plans to can or freeze vegetables, reveals Tom Piper, Penn State Extension Marketing Agent. Better take advantage of these locally grown commodities before Jack Frost arrives.

Some late-season fields of sweet corn are now offering a last chance for a corn boil or roast. Tomatoes, beans, eggplant, peppers, summer squash, and most salad items will be gone with the frosts that are not far away. Of course, vegetables will continue to be on the markets, but they will probably bear higher prices than those grown near home. Homegrown cabbage, celery, cauliflower and potatoes are plentiful and quite inexpensive to serve.

Fruit fanciers will be happy at the fruit counters this fall for the choice is wide. Grapes — both the eastern and western grown varieties — are now available. Buy them in quantity for juice and jellies. Bartlett pears, bananas, and a growing list of apples, including Summer Rambo, Smokehouse, Jonathan and McIntosh varieties, are on the list of good buys this week.

Despite the publicity given to the recent withholding of cattle from the stock yards in the mid-west, supplies of most cuts are adequate. Receipts of live cattle and hogs have shown an increase over last week; wholesale and retail prices should ease downward but not much this week.

MAN INDICTED IN COP'S DEATH

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—A Delaware County grand jury has indicted a Claymont, Del., man on charges of second degree murder and involuntary manslaughter in the traffic death of a Delaware state trooper during a chase.

The true bills against Ross Allen Johnson, 22, were returned by the grand jury Tuesday after it heard from several witnesses, including five Delaware state policemen and Sgt. Reynolds V. Comstock, commanding officer of the Elwyn, Pa., state police barracks.

Harold B. Rupert, 34, of the Pennhill, Del., station was killed April 19 during a chase which started in Wilmington. Police said Johnson's car was traveling at speeds of up to 120 miles an hour and during the chase the state police car crashed into a tractor-trailer just over the Delaware line in Marcus Hook, Pa. Police said the officer's car was forced to swerve to the left into the path of the tractor-trailer by Johnson's car.

Many stores are expected to feature red meats at promotional prices this weekend. Round steaks, chuck roasts and ground beef will be subject to promotion; pork loins and hams may receive similar treatment. Poultry prices are up, influenced greatly by the recent jump in red meat prices.

Egg prices have shown a moderate price increase. Medium size eggs are now available in large supply and offer greatest value on a weight basis.

Storage stocks of cheese are high. This commodity will be subject to promotion during October. Frozen orange juice, rice and cranberries have set new production records this year. Watch for values on these items.

FAMOUS NAMES ARE INVOLVED IN POLITICKING

By JACK BELL
BOSTON (AP) — November's congressional and state elections appear destined to go down in political history as the battle of highly advertised names.
Massachusetts and New York added some well-known names to the nomination lists already studded by starred billings such as those of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Robert Taft Jr. and auto maker George Romney.
Massachusetts voters decided to pit Edward M. Kennedy, 30, brother of the President, against George Cabot Lodge, 35, son of a former ambassador and senator, for a two-year Senate term.
That's the remainder of the tenure President Kennedy surrendered in 1960 when he moved to the White House from the Senate.
Revive Old Fights
Kennedy and Lodge are bereft of elective office experience. But what memories their names conjure up in a state rich with the political tradition of battles between the Kennedy and Lodge clans.
This promises to be a cliff-hanger for the seat once held by Daniel Webster and later by the first Henry Cabot Lodge. It is the job John F. Kennedy wrested from Henry Cabot Lodge, the present candidate's father, in the year former President Dwight D. Eisenhower first showed Republicans how to sweep a presidential contest.
The Eisenhower name will play a part in the Massachusetts general election campaign, along with President Kennedy's.

Woman Is Killed Trying To Save Car

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A 50-year-old grandmother was killed in a desperate effort to move her daughter's stalled car from the path of a train Tuesday.
Marjorie E. Smith of Roodhouse, Ill., her daughter and granddaughters were in the car when it stalled on a Wabash Railway Co. crossing. The others jumped out and fled.
Mrs. Smith slid in behind the steering wheel of the stalled car, trying to restart it. As the passenger train approached, Mrs. Smith jumped.
When the train hit the car the hurrying car hit Mrs. Smith.
ARZEW, Algeria (AP) — Ahmed Ben Bella has promised that his political bureau will re-establish law and order and make Algeria "an oasis of peace and tranquility" within three or four weeks.
The Algerian deputy premier flew Friday to this small Mediterranean port city to lay the foundation stone for a natural gas processing plant to be built by French, American, British and Dutch interests.
MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda Wednesday reported hundreds of tons of fruit and vegetables are rotting in the lush Kuban region. It blamed organizational snarls for the losses.
Franklin D. Roosevelt as their nominee for governor. The name is Morgenthau—Robert M. Morgenthau.
Morgenthau, 43, son of former Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, could hardly expect that his name would be as well-known as that of his Republican opponent, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.
Possibly to make up for this, the Democrats nominated James B. Donovan, the prisoner-exchange negotiating man, as their candidate for the U.S. Senate.
But Donovan is bucking an expert in keeping his name before the public—Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

PAROLING OF SEX CRIMINALS IS CRITICIZED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mayor James H. Tate, describing the rise in rape cases as pretty shocking, has sharply criticized prison officials and correction and parole boards for what he termed the dumping of sex criminals back into the public stream.
"I don't exclude the courts from blame," Tate told a news conference Tuesday. His statement came on the heels of five assault cases in the city since midnight Saturday.
Tate said that during the first eight months of 1962 there were 225 rape cases. Of the arrests in these, said Tate, 173 had previous records, averaging four arrests per person and ranging from 2 to 23. Of the total, said the mayor, 140 had been arrested on prior sex offenses.
"Prison officials, correctional and parole boards seem to disregard the rights of the people and dump these persons back into the public stream," said Tate.
The mayor called for an overhaul of the parole system, a change in attitude of parole and correctional boards and tightening of parole and probation requirements.
"In spite of police activity and the fact that we are putting more men on the street to give the people assurance of protection we just can't compete with the parole boards who release these people to repeat their activities," said Tate.
CHICAGO (AP) — Jefferson G. Ish, 74, died Tuesday in a hospital after collapsing, apparently from a heart attack. Ish was vice chairman of the board of the Supreme Oil Co., a member of the Illinois Public Aid Commission and a member of an advisory board to the Small Business Administration.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
VOICE APPEAL. An attractive voice and manner of speaking win votes for the politician, fans for the actor, and orders for the salesman. In any area of opportunity, a woman with a lovely voice gains and holds admiration.
From a man's point of view, voice appeal is a prime requisite in a woman. Men admit that they remove themselves as quickly and as far as possible from a strident, female voice. Yet a pleasant tone can woo them, even into taking a certain amount of bossing.
That, however, does not mean a woman can assume a honied tone and put across unpalatable commands. She just cannot get away with it, for the voice is a double-dealer. It somehow betrays unworthy ideas, although it is well-modulated. But unless it is well-modulated, it cannot express your most winning thoughts.
Perhaps you have never given much consideration to the habitual sound of your voice. Ratings require concentration, a good deal of it. You have to listen—really listen—to the sounds you make to detect whether the tone is melodious or shrill, too loud or too low, colorful or flat.
At the same time you have to concentrate on the meaning of your words. Let your mind wander and your voice will lose its power of conviction.
Again, concentration is the means of correcting flaws. This time while reading aloud. As you read, keep your pitch down and your volume up; by varying your tone and emphasis, try to express the exact shades of the words. Soon the practice produces a voice that attracts all ears.

MACMILLAN IS TOLD TO PUSH FOR CM ENTRY

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
LONDON (AP) — Commonwealth leaders have been Prime Minister Harold Macmillan a carefully-hedged go-ahead to continue his efforts to lead Britain into the European Common Market.
But the Commonwealth statesmen took the action on the firm understanding that Britain will take account of Commonwealth fears and seek a better deal for Britain's Commonwealth partners when negotiations with the six Common Market countries are resumed in two weeks.
A communique, issued after an unhappy 10-days of wrangling, catalogued various reservations expressed by the Commonwealth leaders.

Window Washer Scared To Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Window Washer John Hirowski, 63, apparently was frightened to death Tuesday when his safety belt broke, leaving him dangling by one strap and screaming for help below a sixth-floor window in Manhattan.
He hung suspended at least 10 minutes outside the West 54th Street apartment building before a tenant heard his screams and called police.
When officers got to the window 10 minutes later, Hirowski appeared to have stopped breathing. He was pronounced dead of heart failure.
STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Robbins Wolcott Barslow, 70, died in a hospital Tuesday night. The Congregational minister, who retired in 1959, was an executive of the National Council of Churches in New York and a member of the council's staff since 1950.
KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Havana radio claimed today U.S. planes made two violations of Cuban territorial waters in the last 48 hours over the northern coast of Oriente Province.
objectives set out above would be shared by the members of the community.

Biggest Diplomatic Show Opens In U.N. Building

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The biggest diplomatic show on earth is open for another season in a glittering glass and concrete theater on Manhattan's East River.

The U.N. General Assembly will run until just before Christmas. Prospects are that it will reopen after the first of the year for several more weeks.

Mong Slim, a dapper Tunisian diplomat with the air of a Paris boulevardier started things off on Tuesday afternoon by saying in French: "I declare open the 17th session of the General Assembly."

YOUNG GREEK STUDENT GIVEN JOB IN CANADA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Greek exchange student ordered deported is planning to move his family to Montreal, Canada, where he recently was offered a job, the Immigration Service disclosed Wednesday.

Nicolas Louvaris, who came to the United States in 1959 and decided he didn't want to leave, was under orders to leave the country by Thursday, despite efforts by U. S. Sen. Joseph D. Clark, D-Pa., to delay the departure until Congress might act on a special bill to permit permanent residence.

KILLED BILL IN '61

The House Judiciary Committee killed a similar bill last year.

An immigration spokesman said Louvaris can continue his arrangements to move to Canada even beyond Thursday "as long as we know a bona fide effort is being made to carry out our ruling."

The spokesman added, "We always work with aliens when they make a sincere effort to cooperate."

Louvaris, a teacher in Athens who has been working as an engineering aid here, married Joann Pollard of Osakis, Minn., in Milwaukee in 1960. They have two sons, and she is expecting a third.

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet guards held up a U.S. convoy on the highway from West Germany for three hours Wednesday because of what a U.S. Army spokesman called a misunderstanding of procedures.

The convoy was finally allowed to start the 110-mile journey across Communist East Germany. The 193 officers and men of the convoy were in 26 vehicles.

The Army spokesman said he could not give any more details of the reason for the delay.

USES EXTRA CUSHION

Slim sat behind a large podium of green marble at the front of the hall. He is small in stature, and he uses an extra cushion on his chair.

At his right sat the acting secretary-general, U Thant of Burma. At Slim's left C. V. Narasimhan of India, Thant's chief staff officer.

By tradition, the delegates stood for a minute of silent prayer or meditation—each according to the dictates of his own religion or philosophy.

USE NATIVE DRESS

Most of the delegates wore Western dress. But many Africans chose the dress of their native countries—reds, golds and white among the varied hues.

Slim called upon the assembly to elect a successor to him as assembly president, and the prologue to the first act of the drama was about over.

For the first couple of weeks or so there will be general policy debate. Each chief delegate will march down the gently sloping aisles on heavy green carpeting to the speaker's rostrum to give his country's views on international issues.

Presidents, dictators and monarchs have addressed the assembly from the green marble rostrum.

SHARE DESKS

Each speaker looks out on rows of long green-covered desks that stretch to the back of the hall. There are no individual desks for delegates. For the most part two delegations share a long desk, behind which are two rows of 10 chairs each. Each delegation is permitted a maximum of 10 seats on the floor—five in the one row and five in the other.

Lot determines the seating of delegations for each assembly session. This year Guinea was chosen to occupy the first desk in the first row at the right of the speaker's rostrum. Haiti shares the desk. Honduras and Hungary make up the rest of the first row. The United States and Britain share a desk in the ninth row. So do the Soviet Union and the United Arab Republic.

Welder Will Be Guest At Dinner

HARRISBURG (AP) — George DeMartz, Pennsylvania welder cited by President Kennedy in a nationally televised address, will be a special guest this evening at the Democratic party's fundraising dinner here.

Kennedy who will be the main speaker at the $100-a-plate dinner, cited DeMartz Aug. 13 as an outstanding example of job retraining under the federal Area Redevelopment Program.

The former Carbon County mine worker was one of 20 men selected by the state Bureau of Employment Security for retraining as a combination welder last February.

DeMartz will be accompanied by his wife.

TED KENNEDY BACKERS SURE OF VICTORY

By RELMAN MORIN

BOSTON (AP) — Edward M. Kennedy, a sensational winner in the Massachusetts Democratic primary, looks like a political natural today, and his backers are predicting that he will drive through in November to a seat in the U.S. Senate.

It is the seat vacated in 1960 by John F. Kennedy when he was elected President.

Ted crushed his opponent for the Democratic nomination, Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., in a blitz that dwarfed his own supporters no less than McCormack's.

Shortly after the first returns his headquarters notified President Kennedy at Newport, R. I. "He said he was very pleased," said one of Ted's chief lieutenants.

"MAIDEN RUN"

The younger Kennedy, who is 30 and making his maiden run for elective office, took it all with glacial calm.

By about 10 p.m., some three hours after the polls closed, he was on his way from his Boston apartment to McCormack's headquarters, and then to a frantic, roaring victory celebration at the Fouraine Hotel.

As he was hoisted onto the stage in the converted ballroom, he looked like a man who had known all along that it would be like this.

His pretty blonde wife, Joan, stood beside him, fighting a losing battle against tears. She swallowed hard and her voice broke when she tried to speak into the microphones. "I'm so grateful," she choked. "I don't know what else to say."

4 MAIN FACTORS

His juggernaut victory appears to be the result of four main factors—the Kennedy name in Massachusetts, Ted's natural talent for politics, a precision-engineered organization, and a debate that backfired on his opponent.

Weeks before the election, a Boston politician told this correspondent: "He's got more political savvy already than his brother had in his first campaign. It seems to come more naturally to him than it did to Jack when he was starting."

The younger Kennedy worked hard, driving himself, day and night. He covered the state from end to end. He spoke at five and six rallies a day. His voice gave out toward the end.

GOOD ORGANIZATION

Like the President's 1960 campaign, this one was supported by a smooth-working, professional organization, well supplied with money.

One of the key figures on the team is Kennedy's brother-in-law, Stephen Smith. He is married to the former Jean Kennedy.

Smith says the turning point in the campaign began to appear after Kennedy's first televised debate with McCormack. In that appearance, the attorney general told Kennedy that, without the famous name, "your candidacy would be a joke."

"We took some samplings of opinion after the debate," Smith said. "Ted was the underdog before that. But we found people switching. It definitely must have backfired on McCormack."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., Tuesday signed the code of the fair campaign practices committee, pledging a campaign for re-election "in keeping with the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play."

Asks High Court To Rule On Probe

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Arguments for and against a grand jury probe of City Hall have revealed a need for the state Supreme Court to set down rules governing such investigations, says city solicitor David Berger.

Berger, in a brief filed Tuesday, asked the high court to set down such rules "to eliminate the confusion that has led to a myriad of appeals and petitions."

He also outlined his position contesting the legality of the special grand jury ordered by Common Pleas Judge Eugene V. Alessandrini.

The jurist's action was illegal, Berger said. He urged the high court to uphold the subsequent action of another Common Pleas Court which halted the grand jury's work.

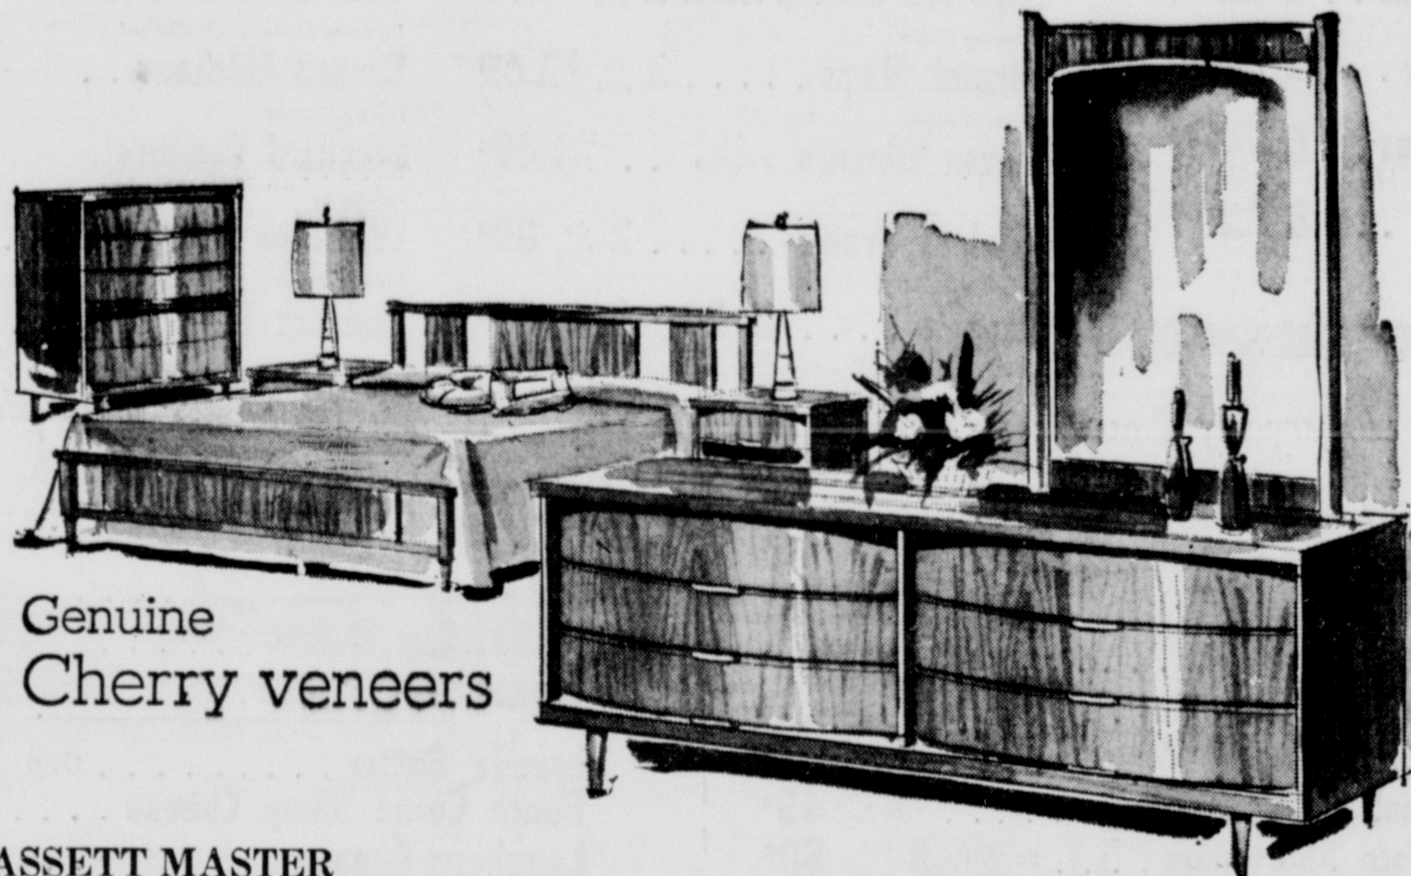

WASHINGTON (AP) — Latin-American nations have approved a U.S. proposal for an informal conference of foreign ministers of the American republics to discuss Communist Cuba, an informed source said Tuesday. The meeting probably will be held here Oct. 2 and 3.

Ecclesiastical Matters Will Dominate Vatican Council Sessions

By JULES LOH
AP Newsfeatures Writer

The announced aim of the Second Vatican Council to promote Christian unity has gotten most of the headlines, but actually it is only one of a dozen major topics on the proposed agenda.

The main work of the council — which opens October 11 and will last at least a year, perhaps longer — will be mostly in the category of ecclesiastical housekeeping.

As the accompanying map shows, the Catholic Church now encompasses 550,356,000 persons in every corner of the world. Its growth has resulted in an enormous administrative problem, as well as difficulties in keeping its teachings and practices tidy among so many varying cultures.

IMPORTANT TASKS

One of the council's most important tasks, therefore, will be to spell out more precisely the role of the approximately 2,000 bishops who tend the far flung flock.

Catholics regard their bishops as the successors to the apostles, with the same relation to the Pope as the apostles had to Peter.

The First Vatican Council a century ago defined the position and powers of the Pope. "The Second Vatican Council," said Boston's Richard Cardinal Cushing, "must now do the same thing in delineating with new insight the position and authority of the bishops."

For the past several months the bishops, who will make up the council, have been studying a proposed agenda. It was drawn up by more than 1,000 preparatory workers — 66 of them from the United States — during the past three years.

WELL PREPARED

None of the other 20 councils in the church's history has been so thoroughly prepared.

The agenda, all 2,060 pages of it, is divided into 12 general topics, each subdivided in turn into as many as 17 specific categories. The 12 topics are:

Theology, bishops and government of dioceses, discipline of clergy and laity, religious communities, sacraments, liturgy, studies and seminaries, Eastern churches, mission, laity, communications media, and Christian unity.

The council won't be hidebound by the agenda, though. The definition of papal infallibility, the most important work done by the last council, 100 years ago, wasn't even on the agenda.

Even though most of the topics are of a strictly Catholic nature there will be much done at the council of interest to non-Catholics.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

For example, the bishops will study a proposal to assert religious freedom as "a human right," and also will examine the church's position on church-state relations. Religious freedom also will be considered in discussions concerning Christian unity.

In the reform of canon law, the council is expected to emphasize social teachings.

"What a tragedy it will be," said Rev. H. A. Reinhold of Pittsburgh, "if we let communism appear to be the only alternative to a 'free' economy. Let us keep in mind that our great adversary is the practical materialism of the whole world, not simply one of its crystallizations in communism."

MAN INDICTED IN COP'S DEATH

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—A Delaware County grand jury has indicted a Claymont, Del., man on charges of second degree murder and involuntary manslaughter in the traffic death of a Delaware state trooper during a chase.

The true bills against Ross Allen Johnson, 22, were returned by the grand jury Tuesday after it heard from several witnesses, including five Delaware state policemen and Sgt. Reynolds V. Comstock, commanding officer of the Elwyn, Pa., state police barracks.

Harold B. Rupert, 34, of the Pennyhill, Del., station was killed April 19 during a chase which started in Wilmington. Police said Johnson's car was traveling at speeds of up to 120 miles an hour and during the chase the state police car crashed into a tractor-trailer just over the Delaware line in Marcus Hook, Pa. Police said the officer's car was forced to swerve to the left into the path of the tractor-trailer by Johnson's car.

Many stores are expected to feature red meats at promotional prices this weekend. Round steaks, chuck roasts and ground beef will be subject to promotion; pork loins and hams may receive similar treatment. Poultry prices are up, influenced greatly by the recent jump in red meat prices.

Egg prices have shown a moderate price increase. Medium size eggs are now available in large supply and offer greatest value on a weight basis.

Storage stocks of cheese are high. This commodity will be subject to promotion during October. Frozen orange juice, rice and cranberries have set new production records this year. Watch for values on these items.

Cool night-time temperatures forewarn us that we have but a short time remaining to enjoy so many fresh produce items from nearby farms. An early frost could force cancellation of your plans to can or freeze vegetables, reveals Tom Piper, Penn State Extension Marketing Agent. Better take advantage of these locally grown commodities before Jack Frost arrives.

Some late-season fields of sweet corn are now offering a last chance for a corn boil or roast. Tomatoes, beans, eggplant, peppers, summer squash, and most salad items will be gone with the frosts that are not far away. Of course, vegetables will continue to be on the markets, but they will be shipped from other areas and will probably bear higher prices than those grown near home. Homegrown cabbage, celery, cauliflower and potatoes are plentiful and quite inexpensive to serve.

Fruit fanciers will be happy at the fruit counters this fall for the choice is wide. Grapes — both the eastern and western grown varieties — are now available. Buy them in quantity for juice and jellies. Bartlett pears, bananas, and a growing list of apples, including Summer Rambo, Smokehouse, Jonathan and McIntosh varieties, are on the list of good buys this week.

Despite the publicity given to the recent withholding of cattle from the stock yards in the mid-west, supplies of most cuts are adequate. Receipts of live cattle and hogs have shown an increase over last week; wholesale and retail prices should ease downward but not much this week.
